

United Presbyterian Moderator To Speak in Medford Thursday

Dr. Marshall L. Scott, moderator of the general assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the USA and dean of the Presbyterian Institute of Industrial Relations, located at McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, will be in Medford next week.

He will address a public meeting Thursday, April 4, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian church, Eighth and Holly sts. At noon that day he will talk at a luncheon at Westminister Presbyterian church for Presbyterian ministers, elders, and their wives of the Southwest Oregon Presbytery.

Dr. Scott works with churchmen, clergy and lay, with trade unionists, and with industrial management toward mutual understanding and toward an understanding of the technological-industrial-urban society.

The moderator's visit here will be one of four stops in Oregon. The others are in Portland, Pendleton, and Eugene.

At the evening meeting both the youth and chancel choirs will sing. An informal reception will be held in Fellowship hall after the meeting.

First Church
Holy communion will be observed at the First Presbyterian church Sunday with Dr. D. Kirkland West giving as his communion meditation, "The King's Invitation."

Thirty-six new members will be welcomed at both morning services. Mrs. Arthur Clay will sing, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings." At the 9:30 a.m. service the senior high choir will sing, "God So Loved the World" by Stainer and the chancel choir will sing "A Song of Jesus" by Vaughan Williams at the 11 a.m. service.

Sunday at 7 p.m. Senior High Fellowship will participate in a program entitled, "What Do You Believe?" presented by the Outreach Commission with Sandi Irving, chairman. Wednesday the Fellowship meets at 5:30 p.m. for a potluck dinner and fellowship.

Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday for dinner, church school and fellowship. Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. the combined Junior and Senior High choirs will hold a rehearsal in the sanctuary.

Westminster
"Love's Estimation of Jesus" will be the sermon at the 11 a.m. worship service of the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday. This is the third message of a series on events leading up to the Cross currently being given by the Rev. John O. Reynolds.

The lay assistant for the service will be Lorin Jacobs and the church choir will sing "Be Still and Know." Mrs. Harvey Field will direct the choir and William Wilson will be at the organ.

Parents may place their pre-school children in the church nursery and children from 5 to 10 years of age, in Children's church.

At 9:45 a.m. the Christian education program of the church is held in each department from nursery through adult. "The Reformation Must Continue" is the title of the adult discussion Sunday. Parents of children are invited to attend.

The Midweek Study Fellowship will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the pastor's office for a consideration of the events in the life of Christ which led to the crucifixion.

The Senior High Fellowship will meet Sunday at 7 p.m. at the church. Mrs. Brian Mullen will lead a meeting on the story of "The First Easter" as it was written by Peter Marshall. Fireside will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johansson, 2133 Dellwood ave.

Westminster church is located one block south of East Main st. at 2000 Oakwood dr.

Spiritualism To Be Object of Event
Gold Hill-Spiritualists will celebrate the 115th anniversary of modern spiritualism Sunday, according to the Rev. Elvina Colburn.

"The Fox Sisters and Their Mission" will be the title of the subject by Mrs. Colburn, pastor of Concord Spiritualist chapel, 560 Second ave. Sunday, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Pansy Jones, healer, and Sidney Jones will assist the pastor during the service.

Mrs. Bianca Corona and Mrs. Colburn will play a piano and solo-vox duet entitled "Abide With Me."

The congregation held a potluck dinner March 22 at the home of Mrs. Colburn.

The program consisted of a community sing, white elephant sale, and showing of a motion picture on the eruption of a volcano in Hawaii.

Local Resident Has Meditation Published
A. Ray Neptune of the Rogue Valley Manor is the author of a meditation accepted by The Upper Room, worldwide interdenominational devotional guide.

The daily devotional guide with a circulation of 3.25 million is printed in 41 editions and 35 languages. It is distributed in more than 100 countries over the world.

The Unity Choral group will meet with Mrs. Thomas Lowe, director, immediately following church.

