

Daughters Of Nile To Install

Annual installation of officers of Zulema temple, Daughters of Nile is scheduled for Saturday, March 30 at 8 p.m., in Hedrick Junior High school, 1501 East Jackson boulevard.

Mrs. Murray S. Gardiner will be installed temple queen.

Mrs. Raymond Reter, a past queen, is general chairman for the event.

Mrs. Vernon Turpin has charge of reservations.

The decorations committee is made up of the Mesdames Jack Walker, David R. Allred, William Clark, Glenn Linn, C. D. Wood, Milo Kubalek, Lawrence Buonocore, Robert Church, William Laurine, Alfred M. Beck and A. K. Morse, and members of Bethel 55, International Order of Job's Daughters.

Special art work is being done by Mrs. John Smith.

Hostesses for the occasion are the Mesdames Wilbur Arnold, Harry Norwick and Mrs. Oliver Overmyer, all past queens; and the Mesdames E. I. Dahl, C. S. Elliot, William Hatzi, Chester Hubbard, John Smith, C. D. Wood, Robert Church, William Butler, Arthur Leavitt, E. L. Sanderson, J. F. Rush, Robert Van Sickle, William Laurine and Ellen Franco Cox.

Catering will be done by the Social club of Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star.

Club To Hold Spring Dance

A "Spring is Here" dinner and dance are planned by Lively Rogues Dance club at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 28, at the Rogue Valley Country Club. Dinner will be buffet style.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sage and Mr. and Mrs. William Longmore, host couples for the evening, are planning decorations in the spring theme.

Dancing is scheduled to begin at 9 p.m. Any member not contacted by the calling committee may make reservations by calling Mrs. John Graff or Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor.

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pickell, 357 Liberty street, returned recently from an extended stay at Blue River, B.C., Can., where they have timber interests.

Mr. and Mrs. David D. Carr (Classic photo)

Medford Church Scene Of Carr-Nease Rites

Central Point — Miss Linda Nease became the bride of David D. Carr in single ring rites March 15. Dr. George Roseberry performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening at Medford First Methodist church.

The bride, a secretary at Howard school, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Nease, 2284 Beall Lane, Central Point. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Carr, Route 3, Box 226D, Medford.

Miss Lois Farlow was the bride's only attendant and Robert Carr, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Seating the guests were George Carr, another brother from Klamath Falls, and Gail Jensen, Medford.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of organza with lace bodice and scalloped neckline. She carried a white

Bible with an orchid and white stock.

The attendant's gown was of yellow chiffon in ballerina length and her bouquet was of yellow carnations.

White chrysanthemums and stock decorated the church.

About 125 guests attended the wedding and reception held in the church rooms.

Mrs. Meredith Parsons, Medford, served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. George Swanson, Mrs. Henry Moller poured punch and Mrs. Frank Worrell served the coffee. Registering the guests was Mrs. Richard Schauble, Shady Cove.

The bride and family have lived in the valley for 17 years and the bride was graduated in 1958 from Eagle Point High school. The bridegroom's family has lived in the area for many years. He was a 1957 graduate from Phoenix High school, and is employed as a warehouse man by M. Trumbo company.

The couple made their wedding trip to Portland, the bride wearing a black sheath dress with black and white coat.

They live on Fern Valley road at Route 3, Box 228B, Medford.

Shower Honors Diane Barton

Eagle Point — A bridal shower honoring Miss Diane Barton was given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Earle Jossy, Crater Lake highway, Tuesday evening, March 19. Miss Barton's wedding to Delbert Johnson Jr. is set for April 26 at the Eagle Point Community church.

Hostesses for the event were Mrs. Jossy and daughter, Karen, Mrs. Donald Anderson and daughter, Paulette and Miss Jerilyn Hansen. Game prizes were won by the Misses Diane Putman and Frances Huffman. Assisting with the gifts were Miss Jennifer Nevin, Mrs. Harlan Stinson, and Miss Frances Huffman.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses. Guests included Mrs. John Barton, mother of the honored guest; the Misses Donna, Darlene, and Jean Barton, her sisters; Mrs. Boyd Bruner, grandmother; Mrs. James Cornutt, an aunt; the Misses Linda and Sue Cornutt, cousins; Mrs. Phillip Nevin, Miss Nevin, Miss Putman, Miss Huffman, Mrs. Don Geren, Miss Donna Geren, Miss Jerry Rodgers, Mrs. Morton Pritchard, Miss Kathy Pritchard, Mrs. Ira Woolfolk, the Misses Alice and Flo Woolfolk, Mrs. Stinson, the Misses Kristi and Kara Stinson, Miss Cathy McGuire, Mrs. Edyth Bohnert and Mrs. Margaret Hansen.

Travelers On World Cruise

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. William Harnden and Mrs. E. T. Carlton of Bellview are leaving the first of the week for San Francisco where they will board the SS Oriana for a round-the-world cruise. In their party will be Mrs. Helen Hoskins of Manitou Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Lola Walters of Phoenix, Ariz.

