

Black Tornado Falls To North Eugene, 62 to 51; Grants Pass, Portland League Teams Also Eliminated

McArthur Court, University of Oregon, Eugene—North Eugene's tall-timbered Highlanders shook off the stormy challenge of the Medford Black Tornado in the final quarter here yesterday afternoon to triumph in a conflict of favorites in the quarterfinal round of the Oregon Class A-1 high school basketball tournament.

The Highlanders parlayed their greater height to advantage and outgunned the Medfords at the start and finish for a 62 to 51 verdict which surged them into tonight's championship semifinals of this big school hoop classic.

But, North, No. 1 ranked in Oregon's prep polls this season, did not out-heart the Rogue Valley Whirlwinds, who made a stern combat of it before going down fighting hard.

An easy romp for the Highlanders loomed probable in the opening portion of the fracas. They opened a 17-point gap. Then, the No. 4 and 5 rated Black Tornado, aroused to furious battling pitch, whirled back to wipe away the margin, duel hand to hand with the Scotties and throw a scare into the host city aggregation. North had to come from behind to win it.

North Leads 24-7
The Eugene contingent, clicking sharply, powered to a 22 to 7 first quarter span. North made it 24 to 7 as the second period got under way. Then, Medford, with booming Jim Hill carrying the scoring load, with Jack Forde and Rich Benner scrapping for all they were worth under the hoops and with Larry Vowell, Dan Miles and Mike Neathamer driving, narrowed the difference to a single point. At halftime the Highlanders led 31 to 30.

After three quarters of the embroilment the game was deadlocked at 46 apiece. A free shot by Vowell brought Medford its only lead of the afternoon at 47 to 46.

A Ron Davies tip put Coach Mel Krause's Norths on top again at 48 to 47 and the Highlanders pushed into control with a seven-point spread.

North Eugene, with its decision rose into this evening's round of four against Astoria at 7:30 o'clock. The Fishermen trimmed Pendleton yesterday 51 to 47. Medford and Pendleton were adversaries this afternoon in semifinals of the playoff for fourth place.

Domination Ends
The Highlanders' 14th straight victory this year snapped Medford's late season winning string at nine. Coupled with Sandy's 56 to 46 upset win over defending champion Grants Pass, the North Eugene-Medford outcome ended a three-year Southern Oregon conference monopoly on the Oregon A-1 crown.

Medford was champion in 1960 and runner up to Klamath Falls in 1961. Grants Pass extended the domination in 1962.

Elimination of Portland Interscholastic league entrants in the opening round from the title running and of the Southern Oregon participants on Thursday meant that the new state champion will come from some other circuit for the first time since 1955.

Hill's intense scoring work in the Medford surge back had onlookers gasping. Mustard Jim pumped in the first nine of Medford's field buckets, seven of these in the second quarter when he also had two free shots. Hill had 20 points for the first half and 24 for the game for individual honors. But he was the only Tornado in double point figures.

North Shoots Better
Davies was the top point man for North with 19 and Bob Craven had 13.

Better shooting from the field and a margin, although not too great, on the boards, figured in the North Eugene win. Medford's 6-4 1/2 Forde led individual rebounding with 12 retrieves and 6-2 1/2 Hill had 10. For the Highlanders 6-5 Ron Davies had 10 and 6-6 Bob Craven and 6-5 Bill Thomas each nine.

North outfired Medford from the field 42.4 to 34.5 as the Tornadoes were cool at the start and finish. The Highlander rebound difference as a team was just 46 to 39.

Coach Frank Roelandt of Medford out-talented North 23 to 9 in the second quarter, returning tit for tat. The Tornadoes had 16 to 15 edge in the third period but North took 16 to 5 command of the final session.

North Takes 54-47 Lead
A few miscues and some defensive lapses hurt the Tornado in the closing chapter. After Davies' shot gave North its 48 to 47 lead, 6-6 Pete Robertson, wide open, hit a jumper from the side. Davies added another rebound basket and then hit on a driver for 54 to 47 with 5:30 left to play.

Neathamer put in a gifter for the Tornado and Benner helped keep the Medfords in the running with a long set shot for 54 to 50. However, the Highlanders pulled out the Pear city defense and a teammate passed to Thomas who scored on the feed. Paul Michael of NE and Forde exchanged free tosses. Jerry Gordon put in a layup as the Tornado defense again was brought out. A free shot by Thomas and two by Snow completed the scoring in the game.