THE REV. ORRIS DOTY
Sunday Speaker

Inspiration Week Scheduled by First Christian

The annual pre-Easter "Week of Inspiration" will begin at the First Christian church Sunday. Four out-of-town ministers will give the messages during the week.

Sunday morning the Rev. Frederick Ross Evans will preach on the subject "You and the Lord's Day." The chancel choir will sing, "Jesus, Son of God Incarnate."

Mrs. George Swinney and Mrs. Ruby Hicks will be hostesses at the coffee hour, Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Orris Doty, Coquille, will speak on the subject "You and the Church." This is an illustrated sermon, using colored slides and music. Sunday evening will be observed as Bible School night when recognition will be given to all the Bible school classes. Monday evening is Roll Call night and Mr. Doty will speak again on "You and the Last Supper."

The Rev. David Kullowatz, Silverton, will speak Tuesday night on "You and Getsemane." On Wednesday he will speak on "You and the Cross." Mrs. Kullowatz will be the guest soloist for those two nights. Tuesday is "fill a pew" night and on Wednesday hobbies will be exhibited.

The Rev. B. Ross Evans, Hood River, will speak on Thursday on the subject "You and the Kingdom." That is guest night and members of the Grants Pass Church will attend and their choir will sing.

Dr. Ward Rice, Eugene, will close the Week of Inspiration Friday evening speaking on "You and Your Lord."

Mrs. Gerald Wickersham, Klamath Falls, sister of the local minister, is to be the guest pianist for the week.

The three choirs of the church, the boys quartet and the Middlers Ensemble will sing during the week. There is to be a fellowship hour following each evening's service and nursery care is provided each evening.

Gold Hill Church Has Celebration
Gold Hill - The congregation of Gold Hill Christian church recently observed the 12th anniversary of the church. It was started in March, 1951, a dinner was held at the church.

Bill Miller, former minister, who is now a teacher in the elementary school system at Sutherlin, was among guests attending the event. The fellowship was concluded with Mrs. Joe Kaveleski playing the piano.

Prior to the building of the church at the corner of Sixth and Fourth st., Sunday school and worship services were held by the group in the annex at the old Gold Hill hotel at the corner of Fourth and Fourth ave. It moved to different locations until the congregation was able to start and then establish their own building.

Mrs. Leonard Andrews was hostess at her home on Upper river rd. during the recent spring vacation for a party honoring her Sunday school class, the junior boys and girls.

ASHLAND SERMON
Ashland - "Rock of Ages" will be the sermon topic Sunday at First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts. Ashland by Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister. A coffee hour will follow.

Lenten Series Continues at Congregational

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the Congregational church, will preach the fourth sermon in the Lenten series Sunday on the parables of Jesus' last days. The parable to be dealt with this week is that of the wise and the foolish maidens which is found in Matthew 25.

The Sunday service of worship of the Congregational church will be held at 11 a.m. in the auditorium of Hoover-Grade school. This is the temporary meeting place of the church while plans are being made for construction at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

During the worship hour, the church school will hold classes for children from infancy through ninth grade. Child care for those under three years of age is provided during the worship service in the school health room. The three, four and five year olds meet in the school bandroom. Classes for the first through sixth graders are held in the school cafeteria, and the junior high class meets in the lobby of the school office.

The Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast at 6:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Town House cafe. The choir will rehearse at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West 14th st.

The fourth and final session of the Lenten Study seminar series being offered cooperatively by St. Luke's Methodist church and the Congregational church will be held on Thursday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. St. Luke's church will be the meeting place.

Loyalty Month to End at Central
Sunday will be the last Sunday of Loyalty month at Central Church of Christ, 1440 South Oakdale ave. This will be the final opportunity for each class to raise its contest banner to the top of the flagpole by having a number equal to the present enrollment in attendance. Bible school begins at 9:45 a.m. with a combined assembly.

"When Things Go Wrong" will be the topic of the morning message by minister John V. Heberling. Mr. Heberling's evening theme will be "Jesus and Prayer." These messages are part of his "Facing Life With Jesus" series. Times of worship are 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Foreign Missionary Society to Meet
The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Church of God of Oregon, coastal and southern Oregon section, will convene April 2 at the First Church of God, 2000 Crater Lake ave., it is reported by Mrs. Floyd Powell, Medford, state treasurer.

