

Federal Building At Fair Monumental

New York —UPI—The Federal pavilion at the New York 1964-65 World's Fair will be a monumental structure more than a city block square which seemingly "floats" 18 feet above the ground on four supporting columns.

With the theme "Challenge to Greatness," the Federal exhibit will "dramatize the benefits mankind derives from the cultural and economic advances possible under a democratic society," an announcement said.