The Highlanders employed the height of their big men and the playmaking and ballhawking of Michael, Gordon and Bob Gheen along with a fast break and hot shooting to get their big opening margin. Six NE players had a hand in this scoring.

Big Splurge
Inspired Medford stopped the break and warmed up to get its terrific splurge going in the second period. Hill started it with a driver. Vowell collected three free shots and Hill hit from the side on a Benner assist. Hill put in two free shots and recovered the ball in a scrap under the board and whipped through the hoop. North lead was down to 24 to 18.

Craven sank a long pointer for North. Hill shoved back a rebound and then zipped a hook shot off a Vowell feed for 26 to 22. Craven got one free shot and Davies two for 29 to 22. But, Hill drove the base beautifully and then gunned another driver for 29 to 26. Davies hit for North to close danger. Neathamer humped a drive bucket and Benner shot from the circle for the half-time 31 to 30.

Tied at 42
Thomas and Davies gave North a 35 to 30 lead to start the third quarter. Hill scored on a break off a Neathamer rebound and feed. However, Davies tabulated a three-pointed for 38 to 32. Benner's two free heaves were matched for points by Gordon's jumper. Then, Forde's free line range jump and Mile's long try made it 40 to 38.

Craven bucketed the ball again for North but Hill scored off a Forde swipe and feed and Neathamer goaled from the side to knot the fray for the first time at 42-42. Michael and Gheen gifted but Benner's long push made the score 44-42. Thomas' tip was equalized by a Neathamer driver for 46 each.

Medford hit only two for 15 tries from the field in the first quarter and just one for 10 in the last but in the middle stanza shot 16 goals in 30 tries.

Sandy and Tigard collide in the other championship semifinal at 8:45 o'clock tonight. Winners of the North Eugene-Astoria and Sandy-Tigard mixes contend at 8:45 p.m. here Saturday for the diadem. Tonight's losers clash at 7:30 p.m. for third place.

Erases Deficit
Tigard came from 16 points back to upset Milwaukie 55 to 52 in overtime. Milwaukie faced Grants Pass this afternoon and the victor in that game will oppose the Medford-Pendleton winner in the Saturday 2:45 p.m. scrap for fourth place.

Molalla played Marshall and South Salem met South Eugene this morning in consolation contention. Winners vie at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday. Thursday consolation action saw Marshall beat Lebanon 69 to 55, Molalla tip Tillamook 39 to 31, South Salem beat Hermiston 82 to 61 and South Eugene win from Franklin 70 to 57.

Sandy joined Tigard in darkhorse status in the tourney by knocking over Grants Pass. The Pioneers outplayed the Cavemen in the second half with some good ballhawking defense but it was at the free line where the game was won. Sandy made 22 of 31 free throws to Grants Pass' 10 of 19. GP had 18 to 17 field goal margin.

Led by 15
The Pioneers never trailed after breaking a 28-all knot. GP led at the quarter 12 to 11 and Sandy at the other intermissions 24 to 22 and 37 to 34. They stretched to a span of 50 to 35 which the Cavemen closed to 40 to 43. Sandy had the more accurate field firing, 370 to 353. The teams wound up even on the boards.

Dan Nichols scored 18 points for Sandy and Dale Carpenter 13. Jim Pippin had 15 for Grants Pass. Carpenter, who with Carl Sandstrom was a defensive ace beneath the basket, had 13 rebounds.

Tigard used a full court man to man defense which flustered the Mustangs and had late range scoring to overtake Milwaukie. Bob Lamb with four baskets in a row, got the Tigers going in the third period and he got later points to spur the victory.

Down 25-9
The Tigers were down 17 to 9 at the quarter then trailed 25 to 9. They were back 30 to 17 at halftime but at the end of the third quarter Milwaukie led just 38 to 34. Tigard pulled even at 42 to 48. The teams had 48 apiece going into overtime. Lamb's free shot with 2:36 left in the extra gave Tigard its first lead of the game.

Lamb totaled 20 points and Bill Bastron 15 for Tigard in the upset over Milwaukie which on Wednesday had spilled favored South Eugene. Dave Green had 16 and Ron Beall 13 for the Mustangs.

Astoria hung on after a first half lead to beat Pendleton. The Fishermen had 15 to 12, 28 to 20 and 38 to 34 quarter spreads. John Norgaard was high scorer in the frame with 24 for Astoria. Larry French had 18 for the Buckaroos.