The agenda for the day starts with registration and social time at 10:30 a.m. to be followed by Mrs. Dick Smith, speaking on the mission fields of Kenya, East Africa and Hong Kong. Following lunch, a drama skill will be presented from 1:15 to 2:15 p.m., entitled "White Fences of China."

From 2:30 to 4 p.m. the annual business meeting will be conducted. Conferences will be held from 4 to 4:45 p.m., followed by a social and fellowship between 5 and 5:30 p.m. A dinner meeting is scheduled for 5:30 at which time Mrs. Smith will continue her talk on mission fields, illustrated by color slides.

Academy Choir to Sing at Programs
The Rogue River Academy choir will be featured part of the "It is Written" lecture program Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall in Central Point. Among the numbers they will sing will be "The Ninety-first Psalm," and "Ride the Chariot," according to Marvin Wilson, director.

Topic for the Sunday night service will be "The Bible Sabbath Day," and will point out, according to Mr. Corwin, lecturer, why some Christians observe Saturday as their day of worship. On the following night, the subject, "The Bible and Sunday," is designed to show why other Christians observe Sunday, says Mr. Corwin.

Both lectures will be accompanied by color films. "Moses in the Wilderness" will be shown Sunday night, and "Ruth and Boaz" on Monday night.

Tuesday night the subject will be, "Is Sincerity Enough?" and the film shown, "Samuel the Dedicated."

The lecture programs are also continuing Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday nights in the Shady Cove grade school gymnasium.

DR. B. H. PEARSON
World Gospel Crusader Head

Free Methodists To Hear Author

Dr. B. H. Pearson, president of the World Gospel Crusades, will speak at the Free Methodist church Tuesday, April 2, at 7 p.m. Dr. Pearson is a missionary leader and author of several books.

For 20 years Dr. Pearson served as superintendent of Mexican missions in California, Arizona and Mexico, general superintendent of Free Methodist Youth, and as a missionary in South America.

The adult department of the Free Methodist Sunday school, under the direction of Loyd Smith, has been meeting this week with an opening assembly in the main auditorium. Lorraine Johnson is serving as chorister and June Shroyer as pianist.

In the morning worship service Merrie Marsh and June Shroyer will present a duet followed by the message from the pastor, the Rev. Roland Stewart, on the subject "The Lost Concept." The Free Methodist youth group meeting at the 6 p.m. service will be under the direction of Lynda Grimes followed by the monthly inspiration at 7 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Ira McDonald.

Foreign Missionary Society to Meet
The Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Church of God of Oregon, coastal and southern Oregon section, will convene April 2 at the First Church of God, 2000 Crater Lake ave., it is reported by Mrs. Floyd Powell, Medford, state treasurer.

The agenda for the day starts with registration and social time at 10:30 a.m. to be followed by Mrs. Dick Smith, speaking on the mission fields of Kenya, East Africa and Hong Kong. Following lunch, a drama skill will be presented from 1:15 to 2:15 p.m., entitled "White Fences of China."

From 2:30 to 4 p.m. the annual business meeting will be conducted. Conferences will be held from 4 to 4:45 p.m., followed by a social and fellowship between 5 and 5:30 p.m. A dinner meeting is scheduled for 5:30 at which time Mrs. Smith will continue her talk on mission fields, illustrated by color slides.

Academy Choir to Sing at Programs
The Rogue River Academy choir will be featured part of the "It is Written" lecture program Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall in Central Point. Among the numbers they will sing will be "The Ninety-first Psalm," and "Ride the Chariot," according to Marvin Wilson, director.

Topic for the Sunday night service will be "The Bible Sabbath Day," and will point out, according to Mr. Corwin, lecturer, why some Christians observe Saturday as their day of worship. On the following night, the subject, "The Bible and Sunday," is designed to show why other Christians observe Sunday, says Mr. Corwin.

