

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Soon the weather will be warm enough for picnics and Sunday excursions into the hills and to the lakes. For this Jackson county women wear pants and blouses or pullovers, such as this set which Mrs. William Kidson (at left) will model for the style show to be held Saturday, March 30, in the Phoenix Community clubhouse. Simple print frocks are a favorite of women everywhere, and Mrs. R. B. Nuckols is shown wearing a one-piece yellow print dress which she will model in the show Saturday night. Clothing for the show is from Town and Country shop, White City. The event is set for 8 p.m. and the public is invited to attend. A variety show will provide entertainment for the guests.

Gamma Rho Style, Variety Show Slated for Saturday

Phoenix—Members of Gamma Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, who will model during the group's first style and variety show Saturday, March 30, have been chosen. They are Mrs. David Brabbin, Mrs. William Kidson, Mrs. Roland Nuckols, Mrs. David Taylor, Mrs. Frank Testerman, Mrs. Evan Thumler, Mrs. William Willis, Mrs. Charles Williams and Mrs. Wayne Woodard.

The event will be conducted in the Phoenix Community club opening at 8 p.m.

The group has expressed the go toward the 1964 Beta Sigma Phi convention which will be an annual one with proceeds to be used for benefits in the area. This year's proceeds will be used for the Phi convention fund, the convention to be held in Medford next year.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Harold Sloper, telephone 535-1405, or Mrs. Darrel Hughes, telephone 535-4028. Tickets are available at Pete's Radio and Television shop, in Phoenix, or from any Gamma Rho member. Price for the show includes refreshments and prizes will be furnished through Medford and Talent merchants.

Mrs. Jack Wheeler is general chairman and Mrs. William Knips is co-chairman.

"Pagoda Parade" is the theme for the style and variety show, with fashions from Town and Country shop, Mrs. Doreen Vaughan, co-owner of the shop, will be the commentator. Hair styles will be fashioned by Mary's Beauty shop and Talent Beauty shop.

Colleen Hope Dance studio students will entertain with Japanese dances. Miss Kazuko Kondo and Miss Diane Enos will perform dances from their native countries and the Phoenix Judo club will demonstrate.

A comic skit will be given by husbands of chapter mem-

Spring Music Festival Announced By School

The Medford High school instrumental music department will present a spring music festival in the Hedrick Junior High school auditorium, Thursday, April 4 at 8 p.m. The public is invited free of charge.

Groups which will take part in the concert are the junior varsity band, the high school symphony orchestra of 80 pieces, the senior symphony band of 75 members and the 108 piece varsity band. John Drysdale is director of the symphony orchestra. The bands will be under the baton of I. A. Mirick, instrumental supervisor of Medford public schools.

Designed to please a variety of musical tastes, the program includes music ranging from the antiphonal brass choir written by sixteenth century Gabrielli to the contemporary compositions of Persichetti and Erickson. Selections from two Broadway musicals, "West Side Story" and "Sound of Music" will be performed by the bands. The symphony orchestra will play Rossini's famous William Tell Overture.

Other features include a trumpet trio composed of Ron Ingram, Charles Clifton and Dave Doty together with a bass solo played by Paul Goodwin and Jack Reavis. Latin American rhythms and marches by Sousa and Goldmann round out the program.

Camp Fire Anniversary Celebrated

Talent—About 175 Talent and Phoenix Camp Fire and Blue Bird girls, their families and guests, enjoyed a potluck dinner at the Talent city hall, March 19, in celebration of Camp Fire's fifty-third birthday.

The Rev. Clark Smith, pastor of the Talent Friends church gave the invocation, followed by the girls singing their prayer song.

Mrs. Frank Christian, as master of ceremonies, introduced the special guests, including Mrs. Richard H. Westfield, president of the Rogue council of Camp Fire girls. Clark Smith, Mr. Christian, Robert chief of police Charles Roberts, and Mrs. James Engberg, chairman of the Talent-Phoenix Leaders and Sponsors association.

Mrs. Christian, who has worked with Camp Fire for 13 years and is a past president of the Rogue council, introduced Mrs. Mae Lowe of Talent, who has given nearly 50 years of volunteer work to Camp Fire in this state. Still very active in Camp Fire work, she was the first to start groups in Talent, Sams Valley and Butte Falls. Each year she, along with Mrs. Christian and Mrs. Ray Burnette take a group of about 40 girls to camp along Wagner creek for about nine days.

Mr. Enders Honored
Another guest was "Mr. Camp Fire," Henry Enders of Ashland. Mr. Enders has been presented with the highest honor given for volunteer service to Camp Fire. The Gullett award. He has given 48 years of volunteer service and has also helped many girls attend camp who might otherwise have missed the experience.

Also introduced were the leaders and sponsors of each group. From Phoenix came two second and third grade groups led by Mrs. Ann Haggard and her sponsor, Mrs. Dixie Brown and by Mrs. Betty Steele and sponsor, Mrs. Dora Rogers. Another of her sponsors, Mrs. Mary Campbell was unable to attend. Mrs. Lois Blakey leads the Phoenix fifth and sixth graders and was introduced with her sponsor, Mrs. Viola Waggoner.

Representing the Talent leaders were second and third grade leaders, Mrs. Lloyd Schmelzer and her sponsor Mrs. William Langley, and Mrs. Al Smith, fourth and fifth grade leader and her sponsor, Mrs. Engberg. Mrs. Iva Tuggle, another sponsor was unable to attend.

