Reception Honors Newlyweds

Gold Hill—A former Gold Hill resident and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Andrews, were honored at a wedding reception during their recent stay in the Rogue valley. The event was given by members of Gold Hill Christian church at the church between 9 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday, March 23. Guests attended from Ashland, Medford, Prospect, and Gold Hill.

The bride's table was decorated with fruit tree blossoms and Japanese quince in a crystal bowl and pink tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Edward Marsh, Gold Hill, had charge of decorations.

Mrs. Elbert Allen cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Merrick Thornton, Ashland, presided at the punch bowl and Miss Jean Cunningham, Prospect, poured coffee.

The newlyweds were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Andrews, at their home on Upper River road. The couple returned to California on March 24. He is assigned to the U.S.S. Vega, San Francisco. She will reside with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Langdon, San Jose, while the bridegroom completes a tour of duty with the Navy.

Mrs. Andrews is the former, Miss Ann Langdon, a student at Andrew Hill High school in San Jose. Prior to his enlistment in the Navy, Mr. Andrews attended Crater High school.

The couple was married at the home of her parents, at 705 Dakota drive, in San Jose, Saturday, March 2. The Rev. John Coughran, pastor of Assembly of God church in San Jose officiated for the single ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon. Thirty guests attended.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a white street length wedding dress. Her bridal flowers were white carnations with yellow roses.

Miss Donna Swanson was maid of honor. Best man was Joseph Langdon, brother of the bride.

A reception was given by the bride's parents after the ceremony. Prior to coming to southern Oregon the newlyweds went to Santa Cruz for a wedding trip.
