Brazil Head Denies Infiltration Charge

New York—(UPI)—Former Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek said Thursday that U.S. State department charges of Communist infiltration in Brazil "are not true."

But Kubitschek, an adviser to President Kennedy's Alliance for Progress, said he did not feel the charges would result in permanent damage to U.S.-Brazilian relations or the alliance.

Buffalo – (UPI) – Mother Mary Helena, RSM, 89, former mother general of the Religious Sisters of Mercy and a members of the order for 70 years, died Wednesday. She had served as head of the congregation in the Roman Catholic diocese of Buffalo on three occasions – in 1908, 1918 and 1936.
