Mrs. Joanne Reed, Ashland, Jori Jewelry and Enamels, entered a commercial display of enameled copper which was not judged. Mrs. Jewel Parr, Phoenix, won a blue ribbon on bracelets made from buttons and on ribbon corsages. Barbara Merrill, Apple-gate, was awarded a blue ribbon for leatherwork. A display table of china painting by Mrs. Myra Elson, Phoenix, a painting teacher, was not judged.

Paintings Entered
In oils a blue ribbon was awarded to Mrs. Donna Francis for her painting "Cedar Lake"; second place went to W. H. Walwyn, Medford, and third to Mrs. Frank Conner, Ashland, for "Spring Hikers." In water colors, Mrs. Francis won a blue ribbon for "Piz-za"; Mrs. Eva Craig, Medford, took second place for a water color No. 5, and Linda Kenyon won a blue ribbon for a "Study in Ink."

Judging the paintings and arts and crafts in both senior and junior division was Robert Onsted, Ashland.

A retired staff sergeant, Harland Lowe, Talent, entered two model planes and several engines and many of the awards and trophies he has won in world wide meets, while in the United States Air Force, Ralph Boussum, Grants Pass, entered a rock and plastic coffee-table and vases. Both were awarded blue ribbons. Mrs. J. E. Lynch, Medford, entered two antique coverlets made in the early 1800's and an antique quilt, winning blue ribbons. Quilts made recently were entered by Mrs. E. W. Switzer, who received both the first and second place. Mrs. Cora Musser received third place on a quilted quilt and first on her tied baby quilt. Mrs. Clemmy McCasland, who judged the needlework, also showed her quilted bedspread.

Dolls Shown
Mrs. Russell Herbert, Medford, showed part of her extensive doll, scarf and salt and pepper collections, and received blue ribbons. Mrs. W. H. Walwyn, Medford, showed her collection of sea shells and show items and also her extensive collection of paper napkins, which she has received from correspondents all over the world. She won two blue ribbons.

In the crochet division, items were entered by Mrs. Millie Flynn, who took first; Mrs. Archie Estes, second, and Mrs. Everett Culver, who was awarded both third and honorable mention. Judging of crochet and knitting was by Mrs. Frank Conner, Ashland, Mrs. Loring Martin received both first and second place on her knitted sweaters. Mrs. Eric De Place, Medford, won a blue ribbon on her embroidered pillow cases as did Loring Martin, Phoenix, on his scrollwork picture frame and Mrs. Iva Tuglie, Talent, for an arrangement of antique glass "Memories of the 1800's."

Murray Sutton, Talent, won a blue ribbon on several pieces of furniture. Mrs. Juanita Yancey, Phoenix, entered a tin can wall plaque which was awarded a blue ribbon. E. K. Witt, Medford, entered five frames of coins and paper money and received a blue ribbon. Arthur Chipman, Medford, and Everett Culver, Talent, entered antique guns with Mr. Chipman taking first place and Mr. Culver second.

New Agent Announced

Miss Data Hochhalter will become Jackson county home economics extension agent beginning April 8 according to an announcement made today by C. B. Cordy, Jackson county extension chairman. Miss Hochhalter will replace Miss Joan Beasley who has been named as Jackson County 4-H agent.

Miss Hochhalter, who is presently home extension agent in Douglas county, will work with 34 home extension units organized throughout Jackson county to carry on the home extension educational program.

The new agent is originally from Napoleon, N.D. She received her bachelor's degree from North Dakota State university at Fargo, and master's degree from Washington State university, Pullman. She has taught home economics and has worked with the extension service in North Dakota and Minnesota as well as Oregon.

On April 8 Miss Data Hochhalter will become Jackson county home extension agent. Miss Hochhalter will replace Miss Joan Beasley who will remain in the county as 4-H club agent.

Group Attends Recent Session

A number of Medford members of Cebu swamp, Military Order of the Lizards, United Spanish War Veterans, attended a meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Walter Sweetland in Grants Pass. They were the gila monster, Mrs. James Vandersteen, and Mrs. Bertha Nelson, Mrs. Arthur Gilmore, Mrs. Alice Smith, Mrs. Polly Offutt, Mrs. Harry Barneburg and Mrs. Don Anderson.

The grand gila monster, Mrs. Mabel Breitemeyer, Grants Pass, made her official visit to Cebu swamp at that time. A banquet at noon was served in her honor.

Mrs. Breitemeyer discussed the plans for a grand convocation to be held in Eugene late in June. Mrs. Anderson, past grand gila monster, presented Mrs. Breitemeyer with a corsage from Cebu swamp and she received a gift from Mrs. Vandersteen in behalf of the swamp.

Mrs. Breitemeyer plans official visits to the different swamps in Oregon and will be accompanied by the grand horned toad. Mrs. Renne Grosh, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Arthur Gilmore was initiated. She is the daughter of a United Spanish War veteran. Mrs. Walter Sweetland, junior past gila monster, presented each of her officers with gifts.

Guests included Mrs. Vandersteen and his three young granddaughters.

A collection of cartridges entered by Grant Bailey, Jacksonville, won a blue ribbon. Mrs. Rudy Conner, Talent, exhibited a collection of jeweled powder boxes and vases, pictures made of buttons, of seed beads, of torn paper, and two embroidered pictures. She received four blue ribbons. Mrs. Galen Jordan, Jacksonville, entered 25 frames of buttons, winning three ribbons on three frames. Judging was by Mrs. Rudy Conner.