Their itinerary includes Hawaii, Japan, Hong Kong and Singapore, Egypt and Italy, where they will leave ship for a 40-day tour of Europe before returning to New York by jet. All of the travelers plan to visit in the United States en route home.

Bride Wears Mother's Gown

Jacksonville — Miss Barbara Ethel Webb, a Southern Oregon college senior, wore her mother's wedding gown when she became the bride of Alfred Wayne Cabler, Star Ranger station U. S. Forest service employee, in rites March 17.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Porter H. Sprague Jr., of Prineville, Ore., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Cabler, Jacksonville.

The double ring ceremony was read at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the Powell Butte Community church, non-denominational, at Powell Butte, Ore. The Rev. D. L. Penhollow, Redmond, Ore., performed the rites attended by about 100 guests.

Miss Miriam Sue Sprague, Prineville, Ore., was her sister's honor attendant, and bridesmaids were Miss Mildred Ann Williams, Sutherlin, Ore., and Miss Wendy Birmingham, Roseburg, Ore., both college friends of the bride.

Flower Girl — Miss Doranne Cabler, Jacksonville, a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl, and his nephew, Anthony C. Cabler, Jacksonville, was ring bearer.

James O. Cabler, Jacksonville, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Edward B. Graham, Jacksonville, and Frederic P. Webb, Bend, a brother of the bride, were ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather. The bodice and full puffed sleeves of the off-white wedding gown she wore were of ruffled lace and the floor-length gown and long train were of net trimmed with panels of lace. Her bonnet-brimmed headpiece, loaned by a cousin, Mrs. Michael Mollman, Redmond, was of gathered net trimmed with seed pearls. Attached was a fingertip veil. The bride's bouquet was of white carnations and cymbidium orchids.

The honor attendant's gown was of mint green with lace bodice and flared skirt and the bridesmaids' sheath dresses in same shade were of raw silk. All carried white carnation bouquets.

Candles Lighted — Geri Ann and Judy Vice, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles. Their frocks were white with embroidered yellow and green flower designs.

Church decorations were of white chrysanthemums and carnations with ivy.

Miss Frances Wynkoop, Brookings, Ore., the bride's college roommate, and Mrs. E. J. Mollman Jr., furnished the wedding solos. Organist was Mrs. Charles Minson.

The reception given by the bride's parents was held in the church social hall. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Loyde Blakley, Bend, and Mrs. Robert Webb, Jacksonville, aunts of the bride. Pouring the punch were Mrs. James Cabler, Jacksonville, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Jack Vice, an aunt of the bride. Serving coffee were Mrs. J. C. Minson, and Mrs. E. J. Mollman, an aunt of the bride. Mrs. Edward B. Graham had charge of the guest book, and presiding at the gift table were Mrs. Donald Detsch, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. E. J. Mollman Jr., Madras.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sprague wore a bronze lace dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was a green orchid. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a navy blue wool frock with white accessories and her corsage was a white orchid.

Others from out of town were the bridegroom's father; his sister, Miss Peg Cabler, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davies, Jacksonville, and Robert B. Webb and son, David Webb, Jacksonville.

The bride attended Roberts High school, Roberts, Wis., and now is studying secondary education. The bridegroom attended Jacksonville High school.

The couple made their wedding trip to the Loyde Blakley's cabin on the Metolius river, and now are living in Jacksonville.

Hanson-Klein Wedding Held in Burlingame

A wedding of interest here was held March 16 in the First Presbyterian church, Burlingame, Calif., when Miss Maxine Kay Klein of that city became the bride of Ensign Stanley Paul Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jefferies, formerly of 48 South Stage road, now of 3290 Edella street, Central Point.

Dr. George T. Peters officiated at the three o'clock afternoon rites attended by 250 relatives and guests. White gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated the church for the candlelight service.

The bride's parents are Mr.

and Mrs. Ambler Edward Klein, Burlingame, Calif. John Berglund was soloist for the double ring rites.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned with bell skirt. The bodice was accented with pearls and a sweetheart neckline. Clusters of unpressed pleats in the skirt were held at each side with a satin bow and formed a chapel length train. Her veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, hyacinths, stephanotis and ivy.

Escorts Bride — Mr. Klein escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Maid of honor was Miss Rae Louise Klein, Burlingame, sister of the bride. Her other attendants were Mrs. Barton Andrews, Eugene, and Miss Gini Elderkin, Pocatello, Idaho, both Alpha Omicron Pi sorority sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Jean Kelly, San Mateo, Calif. They wore wistaria colored satin frocks with bell skirts, matching satin bow and veil headresses, and satin shoes. They carried bouquets of iris, pink roses, violets and purple hyacinths.

