Family Gets Letter On Son's Activities

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Whisenant of Phoenix have received a personal letter from Lt. Cmdr. H. P. Granger reporting on the "fine job" being done by their son, Norman Doyle Whisenant.

"I have had the occasion to observe your son at work and play for over 18 months and I am continually impressed with his ability, sincerity and his honest endeavors to serve his country to the best of his ability. In today's Navy where the Aircraft Carrier is the very backbone of our fighting fleet, you can be justly proud of your son's contribution," the letter read in part.

Whisenant is presently assigned as the supply department yeoman on the USS Hancock (CVA-19).
