Warm-Water Fish Production Area Development Approved

If plans go well Oregon will no longer depend on outside sources for its largemouth bass, channel catfish and other warm-water game fish.

This was brought to light at the state game commission's monthly meeting on March 22, when the staff was given the green light to develop an area for the production of warm-water game fish, the first of its kind in Oregon.

The area will be located near St. Paul in the Willamette valley on a 30-acre tract of land owned by the commission. Much of the engineering has already been completed and the commission will call for bids soon on the construction of a series of brood and rearing ponds as the first step in over-all construction. As many as 20 ponds up to an acre or more in size will be available for the production of warm-water game fish when the site is completely developed.

Water for the ponds will be provided by a well recently drilled on the site, which produces up to around five hundred gallons a minute. Production plans call for the rearing of largemouth black bass, black crappie, bluegill sunfish and possibly channel catfish.

MH Golfers Schedule Qualifying

Qualifying play for positions on the Medford high golf team will open on Thursday with nine holes of action at Rogue Valley Country club.

Another nine holes will be contested on Friday afternoon and the last 18 of the 36 on Saturday morning.

Coch Paul Evensen has 19 youths out for the team.

Back from last year's varsity are Rich Knight, Mike Miller, Tom Clark, Jim Woods and Ray Heysell. A promising sophomore is Doug Olson.

First match for the Black Tornado will be at Rogue Valley Country club on April 5 against University of Oregon freshmen.

District Meet

A change in the state golf tournament plans this year, according to Evensen, calls for district runoffs and a 16-team tourney.

Two teams will qualify from each of eight districts. The two low scorers in each district meet will go to state as individuals if their respective teams do not qualify. The state meet will be again at Glendevore course at Portland. Dates are May 20 and 21.

Evensen said that the playoff for this district will be at Rogue Valley and tentatively is set for May 13. He reported that Ashland will have a team this spring.

Ore-Cal Run First Test Of Comets

Central Point - Coach Ed Knapp is building Crater high track and field fortunes for 1963 around a nucleus of 10 lettermen.

He reported some 40 boys out for the thincled sport.

First action for the Comets will be in the Ore-Cal relays on Saturday at Ashland.

The lettermen on hand are Vern Swanson, quarter-miler; Gary Wald, sprinter; Sherman Kiger, low hurdler; Paul Branson, broad jumper and hurdler; Jim Askwith and Darrell Badger, milers; Chuck Taylor, broad jumper and sprinter; Ron Walker, half-miler; John Harris, weights man; and Greg Faulkner.

Two lettermen are not available this spring. Loren Cochran, hurdler, is a victim of infectious mononucleosis, and Joe McCalvy, a quarter-miler, is out for tennis.

Knapp reported that he would have more information on his personnel following time trials.

Deland, Fla. -UPI- Seattle fell before Dallas-Fort Worth 3-1 in a tight exhibition battle yesterday.

Basketball's New Rules Call for Stopping Clock Whenever Whistle Toots

Louisville, Ky. -UPI- A look at basketball's new rules for next season suggested today that it will take as much as 15 minutes longer to play a game, but there will be less showing around along the baseline.

Most important of the changes adopted by the National Basketball Rules committee at the final session of a three-day meeting here Tuesday was a provision for stopping the game clock whenever the referee blows his whistle for any reason.

Heretofore, the clock has run on while the ball was handled or taken out of bounds for such violations as traveling, double dribbles and in many other situations. Now it will stop, and Cliff Fagan, secretary of the rules committee, said college games obviously will require 12 to 15 minutes more to play.

New Personal Foul

The other major change will do away with the old call of "forced out of bounds," in which the player with the ball was given possession on an out of bounds play.

Acting on the assumption that it is impossible to force a player out of bounds without fouling him, such a call now will result in a personal foul on the defensive man.

The committee also eliminated the practice of "official's time out," for the purpose of adjusting or repairing equipment or apparel. This change is aimed primarily at players who wear low cut shoes which often come off, delaying the game. Players have been suspected of deliberately losing shoes to stop the action.

