Tax Benefit Bill Goes to White House

Washington — (UPI) — The Senate passed and sent to the White House Tuesday a bill extending tax benefits for child care to women deserted by their husbands.

The measure, passed by voice vote, permits such women to deduct up to $600 a year for a dependent child, putting them on a par with widows who have children. Under present law, a married woman must file a joint return with her husband in order to obtain $600 deduction for a dependent child.

NOW YOU KNOW

Modern newspaper advertising had its counterpart in Rome at least as early as the era of Julius Caesar. During his reign, the Acta Diurna, an official gazette, carried considerable advertising material, according to the Universal Standard Encyclopedia.

Radio-TV Council Bill Wins Okay

Salem—(UPI)—The Senate Education committee voted 6-1 Tuesday to approve a bill which would establish a state educational radio and television council.

The council, which would be composed of members of both the Board of Education and Board of Higher Education, would establish a policy for state educational stations.

Educational television and radio stations now are operated by the Board of Higher Education. The system now operates KOAC and KOAC-TV in Portland.

Each board would supply three members to the proposed council. A seventh member—not a member of either board—would be named by the governor.

Sen. Walter Leth (R-Salem) voted against the bill because he said there was sufficient cooperation between the boards now.

Songs Will Be Sung On Academy Awards

Hollywood — (UPI) — A sour note struck by songwriters was resolved Wednesday when producers agreed to have songs nominated for this year's Oscar sung at the Academy Awards show.

Original plans did not include vocal renditions of the nominated songs, but a host of Hollywood songwriters sent a telegram to the show's producer, Arthur Freed, protesting the decision.
