

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Eugene Boss

Meeting Set Tuesday By Applegate Unit

The March meeting of the Applegate Home Extension unit will be held at the home of Mrs. Lou Knisley on Tuesday, March 26, at 10:30 a.m. Project on windows and draperies will be presented by Mrs. Charles Elmore and Mrs. William Loring.

Chapter Makes Rushing Plans

Rushing plans were made at a meeting of Alpha Rho chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held March 12 at the home of Mrs. Herbert Wilson, Ross lane. Mrs. Wayne Harris presented the program for the evening. Her topic was "Nature," and she used astronomy as her theme.

Mrs. Elden Davidson gave a short talk on the traditions of the sorority.

Mrs. Kenneth Smith assisted Mrs. Wilson as co-hostess.

Lorinda Haynes Married To Leslie Eugene Boss

Miss Lorinda Lee Haynes and Leslie Eugene Boss were married in a 1 o'clock afternoon ceremony March 15 in Zion Lutheran church. The Rev. Harvey C. Covert officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emsley Haynes, 1204 Withington street, Medford, and the bridegroom, of 600 Benson street, Medford, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boss, Portland.

Mrs. Howard Anderson was the honor attendant and Roger Modderman, Lebanon, Ore., was best man.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a ballerina length gown with lace bodice and lace trimmed skirt. The sheer overskirt was styled with a cutaway front and trimmed with a lace rose. Her shoulder length veil, trimmed with seed pearls was held by a head band with matching trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink variegated and white carnations. For something old she had an 1889 Indian head penny.

Mrs. Anderson's gown was of powder blue net over tulle with full skirt and matching stole. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Candle lighters were Miss Cynthia Radcliffe, a niece of the bride, and Miss Meta Haynes, a sister.

The bride's sister was dressed in blue nylon and Miss Radcliffe's gown was of white nylon with gold trim.

The reception was held in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. James Radcliffe at 1812 Roberts road.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a beige embroidered sheath dress and the bridegroom's dress was in a blue jacket dress. Their corsages were of white carnations.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Blanche Wertz, all of Portland, his sister, Mrs. John Gottlieb and children, Johnnie and Sandy, Tulelake, Calif., the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Warmoth, and her great aunt, Mrs. Frank Beal, and Mr. Beal, all of Grants Pass. Also attending were the bride's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Haynes, Medford.

The bride attended McLoughlin Junior High school and the bridegroom attended Lebanon High school. He is employed in the parts department of the J. R. Whitney Oldsmobile company.

The couple traveled to Portland and are living at 600 Benson street, Medford.

Before the wedding date, Mrs. Radcliffe also entertained at a shower in her home honoring the bride-elect. Guests included Mrs. Warmoth; Mrs. H. B. Haynes; the bride's mother; Mrs. Virgil Lewis, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Pat Southard, Mrs. Bertha Neff, Mrs. Leona Carpenter and Mrs. Jack Dulany.

Flamenco Dancers Coming

The appearance of Susana y Jose, flamenco dance team scheduled for Tuesday, April 2, in the Medford High school auditorium, means that Jackson County Civic Music association board members must carry out a long list of instructions in order to set the stage properly for the dancers.

One of the most important requirements for dancers is to have a stage floor of wood thoroughly cleaned with the wax completely removed. Many of the association members may recall within recent years the appearance of a ballet group at one of Medford schools on a wax-surfaced stage with disastrous results. One of the dancers fell and broke an ankle while others could not execute their dancing in the best form because of the floor's slickness and the fear of injury.

Another requirement is an ironing board and at least one iron, as well as an assistant needed to press costumes.

A woman is required to assist Susana with dressing and a man will be needed to assist Jose in changing of costumes.

The piano must be of the best, tuned and placed at the left side of the stage as seen from the audience, and at least three, and preferably four dressing rooms will be needed.

Many quick changes will be made back stage and each of the dancers requires screens, light, table, chair, mirror and dress standard for this.

Lighting too is of most importance, with spots, and floods required, and blue, yellow, orange, pink and red coloring must be available with the lighting.

Stage hands, properties and curtains also must be arranged.

Relief Society To Hear Speaker

Mrs. Nathan A. Barry will present the social science lesson at the Tuesday, March 26, meeting of the Second Ward Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street.

Mrs. Barry will discuss divine law and church government and the application of the law in the dispensations of man.

Mrs. Barry will also discuss the purpose of divine law and human response. All interested women are invited to attend. A nursery is provided for small children.

Egypt, Holy Land Scenes Are Shown

Illinois Valley - Slides on Egypt and the Holy Land were shown during a recent meeting of the Illinois Valley Federated Women's club by Mrs. Les Archer. The scenes were taken on a recent trip made by the Archers.

Mrs. William A. Harms, Grants Pass, district president of the federation, was guest of honor. She was accompanied by a delegation of club members also from Grants Pass.

Mrs. Doris Boyd and Mrs. R. L. Tucker decorated the World War I hall where the meeting was held. The St. Patrick theme was used.

Mrs. Helen Eastman, Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Boyd were hostesses.

The April meeting program will be on "CARE."

In Ashland

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Morton Scripser and little son Jon, Corvallis, Ore., spent part of spring vacation week visiting at the home of Mr. Scripser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Scripser, 283 Seaside drive. Mr. Scripser is a post-graduate student at Oregon State university.

St. Mary's Concerts Slated During Week

The public is invited to attend the annual spring recitals of St. Mary's High school music department to be presented on two different dates during this week. They will be held in the all-purpose room of the new high school at 816 Black Oak drive on Tuesday, March 26 and Thursday, March 28, beginning at 8 o'clock each evening. No admission will be charged.

The Tuesday evening program will consist of vocal solos by Stephen Doyle, James Webb, Mary Kay Hockstatter and Richard Meeker; an organ solo by Ingrid Bergstrom, and piano solos by Marlene Nougier, Cheryl Becker, Mary Louise Harmon, Anne Parsons, Martha Fitzpatrick, Ann Wueck, Raymond McNeal and Charlotte Brown.

The Thursday evening vocal solo will be sung by Michael Ford, Francis Schuchard, and Timothy Darland. The organ solos will be played by Roberta Potter and Doris Young, and the piano selections will be done by Linda Everett, Mary Ross, Glenn Stewart, Daniel Seitz, Faye Lewis and Signe Lusk.

One of the outstanding numbers on the Thursday evening program will be an original piano composition played by the composer, Suzi Elliott. It is entitled, "The