Troy Trumbley, Bend, served as best man for his brother-in-law, and sealing the guests were Richard Weir, Menlo Park, Calif., and Gary Gainsforth, Eugene, and Gary Thye, San Mateo, Calif., Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Klein in the Commissioned Officers club, at Treasure Island Naval base, Gladioli, chrysanthemums and gardenias decorated the room.

The newlyweds traveled to Canada on their wedding trip and will make their home in Bremerton, Wash. after April 1, where the bridegroom, an ensign in the U.S. Naval Reserve, is stationed.

The bride is a graduate of Burlingame High school and the University of Oregon. Mr. Hanson attended Roseburg High school and the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wayne Cabler

Medford Couple Returns Home

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Gray, Cherry lane, have returned to their home after spending several weeks in California, Arizona, Mexico and on the Island of Cozumel in the Caribbean.

The couple visited in Palm Springs, Calif., and Tucson, Ariz., prior to leaving for Mexico City where they met Mr. and Mrs. Mark Goldy.

The two couples then continued to Merida in the northern Yucatan peninsula. From there they visited the numerous ruins at Chichen Itz, Uxmal, and Kabah for four days prior to flying to the Island of Cozumel. After a week there they returned to Mexico City where they visited for several days taking a trip south to Cuernavaca, called the "City of Flowers."

Ashland — Mrs. Gerald Rice and infant son Michael, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Len Osgood, 720 Walker avenue, drove to Seattle last week to meet Mrs. Rice's husband on his return from overseas duty with the Army Engineer corps. He has served in Germany and will receive his honorable discharge this week. It will be the child's first meeting with his father.

From Seattle

The bride is a graduate of Burlingame High school and the University of Oregon. Mr. Hanson attended Roseburg High school and the University of Oregon.

Indian Dances On Program of Ashland Club

Authentic Indian dances by Regina and Gladys Laubin, who have spent much of their lives living with American Indians, will be the attraction of the Siskiyou Knife and Fork club April 3 at 7:30 p.m., in the Mark Antony hotel.

This dinner and entertainment event will be open to the public, a departure from the usual club regulations, Mrs. Ella K. Hendrixson, Ashland, club secretary has pointed out.

All dinner tickets must be paid in advance and remittances must be received by the secretary two days before the meeting. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. Hendrixson, telephone 482-2703 after 6 p.m. Checks may be mailed to her at 380 Morton street in Ashland. No tickets will be sold at the door.

The Laubins are endeavoring to preserve as an art form what no longer can be preserved as a way of life, the Indian's contribution to American culture. The couple was adopted into the family of Chief One Bull, "fighting nephew" of the famous Chief Sitting Bull of history.

Brides

You will be proud of your Invitations and Announcements when ordered here—ask any of "our" Brides. Quality workmanship, all done in our own plant. Be sure and shop our reasonable prices.

The ACORN PRESS
325 N. Bartlett • Medford, Ore.

jean hart's

For Easter...
For Travel...
For Town...

The "Dorminster"

New and dashing... Davidow's exclusive English knit is molded into a shapely suit with a leather-tashed scarf-tossed jacket. Regular sizes 8 to 20

Ours Exclusively

Where you find the clothes you love to live in

617 East Main, Medford
Phone 772-8992

Susan Kay Krieger (Brainard photo)

Engagement Is Announced

The engagement of Miss Susan Kay Krieger, daughter of Mrs. Leroy Krieger, 328 North Oakdale avenue, and the late Mr. Kreiger, to David John Gaines has been announced by the bride-elect's mother.

Mr. Gaines is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines, 2191 Kings highway.

Both young persons are seniors at Medford High school and are to graduate in June. A September wedding is planned.

Lighthearted, lightfooted slip-ons to give or wear

Hush Puppies

BREATHIN' BRUSHED PIGSKIN CASUAL SHOES BY WOLVERINE

Every woman will be delighted with these happy Hush Puppies casual shoes. Made of wonderfully soft brushed pigskin that's lightweight and actually breathes. Bouncy cushion crepe soles add more comfort. And tanned-in protection assures resistance to water, soil... to stains, too. What's more, dirt and scuff marks disappear at a brushing. Get the best now-in newest colors. All women's sizes.

from $8.95

AS SEEN IN TODAY'S FAMILY WEEKLY!

NORFIELD SHOE CO.

221 East Main Street • Phone 772-2123
Southern Oregon's Oldest Shoe Concern

Brophy's

Serving Southern Oregon and Northern California for Over 35 Years

SOLLOQUY

STILL MOOD

Two New in Wallace Sterling

Four-piece place settings $31.25

Solloquy - a brilliant contemporary design that speaks with eloquent simplicity through the ageless beauty of pure line and form. Still Mood - an inspired blend of then and now - with a delicate leaf tracing giving a touch of the traditional to the modern silhouette.

Prices include Federal tax Charge or budget

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced

Brophy's JEWELERS
MEDFORD, OREGON

Registered Jeweler American Gem Society
Phone 773-6206 209 E. Main