

Couple Wed In Ceremony At Portland

A number of Medford residents were in Portland to attend the recent marriage of Miss Janet Carol Warren and Willard Ray Lilly, in the chapel of Trinity Episcopal church.

The bride, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren Sr., Cascade Locks, Ore., attended the University of Oregon, and is to graduate this spring as an X-ray technologist. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lilly, 1556 Stewart avenue, Medford, attended Medford High school, Southern Oregon college and now is a student at University of Oregon medical school, Portland.

They now live at 1010 Southwest Gaines street in Portland.

The wedding rites were read February 23.

The bride's gown of silk peau de soie was trimmed with reemboiled Alencon lace on the bodice and front panel. She carried a bouquet of white tulips, hyacinths and stephanotis.

Mrs. Arthur Warren, Portland, a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor and bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Lilly, Medford. Mrs. Lloyd Bendickson, formerly of Medford, now of Portland, and Mrs. Joseph Antony, Portland, were bridesmaids.

The attendants' gowns were of champagne satin and they carried bouquets of mauve and lavender tulips and hyacinths.

Barbara Warren, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Serving as best man for his brother was Gordon Lilly, Medford. Ushers from Medford were Richard Mann and Robert Christian, and the others, all former Medford residents, were Robert Walker, Mr. Antony and Lloyd Bendickson, all Portland, and Gerald Perkins, Sandy.

An afternoon reception was held in the Portland Garden club. Mrs. Dary Johnson, Medford, sister of the bridegroom, registered the guests.

Among those from out-of-town who attended the ceremony were the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle H. Bransom (Southern Oregon Color)

Leona Lorraine Hageman Bride of Doyle Bransom

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. Doyle H. Bransom are making their home at 698 1/2 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland, following their return from a wedding trip to Los Angeles.

The bride is the former Leona Lorraine Hageman, 655 Francis lane, Ashland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess E. Hageman, Raymond, Wash., who came south for the wedding. Mr. Bransom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer F. Bransom, Route 1, box 57, Central Point.

The wedding was held March 16 at 7:30 o'clock in the evening at Bethel Assembly of God church. The double ring rites were attended by 250 relatives and friends. The Rev. Lawrence D. Krause officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of peau de soie fashioned with chapel train, fitted bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. The full skirt was accented with lace appliques and her elbow length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried a cascade of gardenias.

Sisters Attend

Mrs. James Wilson, North Bend, was her sister's honor attendant. The other attendant was Mrs. Antone Bruedevoild Jr., Cave Junction, another sister. Flower girl was Brenda Hageman, the bride's cousin, and Philip Bransom, Central Point, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The attendants' gowns were of hyacinth blue peau de soie with bell skirts and matching headresses and shoes. They carried arm bouquets of red roses.

Paul Bransom, Central Point, was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Kerm Bennett and Darrell Hageman, cousin of the bride.

Baskets of red and white carnations and lighted candles in candelabra decorated the church. Maynard Hadley was soloist.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Jackson house, Mrs. Hageman chose a dark blue two-piece dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Bransom wore a pink sheath dress with lace overskirt with matching accessories. Their flower girls were red roses.

For traveling to Los Angeles the bride wore a white mohair suit with mint green accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Raymond, Wash., High school and is a teacher with the Ashland public schools at Walker school. Mrs. Bransom is a graduate of Jacksonville High school and is a student at Southern Oregon college where she is majoring in elementary education.

Among the out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. Anderson and family, Eugene, aunt and uncle of the bride; Mr. Wilson and family, North Bend; Mr. Bruedevoild Jr. and family, Cave Junction; Mrs. Dele Hooker, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Michael Plaair, cousin of the bridegroom, both Sacramento, Calif.

Student On New York Arts Tour

Miss Gloria Gene Alexander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reese M. Alexander, 2509 East Main street, Medford, now a student at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., is spending spring vacation in New York with a group from the college. The vacation opened March 27 and will close April 3.

The trip for the group is sponsored by the division of language, literature and philosophy at the college.

They are attending plays, musicals, ballet, opera, concerts, museums, editorial offices and foreign language sections of the city. The students made the trip by plane from St. Louis and are guests in the Roosevelt hotel.

Miss Alexander is a 1962 graduate of Medford High school.

Among plays she will attend are the new satirical hit from London, "Beyond the Fringe;" Tennessee Williams' new play, "The Milk Train Doesn't Stop Here Anymore;" "The Blacks" by Jean Genet; "Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man," by James Joyce; "Brecht on Brecht" and Chekhov's "Cherry Orchard."

Musical events will include, "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum;" the New York City ballet; the Metropolitan opera and the New York Philharmonic orchestra at Lincoln center.

Tours will be made to the Cloisters, the United Nations, NBC and CBS television studios, Seventeen magazine and the Museum of Modern Art.

Valley Women to Assist At Annual Cancer Tea

Committee chairmen are recruiting valley women to help with the annual cancer tea at Hillcrest orchards on Wednesday, April 17. Mrs. Ralph Thompson and Mrs. George Lewis have been contacting women's clubs and organizations to request flower arrangements for the contest that has been so popular with tea guests in recent years.

Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels and Mrs. Earl Lawson have asked for exhibits from local cultural groups. The theme of the 1963 tea is "World of Arts," and drama, art and music will be represented.

The Shakespearean Festival association will provide an exhibit of salon photographs, and the Rogue Valley Art Association and the Southern Oregon Society of Artists will each exhibit a representative selection of paintings. Other groups have not announced the content of their exhibits as yet.

The cancer tea is sponsored by the Hillcrest Tea committee as a benefit for the American Cancer society. It is held at Hillcrest house each April, and is planned to coincide with the blossom season, which transforms Hillcrest orchards into a setting of natural beauty. The verandas and large rooms of the house are decorated with baskets of blossoms and bouquets of flowers. Mrs. N. James Wilson, Mrs. B. D. Mitchell and Mrs. Warren Bayliss are in charge of decorations this year.

The floral arrangements entered in the contest are placed in upstairs rooms or on the verandas, and prizes are awarded the entries receiving the greatest number of votes from guests. Mrs. Eugene Meyerding will be in charge of ballot boxes and prizes.

Tea will be served from 2 to 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and valley women will be invited to pour. Mrs. John Day and Mrs. Jerry Olson will be in charge of the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Fred Spiegelberg and Mrs. Ivan Harrington, who will plan the refreshments.

Other committee members and their assignments are: Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Darrell Miller and Mrs. L. W. Bates, assistants to the general chairman, Mrs. Bartels; Mrs. L. Scott Ellis, hostess; Mrs. Ray Castelline and Mrs. Ralph Odell, publicity; Mrs. John Weisel, thank-you letters; Mrs. Richard Schwahn and Mrs. Richard Saul, follow-up arrangements; Mrs. Ray Frisbie, guest book.

Mrs. Stanley Paul Hanson, pictured above, is the former Miss Maxine Kay Klein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ambler Edward Klein, Burlingame, Calif. Her marriage to Ensign Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jefferies, 3290 Edella street, Central Point, was an event of March 16 in the Burlingame First Presbyterian church. They honeymooned in Canada and now are living in Bremerton, Wash., where the bridegroom is stationed as a member of the U.S. Naval reserve. (Gruman photo)