Junior High school leaders, whose girls come from both towns, included Mrs. Cecil Seavey and Mrs. R. H. Leer, who have sixth and seventh grade girls and their sponsors, Mrs. George Welburn and Mrs. Robert Mullin. Eighth and ninth grade leader, Mrs. Burnette and her assistant, Miss April Burnett, were represented by their sponsor, Mrs. Lowe.

Program Given
Following the dinner a short program started with all the Blue Birds reciting the Blue Bird Wish. Mrs. Steele's group gave the sound effects as Nena Morse read "The King With the Terrible Temper." After an Irish jig dance by her group, Mrs. Schmelzer presented her girls with their Blue Bird pins. Mrs. Smith's group gave a Camp Fire skit and were then joined by the other Camp Fire girls to sing "The Law of Camp Fire." Group singing of the older girls was led by Mrs. Lowe.

All interested persons are invited to attend the Medford Fifty Plus club meeting Friday, March 29 at 12:30 p.m., in the St. Mark's Episcopal church Guild hall, corner of Fifth street and North Oakdale avenue. Cards, games and dancing are on the program. Sack lunches will be needed.

Building Projects Outlined

Gold Hill - At the last meeting of Amethyst Rebekah lodge, Mrs. Albert Gascon, noble grand, expressed her appreciation of the efforts of Mrs. Charles Stripling, general chairman of the IOOF and Rebekah building fund project. She also praised all members who have donated time and contributed in any way to the project.

The fund has now reached $851.75. Mrs. Stripling reported. The lodge meeting was held March 20 at the home of Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith, with Mrs. Gascon presiding.

Recognition was given Mrs. Cassie Johnson, vice-grand, who served as chairman from Amethyst lodge with members from here and of Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge to plan and serve the recent basketball banquet at Crater High school. The Gold Hill lodge had been invited to participate in this by the Central Point Rebekahs and Odd Fellows, sponsoring groups.

Mrs. Johnson reported that the Amethyst Rebekah lodge share of the proceeds was $86. This was earmarked for the building fund. The response of members to help with this particular project was excellent, Mrs. Johnson said. Thirty-five members made contributions in one way or another.

Mrs. Evert Jennings, community service chairman, told the group that the United Nations Essay contest being sponsored by Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges in the district is drawing to a close. Topic for the speakoff will be decided soon.

Mrs. Clarence Parsley, chairman for the treasure chest project of the Past Noble Grands club, stated that about $19 has been contributed to date. This is an individual project of the club to raise funds for the building program.

Mrs. C. Clyde Kell, publicity chairman, reported that members are assisting her with efforts to obtain data for a feature story of the history of the lodge building which is one of the oldest in Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Martin assisted Mr. and Mrs. Stripling with arrangements for a dance given at the American Legion building, Central Point, March 23 to benefit the building fund.

A rummage sale to benefit the building fund is set for today in the Fehi building in Medford.

Mrs. Paul Molloy announced that arrangements are being made to hold a talent show April 20 to benefit the building fund. It was indicated that "Have Talent - Will Travel" may be presented in other places if the home town showing is a success.

Concert Announced At College

Ashland—Richard K. Schall, assistant professor of music at Southern Oregon college, and Mrs. Schall, will present a concert Sunday, March 31 at 3 p.m., in Churchill hall auditorium, featuring art songs. There is no charge for the performance.

Mr. Schall, who directs the well-known campus vocalists, the Populaires, will serve as tenor soloist for the concert. Mrs. Schall will provide the piano accompaniment.

In addition to singing a number of solo parts in opera productions while attending Indiana university, Mr. Schall sang the title role in "Faust," at the Inspiration Point Fine Arts colony, Eureka Springs, Ark., and the tenor arias in Bach's "St. Matthew Passion" with the Oklahoma City Symphony orchestra under the direction of Guy Fraser Harrison.

Mrs. Schall, a graduate of the University of Kansas in piano and voice, has a background of teaching experience in South Carolina, Texas, and Oklahoma, and is active in a number of honorary and professional music organizations. She is an elementary music teacher in the Ashland city school system and as a part-time instructor in piano at the college.

Easter Hats On Programs For Show

Hat-shaped programs will emphasize the Easter bonnet theme at the style show and luncheon which the auxiliary of the Jackson County Medical society is presenting on Monday, April 1. The benefit will be held in the Starlight room of the Rogue Valley Country club, with luncheon served at 12 noon and cards following the style show.

Grandmothers and children of varying ages and sizes will model spring styles. Easter finery will be featured, but informal and active sports wear will also be shown.

Two junior hostesses, Mary Burich and Alecia Buonocore, will assist guests as they arrive, and three small children in Easter bunny suits will dispense Easter candies to add a festive note to the afternoon.

A table has been reserved for the proud fathers of the models, all physicians, who expect the unexpected when their small fry are on stage.

Proceeds from the luncheon will be donated to Jackson county hospitals for post-graduate training of registered nurses.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Charles McAdams, 773-6336.

Protect the cuffs on your sleeves when cooking by cutting the bottom out of two large paper cups and slipping them over your wrists.

Jackson PTA Slates Meeting

Dad's night will be observed by the Jackson Parent-Teacher association Friday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m., in the gymnasium. During a business meeting the nominating committee will present a slate of officers.

A Dad and Lad basketball game will be played after the meeting by boys of the fifth and sixth grades and their fathers. A mother-daughter volleyball game will also be played.

The school band directed by Steve Whipple will play and the orchestra directed by Miss Alice Saunders will present selections. Refreshments are to be served by mothers of pupils in the second grade. Officers suggest casual clothing be worn for the event.

Heavy soil can usually be removed from children's clothes by soaking in borax water before washing. For grease or oil stains, rub a commercial household cleaning detergent on the spots before washing with regular detergent.