Stamps Shown
Samp entries were judged by Dr. W. B. Gilles, Rogue Valley Manor, and E. K. Witt, Medford. First place went to Clyde Smith, Ashland, on his U.S. post office covers; second place to Mr. and Mrs. Russell Herbert, Medford, for Vatican covers and Mrs. Eric DePlace, Medford, received third place for her history of the states on stamps. Honorable mention went to John Shortridge, Medford, for Orava Abbey stamps; Frank Applegate, Medford, for a revenue stamp collection; and Mrs. W. H. Walwyn, Medford, on United States stamps.

Mrs. Roland Beach, Medford, entered her coats of armor for which she won a blue ribbon. Blue ribbons went to Everett Culver for his crossstitch pictures, to Mrs. Clemmie McCasland for plastic pictures and Mrs. Marjorie Wade for needlepoint pictures. Mrs. Wade also received blue ribbons on her large braided wool rug and matching throw rug, and another collection of oil pictures.

Donated prizes were won by Miss April Burnette and Mrs. Pearl Martin, Talent; E. K. Witt and Mrs. Russell Herbert, Medford.

Verle Lubbers won a blue ribbon for a case of agate jewelry, and Ronald Tompkins a blue ribbon for a case of petrified wood.

An unjudged display was entered by Camp Fire Girls, and the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County sent out a display of books.

The annual show is sponsored by the Talent Federated Women's club, affiliated with the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. The membership sponsors a Camp Fire Girls troop and a Camp Yalawahnoah at Wagner creek.

Guests at a meeting last week of the auxiliary to the Jackson County Medical society were Mrs. Ian D. Macdonald, Salem, (center) president of the auxiliary to the Oregon State Medical society, and Mrs. J. Clifford Masar, Portland, president-elect. They are pictured here with Mrs. Elliott L. Harlow, Medford, a regional vice-president of the Oregon auxiliary. The meeting was a dinner session held at Rogue Valley Country club March 13 and speaker was Edwin R. Durno, retired physician and surgeon and a former congressman, who talked on "Life in Washington, D.C." It was announced during the meeting that Mrs. Durno has been selected by the Jackson county auxiliary as candidate for Oregon Mother of the Year. The Durnos are the parents of three married daughters and have six grand-children.

Bowling Tournament Planned by Sorority

The annual bowling tournament which Alpha Lambda chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sponsors each year as a benefit for crippled children will start Saturday March 23. It will continue through March 24, 30 and 31st and ends the week end of April 6-7.

The tournament, open to the public, will be held at the Medford Bowling lanes and entry blanks are available there. The proceeds will go to the Children's Hospital school at Eugene. Alpha Lambda chapter has donated a sum of $275 to the school already this year.

At a business meeting of the chapter held March 11 at the home of Mrs. Delbert Cantrell, officers for the coming year were elected. Mrs. Davis Young was named president; Mrs. Herb Partridge, vice president; Mrs. Jack Houston, treasurer; Mrs. James Ristau, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Edmonds, recording secretary; Mrs. Glenn Wilkins, parliamentary; and Mrs. Kenneth Oliver, educational director.

The new officers will be installed along with other Rogue area chapter officers of Epsilon Sigma International club.

Mrs. Lyman Smith was chairman of the nominating committee. She was assisted by Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Richard Harrison, and Mrs. Partridge.

Mrs. Jones received her pin at a candlelight ceremony conducted by Mrs. Cantrell, president, and Mrs. Young, vice president, assisted by Mrs. Chester Peterson and Mrs. Jack Houston. The chapter has recently pledged four candidates. They are Mrs. John Huebner, Mrs. R. M. Hufftelung, Mrs. John Gartman and Mrs. Dennis Lundgren.

Mrs. Davis Young, Vice president and rushing chairman, spoke on chapter history and procedure to the rushers and members.

Mrs. Cantrell closed the meeting after she expressed her gratitude for being nominated the chapter's Outstanding Girl. She displayed her trophy, corsage and crown.

A little honey added to mayonnaise or salad dressing for a fruit salad will give the salad a new flavor.

Events Benefit Building Fund

Gold Hill - The IOOF and Rebekah building fund benefit dance given Saturday, March 9 at Gold Hill Grange hall was a financial success according to Mrs. Charles Stripling, general chairman. The fund has now reached $747.17, she stated.

Other fund raisers planned for the month of March include a benefit dance which will be given at the American Legion hall in Central Point Saturday, March 23 from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

A rummage sale will be held in Medford at the Fehl building on Wednesday, March 27, at 8:30 p.m., at Southern Oregon college. This show is destined for New York performances in 1964.

The Twain classic is the actor's seventh show in three and a half years. He carries 183 characters in his memory, has played 224 performances to date, and has traveled over 100,000 miles.

Mr. Hanson just returned from a nine week Canada-Alaska tour. His northern trip can be described as triumphant.

Vancouver, B.C., drama critics Tytherleigh and Richards wrote rave notices of his performance in their city.

"Storytelling art is back triumphantly," wrote Tytherleigh. Richards said, "There are very few real story tellers left. Philip Hanson is one of them."

Without stopping to rest after his tour, Mr. Hanson went immediately to work on his seventh show.

Past Presidents Plan Luncheon
Mrs. Amy Randle, head of the Past Presidents' club of the auxiliary to Crater Lake post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, states that the club will hold a luncheon at North's Chuck Wagon Thursday, March 21, at 1 p.m.

Past president of the Shady Cove and Ashland posts are invited. Cards and games will follow luncheon.

New Show Is Slated

Ashland - Philip Hanson's latest one-man show, "Huckleberry Finn" by Mark Twain, will be given its first performance Wednesday, March 27, at 8:30 p.m., at Southern Oregon college. This show is destined for New York performances in 1964.