Both lectures will be accompanied by color films. "Moses in the Wilderness" will be shown Sunday night, and "Ruth and Boaz" on Monday night.

Tuesday night the subject will be, "Is Sincerity Enough?" and the film shown, "Samuel the Dedicated."

The lecture programs are also continuing Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday nights in the Shady Cove grade school gymnasium.

Nazarene Minister To Visit Foreign Mission Districts

The Rev. Harold M. Lanier, pastor of the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st., will leave Monday to visit two of the foreign mission districts operated by the denomination.

He will hold services and a district youth camp on the island of Trinidad in the British West Indies. Following this he will have three meetings in the Republic of Panama. His trip is being made possible by the local congregation and under the authorization of the department of foreign missions for the church which is located in Kansas City, Mo. He expects to return to his local parish the last week of April.

The present pre-Easter services held at the local church continue Sunday. The music at 11 a.m. as announced by the minister of music and education, Perry Christiansen, will be the sanctuary choir singing "There is a Fountain" and a tenor solo by Jack Delmonte. Music during the evening service will include a duet by Velma Myers and Mrs. Bill Brewster, a solo by Walter Vail, and a number by the Fishermen male quartet.

SF Unitarian Minister Here
Dr. Harry H. Scholefield, minister of First Unitarian Church of San Francisco, will speak Thursday, April 4, at 7:45 p.m. before the Rogue Valley Unitarian fellowship.

The talk will be given in the lecture room of the Rogue Valley Manor at 7:45 p.m. His topic will be "One Man's Quest - Why I am a Religious Liberal."

Dr. Scholefield's talk here is one of 11 Unitarian churches and fellowships on his schedule as lecturer under the sponsorship of the A. Powell Davies Memorial committee, Washington, D. C.

The meeting is open to all interested persons. A discussion period will be held following the talk which, in turn, will be followed by a social period.

At the fellowship service Sunday, Ernest Wader, chairman, will read a sermon by Robert T. Weston entitled, "When Religion Failed."

The fellowship meets at 11 a.m. at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave. Sunday three members will be elected to serve as a nominating committee. New officers will be elected April 21.

Bulletin Board To Be Dedicated
"One Thing Needful" will be the title of the sermon by the Rev. H. C. Covert, pastor of the Zion Lutheran church, Fourth st. and Oakdale ave. Sunday at 11 a.m.

During the worship service, Pastor H. C. Covert will conduct the Office of Blessing to dedicate the outdoor bulletin board which was a gift to the church from Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shuler, in memory of their son, Tom.

The lighted bulletin board is of Swedish bronze on gray brick and includes a lighted clock.

The senior choir will sing the anthem "If With All Your Hearts." The adult instruction class will meet in the Fireside room at 3 p.m. Sunday. The class will meet for two hours, rather than one hour as previously. Both Luther League will meet Sunday evening. The Senior Luther League members will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Covert at the parsonage, 1541 South Jasper st. at 8:30 p.m. and the Intermediate Luther League will meet at the church at 8:30 p.m.

The Lenten Vesper service will be at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Pastor Covert's sermon will be entitled "The Affirmation" and is from the story of the Centurion. Miss Catherine Watson, soloist, will sing "Were You There?"

Christian Science Lesson Topic Told
Freedom from materiality, bondage of any sort, will be emphasized at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., Sunday at 11 a.m. Highlighting the scriptural selections from the lesson-sermon on the subject "Reality" will be Romans 13:12.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are welcome to the services.

Don't Forget the 1963 VBS WORKSHOP
Presented by Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Jessup Standard Publishing Co. Rep.

Girls Community Club
229 N. Barlett
Mon., April 1, 1 p.m.

EVANGEL CENTER
230 S. Central

Activities Noted By Two Churches

Central Point - "With Jesus on the King's Highway" is the subject chosen for sermon by Dr. Earl William Benbow, interim minister at the Central Point Presbyterian church, for Sunday. The service begins at 11 a.m. and nursery care is provided.

A coffee time follows in the dining room.

