Style Show for 4-H Club Members Set Tuesday

Local 4-H club members will learn how to fill a "fashion prescription" when simplicity's 4-H club stylist, Miss Eleanor J. Echo, is here to show her new spring wardrobe.

This sew-for-fun wardrobe of patterns is entitled "Fashion Prescriptions" and will be presented in Jackson county on March 26 at 7:30 p.m., at the Jackson county extension auditorium. The show is open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Miss Echo will show 4-H girls fashion remedies for spring, the newest pattern designs and spring fabrics.

Miss Echo was a 4-H club member in New Jersey before going to the University of Miami to receive her degree in home economics. She was a 4-H club agent in Michigan, then joined the Simplicity educational staff as 4-H club stylist. In her work, she travels throughout the country helping to guide 4-H club girls with their own clothing and good grooming problems.

Style Selection

Throughout the fashion presentation, Miss Echo will emphasize the importance of selecting styles which best suit the needs of the young 4-H Miss. She will then prescribe the best way to combine the correct style with the proper choice in fabric, color and notions. The girls will be encouraged to follow those ideas which are most flattering to their own figure and personality types. Good grooming and good posture remedies, will also be discussed.

The presentation will include several "looks" for spring.
