

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gene Banks

Lutheran Church Scene Of Banks-Garrett Rites

An event of Thursday, March 13, was the marriage of Cecile Marie Garrett to Larry Gene Banks. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bell, 1016 Beekman street, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Austin Rossiter, Sutherlin, Ore.

The Rev. Harvey C. Covert officiated at the 8 o'clock evening ceremony, held in Zion Lutheran church. About 150 relatives and friends attended the double-ring candlelight ceremony. Baskets filled with blue-tipped white carnations decorated the altar, and white satin bows and ribbon were on the pew ends.

Mrs. Paul A. Evansen played the organ and accompanied Miss Anita Townsend, the vocalist. The bride had designed her gown of floor-length eggshell white brocade taffeta made with a scalloped neckline, basque waist trimmed with pearls and skirt accented with a bustle. Her tiny tiara was of nylon leaves studded with iridescent pearls and she carried white carnations and pink roses.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage.

The bride's honor attendant was her sister, Miss Joy Bell. Bridesmaids were Miss Norma Kuper and Miss Colleen Drinkwater. They wore identical blue taffeta frocks fashioned ballerina length with princess waists and pleated skirts. Their head-dresses were blue bows and they carried bouquets of blue-tipped white carnations.

Little Debbie Bell, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock was of the same style and color as those of the other attendants, and she carried a white basket filled with white camellias. Paul Weiss carried the rings on a white satin heart-shaped pillow.

Lyle Kuper served as best man and ushers were Nelson Bell, uncle of the bride, and Lee Metz.

For the wedding ceremony and the reception which followed in the social hall of the church the bride's mother chose a teal blue tailored frock with black and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece suit of teal blue, black and white accessories and a similar corsage of white carnations. The reception was given by the bride's parents. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Max Hite. Mrs. Edward Metz had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Scott McConnell, Mrs. Frank Converse and Miss Barbara Byers poured.

The newlyweds made a wedding trip to Nevada and the California coast. For the trip the bride chose a red knit two-piece suit, with black accessories. They will be at home at 1608 West Main street, Medford.

The bride has lived in the Rogue valley all her life and is a graduate of Medford High school. Mr. Banks is a graduate of the high school in Winston, Ore. He is employed in the sales department of the Montgomery Ward company, Medford.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Nellie Dean, grandmother of the bridegroom and Mrs. Ada Boyum, an aunt, Sutherlin, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Tosh, 1916 Grandview avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Tosh, to Ralph Lester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lester, Route 4, Box 457, Coleman Creek road. Miss Tosh is a 1962 graduate of Medford High school and is employed by MEDPACC. Mr. Lester is a 1960 graduate of Phoenix High school and is employed by Crystal Springs orchards. A late summer wedding is planned.

Ashland — Mrs. Charlotte Froman, 261 W. Hersey street, went to Portland the first of last week to visit at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sheridan.

Duggan-Bickett Rites Solemnized Recently

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis William Duggan, whose marriage was a recent event, now are living at Santa Maria, Calif., where the bridegroom is serving with the United States Air Force at Vandenberg Air Force base.

The bride, the former Miss Lynn Darlene Bickett, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bickett of Granada Hills, Calif., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Duggan, Land of Many Oaks, Sams Valley.

Others besides the bridegroom's parents who were in Granada Hills for the ceremony were his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Guy McMartin; his great aunt, Mrs. Mable Hundley; his sister, Miss Dixie Duggan, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Duggan, all of Sams Valley.

The wedding mass was celebrated at 11 o'clock in the morning, February 2 in St. John Baptist de la Salle Catholic church in Granada Hills. Miss Dione Hanks was honor attendant and bridesmaids were the Miss Linda Fenwick, Maureen Lowe and Dixie Duggan. Flower girls were Barbara and Robin Bickett.

Michael Duggan was best man. The bride's full length gown was of lace and a lace tiara held her elbow-length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

A one o'clock afternoon reception was held in the Granada Hills Women's club when a wedding dinner was served to about 250 guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Bickett wore a pink chiffon dress with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in an ocean ice brocade frock with jacket and full skirt. Her accessories were turquoise. Both had lavender orchid corsages.

For traveling the bride wore a salmon pink suit. The

Son, Daughter Visitors Here

Robert S. Hamilton, junior at Dartmouth college in Hanover, New Hampshire, who motored west with two fellow students, for spring vacation, is spending this weekend in Oregon City as a guest of his brother, Alex M. Hamilton Jr., and family. He will return to Medford Sunday night to visit his mother, Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue, for the remainder of the vacation.

Also a guest of the Oregon City Hamiltons is Mr. Hamilton's aunt, Mrs. E. P. Leavitt, Old Stage road, who went to Portland early in the week to visit friends and attend the annual convention of the Oregon Education association.

Mrs. Bruce B. Samson, the former Nancy Hamilton, has been visiting her mother here for a week. An English teacher in North Eugene High school, Mrs. Samson came to Medford for the spring vacation. Her husband, in his last year of law at the University of Oregon and a lieutenant in the naval reserve, spent the first part of the vacation flying for the Navy out of Seattle.