Youth Fellowship will meet at 7 p.m. with Miss Venita McGoffin as the leader. A fireside will be held afterwards at the Harsh home, 154 South Fourth st., Central Point.

Jacksonville - The monthly meeting of the church night fellowship of First Presbyterian church will meet Saturday at 6:30 p.m. The evening will begin with a potluck dinner, include some singing, and conclude with a film depicting the use of gifts from the One Great Hour of Sharing offering.

Sunday at 11 a.m. the pastor, the Rev. King K. Jones, will give a message entitled, "Something to Sing About." Psalm 138 will be the basis of both his message and the choir's anthem, "His Mercy Endureth Forever." Dave Allen and Mrs. Rafe Anders are featured in solos in this anthem.

Sunday at 4 p.m. the final New Members' class will be held in preparation for the reception of new members on Palm Sunday. The Men's study will meet at 7 p.m. Acts 18 will be studied.

Music, Sermons Listed for Sunday
Dr. George Roseberry will preach on "We Are the Sons of God" at both morning worship services Sunday at First Methodist church. There will be a baptism service at 9:30 a.m. for members of the sixth grade membership training class.

Soloist for both services will be Mrs. Milton Snow singing "Come Unto Me." The youth choir will sing "Dear Lord and Father of Mankind" at 9:30 a.m. and the chancel choir will sing "Go Not Far From Me, O God" at 11 a.m.

A banquet will be held Friday, April 5, at 6:30 p.m. for students of the sixth grade membership training class and their families. It is in honor of their joining with the church on Palm Sunday. The Rev. Lochlin Gregory, pastor of the Gold Hill Methodist church will be the guest speaker. His subject is entitled "An Open Door."

Marilyn Taylor and Linda Johnson will present piano and voice selections. Class parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stratford and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith are in charge of a banquet arrangements.

Mrs. Robert France, class teacher, will present the 22 preparatory members. Following the dinner and program, the sacrament of holy communion will be given to the group in Meeker chapel.

The Becomer's class will have their monthly potluck dinner on Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

SPEAKERS
O'Brien - The Gideons will be at the First Baptist church of O'Brien Sunday, according to the Rev. Don Knight.

God's GRACE CAN RELIEVE YOUR FEARS
The BLOOD OF JESUS
• Redeems Us
• Justifies Us
• Reconciles Us
• Cleanses Us From Sin
JESUS INVITES YOU TO COME

First Baptist Church
Conservative-Fundamental
SUNDAY
March 31
9:30 & 11 a.m.

Sermon: "The Kings Invitation"
Dr. D. Kirkland West
Preaching

First PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Eighth and Holly
DR. D. KIRKLAND WEST, Pastor

1957 Award of Merit Winner

CHURCH NEWS
National Religious Publicity Council

Eastern Position Accepted By Seventh-Day Adventist

C. C. Weis, pastor of the Medford Seventh-day Adventist church has accepted the position of home missionary and Sabbath school department leader for the Columbia Union conference which is comprised of seven eastern states including the District of Columbia. He was in the east attending the 11th quadrennial session of the Columbia conference.

Pastor Weis returned to Medford Sunday and will continue his work here until May 1 when he will leave for Washington, D. C., conference headquarters, to assume his new duties.

Pastor Weis left Medford again Monday for Portland Union academy, denominational school in Portland, where he is conducting Week of Prayer services. The program is designed to bring students into a closer relationship with God, is a twice yearly event in denominational schools throughout the country, and has been observed in Medford's Rogue River Academy during the current week.

Superintendent To Speak Sunday
The Rev. E. J. Achenbrenner, superintendent of the Eugene district of the Methodist church, will preach at the 11 a.m. service at St. Luke's Sunday.

During the service the altar choir will sing at 15th Century Latin hymn translated by John Mason Neale. The hymn is titled: "The World Itself Keeps Easter" and is sung to the tune of "Scotch Air." The altar choir is composed of boys and girls from the junior and senior high departments of the church school. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Rubie Griffin. Mrs. Charles R. McDonald will accompany the choir. The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of the church, will preside at the service.

