Josephine Co. Sailing Club Plans Meeting

A public meeting of the new club, which will emphasize boats that fall in the dinghy class, will be held here March 25 at the Josephine county courthouse.

The club's skipper, Bob Peck, of Grants Pass, said most of their sailing will be done at Lake Selmac, with meetings during the summer months at the lake followed by afternoon sailings. Membership is open to any county resident who owns a sailboat.

Other officers are: Mrs. Mel Starks, first mate; Mrs. E. K. Anderson, boatswain; and Mel Starks, chips. One of the club's purposes is to promote dinghy class sailboating among the junior skippers of the county.

Commissioner Warns Liston

Miami Beach –(UPI)– If Sonny Liston uses his knee as a reason for a second postponement of his heavyweight title fight with Floyd Patterson, he'd better be ready to sit still for an examination by a Miami Beach Boxing commission doctor.

Commission Chairman Fred Aaronson said Monday he would not accept the examination of doctors in Chicago, where Liston went Sunday after apparently breaking up his training camp here.

"We have the right to examine the fighter, and under the contract we have the right to name the time and place for that examination," said Aaronson, whose commission contracted for the fight with the promoters and the fighters.

Providence, Marquette Advance In NIT Action

New York – Ray Flynn, a protege of former pro star Bill Sharman, has advanced Providence college into the semifinals of the National Invitation Basketball tournament against Marquette and bolstered the Friars' chances of winning the classic for the second time in three years.

"This is a better team than our team that won the NIT in 1961," said the 6-2, 180-pound Flynn, who scored 38 points in second-seeded Providence's 106-96 victory over Miami of Florida Tuesday night.

"We're better this year," chimed in little Vinnie Ernst, who contributed 11 assists. "We're better balanced. Everybody can do everything."

Third - seeded Marquette shot 51 per cent from the field and routed St. Louis, 84-49, in Tuesday night's other quarter - final game before 15,589 fans at Madison Square Garden. After Providence meets Marquette Thursday night, Villanova takes on Canisius in the other semifinal.
