Former Local Man Named to OEA Post

When officers are installed this week at the annual meeting of the Oregon Education Association in Portland among them will be Allen Rogers, formerly of Medford, now of Albany.

Rogers will be installed as vice president. He is a classroom teacher and counselor in Albany.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Rogers, 903 Queen Anne ave. and the brother of Mrs. John C. Smith, 127 South Keeney dr., and Lou Rogers, Prospect. He attended elementary and high school in Medford and Southern Oregon college in addition to Oregon State university and the University of Oregon.

His wife, the former Lorraine Pollock, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Pollock, 30 Eastwood dr., Medford. The couple has a daughter, Judi, who is a senior at Willamette university.

Rogers has been active in OEA activities on county, state and national levels.

BLAMES LANDLADY

Cedar Rapids, Iowa — (UPI) — Ed Farrell, 23, blamed his landlady today when she refused to let him out of a 90-pound lion cub and two large rattlesnakes.

He was found in a quarry. "I shot them because my landlady was complaining about my having them in my apartment," he said.