Immediately following the service, the Woman's Society of Christian Service will sponsor a potluck dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Achenbrenner. Mrs. Clarence Byrd is in charge of the arrangements. After dinner Mr. Achenbrenner will preside at St. Luke's fourth quarterly conference. At this annual meeting of the congregation the officers of the church will make their reports for the year.

Thursday will mark the fourth and final session of the Lenten Seminar sponsored jointly by the Congregational church and St. Luke's church. Leaders for the seminar have been the Rev. Robert Tull, pastor of the Congregational church, and Mr. McDonald of St. Luke's.

RLDS District Official to Meet
Elder Lowell Schultz, who is active in the Southern Oregon district's missionary program, will attend an Institute in Evangelism in Independence, Mo., sponsored by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The Institute in Evangelism will be held in the church's headquarters. It will be aimed at providing training for those persons, particularly lay members, who are interested in the missionary work of the church.

At the local branch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Elder Dean Mason, pastor of Myrtle Point, will be guest speaker for the Sunday morning service.

Mr. Mason is active in scout work, and has held the office of youth director for the church's summer camps in the Southern Oregon district for the past two years. His purpose will be to recruit more staff members for this year's junior and senior youth camps.

Elder James Davidson, church school director, has called a meeting of all Sunday school teachers at his home Sunday at 4:30 p.m.

'Fishing for Kin' Is School Theme
"Fishing for Kin" will be the Sunday school theme at the Four Square Sunday school, 2200 Roberts rd. The family with the most relatives present will receive a present and if as many as ten are present a picture will be taken.

Each one attending and their guests who have not previously attended will be given a fish.

The Medford church is competing with the Boise, Idaho, church in a contest which will climax the Sunday following Easter.

The teacher and class members reaching their goal this past week was Mrs. James Trimble, teacher of the second and third grades.

Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen is superintendent.

Overcoming Fears To Be Sunday Topic
In keeping with the Lenten program, the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the United Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "How to Overcome Your Fears." The text is taken from II Timothy 1:7.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. H. H. Broese will sing "I Am Thy God" by Cato Roma.

The Unity Choral group will meet with Mrs. Thomas Lowe, director, immediately following church.

Stanley's RESTAURANT
"A Good Place To Eat"
Open Daily... 6 a.m.
Social Hour Nightly 3 to 7
510 North Riverside

Overcoming Fears To Be Sunday Topic
In keeping with the Lenten program, the Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the United Church of Medford, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "How to Overcome Your Fears." The text is taken from II Timothy 1:7.

Local Resident Has Meditation Published
A. Ray Neptune of the Rogue Valley Manor is the author of a meditation accepted by The Upper Room, worldwide interdenominational devotional guide.

UNITY
Corner Holly and Haven Streets
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.
REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister
Worship Hour - 11:15 a.m.
"How To Overcome Your Fears"
II Timothy 1:7
Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m.
Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
995 S. Oakdale Ave. - Phone 772-6902 - Everyone Welcome

First Church of Christ, Scientist
100 Windsor Ave., 1 Block South of East Main
Subject: "Reality"
Church and Sunday School Services at 11:00 a.m.
Wednesday Evening Service, 8 p.m.
You Are Always Welcome
Listen to "The Bible Speaks to You"
Station K-SHA • SUNDAYS-9:00 A.M.

First Baptist Church
Conservative-Fundamental
SUNDAY
March 31
9:30 & 11 a.m.
Sermon: "The Kings Invitation"
Dr. D. Kirkland West
Preaching

Don't Forget the 1963 VBS WORKSHOP
Presented by Mr. & Mrs. Wm. Jessup Standard Publishing Co. Rep.

Girls Community Club
229 N. Barlett
Mon., April 1, 1 p.m.

EVANGEL CENTER
230 S. Central

Stanley's RESTAURANT
"A Good Place To Eat"
Open Daily... 6 a.m.
Social Hour Nightly 3 to 7
510 North Riverside