Officials now will be required to handle the ball to be thrown in from out of bounds after all violations, not just in the forecourt as previously, to prevent scoring of cheap baskets against unprepared defenses.

Three New Violations

Three violations were added to the list of those calling for technical fouls. Having more than five players on the court during play, reentry of a disqualified player into the game, and changing of a uniform number during a game.

The committee clarified the definition of an offensive foul, specifying that whenever there is a question whether an offensive player has possession of the ball, it shall be ruled that he does.

H. E. (Bud) Foster of the University of Wisconsin was reelected chairman of the committee.

New members added were coaches Adolph F. Rupp, University of Kentucky; John Metras, Western Ontario University; and John Bennington, St. Louis university.

Net Squad Of Tornado Has Depth

"We have more depth than we've had before, a good deal of experience and a lot of potential."

So reported Coach Bob Huff concerning the Medford high tennis team.

The Tornado netters open their season on Friday at Marshfield and play Saturday at Roseburg.

Nick Rasmussen, another junior, is contending for the fifth spot and could see a lot of duty this spring. Ron Grimes is a junior letterman and Chet Sticklely a sophomore of promise.

Huff is working with a squad of 13.

Phoenix, Ariz. -UPI- The Los Angeles Angels have sold itcher Gordon Richardson to Atlanta of the International League. Richardson, who had a 13-6 record with Tulsa in the Texas League last season, had been acquired by the Angels in the minor league draft for $25,000.

AAU Failure Might Bring Cancellation

Los Angeles -UPI- The Southern California committee for the Olympic Games has warned that failure of the Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) to grant sanction to the Coliseum relays set for May 17 might force cancellation of the event.

A final decision on holding the relays - one of the major track and field contests in the nation - will be made April 2.

The continued feud between the AAU and the United States Track and Field federation was blamed for impasse. The federation has granted sanction for the relays, meaning college athletes will be eligible.

According to Olympic Games committee here, it would be "impossible" to invite foreign as well as leading noncollegiate athletes if there is no AAU sanction.

"It is hoped that the two track and field factions will resolve their difficulties and permit the world's great athletes to compete," said William M. Henry, president of the local committee.

Happy Camp, Calif.-Happy Camp high Indians chalked up their first Siskiyou County league win in baseball over Fort Jones on Friday. Score was 6 to 5.

It was also first league win of this season for Robbie Edmonds, who twirled a no-hitter last year as a freshman. He gained credit for the verdict although relieved by another sophomore, Rudy Murieen.

Edmonds allowed 10 hits and walked three. Murieen, coming in during the last inning, walked the first batter he faced but struck out the next to retire the side.

D. Roads and Ken Hockaday each had two hits for the Indians and Hockaday tripled. D. Duncan homered and Carl Cramer swatted two doubles and a single for Fort Jones.

Happy Camp also won a five-inning second game 10 to 5.

Moore's Financial State Good

Los Angeles -UPI- The manager of boxer Davey Moore today disclosed "they" never have to stage any charity shows" for the family of the former featherweight champion.

"Davey wasn't a spender," said Willie Ketchum. "He always put his money to work for his family. I'm not sure about the amount of cash in his bank account, but he's got things to show for his fighting. He doesn't owe anybody."

It was estimated Moore's wife and five children will have a monthly income of $300, plus considerable real estate holdings.

Tribute Paid

Ketchum revealed the status of Moore's finances while plans were completed for flying little Davey's body back to his native Springfield, Ohio, for funeral services.

More than 10,000 California boxing fans and friends paid their final respects Tuesday night to Moore, who died Monday without regaining consciousness following the loss of his featherweight title to Sugar Ramos.

The 29-year-old boxer lapsed into a coma shortly after recovering from a knockout by Ramos Thursday. Death came less than 76 hours later.

Moore's body was to be flown to Ohio by commercial airliner for funeral services Saturday at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Springfield.