Fanfare

McArthur Court, University of Oregon, Eugene—Notes and highlights on the Oregon Class A-1 high school basketball tournament here:

One of the Medford high basketball players summed up the Black Tornado effort against North Eugene thusly: "We tried. They were pretty big, you know."

We tried—What more can you ask?

MORE IN ONE YEAR
Said Medford High Coach Frank Roelandt of the North Eugene high basketball team:

"They have more tall men on their squad this year than I have had altogether in my 14 years at Medford."

North's Highlanders, of course, have two men at 6-6, two at 6-5 and one at 6-4.

COACH AT MOTEL
Milwaukie High Head Coach George Crandall was not on the sidelines while his Mustangs fashioned their well-engineered 47-41 upset victory over South Eugene. He was in a Eugene motel room. Crandall has been recuperating from a case of infectious hepatitis and, we're told, came to Eugene only with the understanding that he would not attend his team's games at McArthur court. Assistant John Rhode directed the team from the bench.

HAS TO BE UPSET
Milwaukie, which downed the Axemen with deliberate play and tough defense, played the type of ball it has played all year, we are informed. While both clubs have been among the rated in prep polls this season, the Mustang win goes as an upset because South Eugene was ranked higher in the late polls and because the Axemen, in a vote of an Associated Press board of sports writers had been the consensus pick to win the 1963 Oregon Class A-1 hoop crown.

WHAT CONSOLATION!
"What a consolation bracket!" someone remarked in the press room Wednesday night after the completion of the big tournament's first round.

As the result of their first round losses such "powers" as Marshall, South Salem, South Eugene and Franklin were relegated to the fight for fifth place.

MUSTANGS WALK
Going back to the Milwaukie-SE fracas—The Mustangs, who prevented South from using its fast break attack, were down by as much as five points in the first half. They trailed 9 to 12 at the quarter and 21 to 22 at the half. With their "walking offense" (they didn't walk so much against Tigard) they went ahead at the start of the third period and never lagged after that.

TIGARD DARKHORSE
Some of the boys of the press were rating Tigard high a darkhorse after it's 61 to 51 win over Franklin to end the first round of this prep hoop show. We were not that much impressed. Run, shoot, run, as they did Wednesday may be okay as an offense. Still, a certain amount of caution and direction is necessary. And, the Tigers, while full of scrap with good effort, were a bit too haphazard, slam bang and headlong to suit us.

However, after their comeback win over Milwaukie, in which they were not so headlong, we'll give them darkhorse status.

BLACK THURSDAY
Said Larry Stevens, a Grants Pass high coach and also a basketball referee in the Rogue Valley, after Grants Pass and Medford lost their second round state tourney games:

"This'll be known as Black Thursday."

A call that is rare in basketball was whistled on Grants Pass high's Al Hutchins in the Cavemen's game with South Salem. He was assessed a technical foul for "face guarding," putting his hand in front of the face of a Saxon.

If Al had remained in the game until the finish, he probably would have been the lone scorer of the first round of the tournament. But, Coach Gordon Prehm, with a wide lead and victory assured, gave all his charges a chance to play. Hutchins, with 32 points, shared first round high point honors with Medford's Jack Forde.

'Visitor' Takes Lead In Doral Open Golf

Miami —(UPI)—Gene Littler, Gary Player and Arnold Palmer—the seige guns of the golfing tour—were ready to make a run at the head end of the $50,000 Doral Open golf championship today after relinquishing the first round lead to the "visitors."

Pal Harney, who hadn't touched a club in six weeks and gave up the tour to take a club job at Sacramento, Calif., so he could be with his family, played it from memory to take the first round lead with a four-under-par 68.

Demonstrations Staged in Korea

Seoul, Korea —(UPI)—South Korea's military leaders today broke up a demonstration against the extension of military rule, arrested 109 civilian demonstrators and detained former President Posun Yun for the second time this week.

Strongman Gen. Park Chung Hee, bolstered by the "absolute support" of his 160 top military commanders, ordered tougher measures against the opponents of the rule to rule South Korea for a further four years and cancel this summer's planned elections.

Yun, who was shoved into a police jeep and driven home from a demonstration two days ago, was again at the head of the 300 persons who paraded in front of the U.S. embassy and other downtown buildings.
