Joe Pepitone Leaves Yanks Little Doubt

By DICK JOYCE
UPI Sports Writer
Joe Pepitone is coming along just like old pro Joe DiMaggio said he would, so there's little doubt in the New York Yankees' camp today that the Brooklyn better can fill Bill Skowron's shoes at first base.

The 22-year-old Pepitone, tabbed by DiMaggio as a future star at training camp last year, socked his sixth and seventh home runs of the exhibition season Sunday to lead the Yankees to a 10-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Pepitone, who bats and throws left-handed, now leads the power-laden world champions in homers and also has batted in 14 runs. Some observers felt the Yankees were giving away too much when they sent Skowron to the Los Angeles Dodgers this winter in exchange for pitcher Stan Williams.

But Pepitone showing flashes of brilliance in his rookie year last season although hitting only 239 in 63 games, has the Yankee brass breathing easier. They now are hopeful that Joe will man the Yankee first base station for many years to come.

Cletis Boyer got four hits and Hector Lopez homered in the Yankees' 17th-inning attack against the White Sox. Ralph Terry pitched seven innings for New York, giving up eight hits, including a pair of homers by J. C. Martin.

In other games, Lew Burdette of the Milwaukee Braves shut out the Baltimore Orioles, 2-0; the Los Angeles Dodgers outslugged the Cincinnati Reds, 10-8; the New York Mets downed the Kansas City Athletics, 6-1; the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3; the Washington Senators tripped the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2; and the Detroit Tigers defeated the Minnesota Twins, 6-3.

The Boston Red Sox beat the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, the Houston Colts ripped the Los Angeles Angels, 9-3, and the Cleveland Indians handed the San Francisco Giants their seventh straight loss, 7-6.

The veteran Burdette became the Braves' first pitcher to pitch nine innings and bolstered his chances of regaining a starting turn after last year's disappointing season. He held the Orioles to five hits while Frank Bolling and Hank Aaron drove in the Milwaukee runs.

Rookie third baseman Ken McMullen collected three hits, including two doubles, and drove home four runs for the Dodgers. Jay Hook went the route for the Mets, allowing seven hits and striking out nine.

Jack Hamilton's four-innings of scoreless relief pitching and Cookie Rojas' 10th-inning single provided the Phils with their victory. Rookie Tom Brown continued his lusty hitting by breaking a 2-2 tie with a bases loaded

Cincinnati Leads Celts In Series

United Press International
A strong bench-trademark of the Boston Celtics - has given the Cincinnati Royals a 2-1 lead over the defending champion Celts in the National Basketball association's Eastern Division final playoffs.

All nine Royals, led by Oscar Robertson's 23 points, hit double figures as Cincinnati beat the Celtics for the second time at Boston Sunday night, 121-116. In the opener of the Western Division final playoff, Jerry West's 27 points paced the Los Angeles Lakers to a 112-104 triumph over the visiting St. Louis Hawks.

A capacity crowd of 13,909 at Boston Garden watched Robertson put the Royals ahead for good at the start of the second period. Royal reserves Adrian Smith, Tom Hawkins, Dave Piontek and Hub Reed contributed 48 points between them.

Tom Heinsohn led Boston with 28 points while Bob Cousy tallied 26 and Sam Jones 23. Bill Russell was the only other Celtic in double figures with 19 points.

The Royals, who finished 16 games behind the Celtics and lost nine of 12 regular season games to Boston during the regular season, next meet the Celtics at Cincinnati Wednesday night.

West, sidelined for almost two months because of a pulled hamstring muscle, played 36 minutes before 10,086 fans at the L.A. Sports Arena. Elgin Baylor added 21 points and Dick Barnett had 20 for the Lakers, who led 45-43 at halftime.

Bob Pettit scored 38 points and Cliff Hagan tallied 27 points for the Hawks.

St. Louis plays again at Los Angeles Tuesday night in their best-of-seven series.

The deal, which has been hanging fire all winter, came close to being completed Saturday night but General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Dodgers suddenly asked for another delay. It is understood that the Mets are willing to meet the Dodgers' $40,000 asking price.

Snider himself is eager for the sale to go through. "I talked to Buzzie Saturday night and he still wasn't sure if I'd go," said Snider. "But if I am sold to the Mets, they'll be doing me a favor. I know I won't play much for the Dodgers and it's tough to sit on the bench when you feel you can play in at least 110 games."

Snider batted .278 with five homers and 30 runs batted in for 80 games last season.

PREPS FOR TROJANS
Eugene - (UPI) - Oregon's track and field team washed out of the Far West relays, was getting ready today for its toughest dual meet of the season, The Ducks next Saturday host Southern California. The Trojans will be favored to get revenge for last year's Oregon victory that snapped their long unbeaten dual meet string.

The standings thus wound up Vancouver, Seattle, Edmonton, and Calgary. Seattle and Edmonton open their best-of-three series at Edmonton Wednesday. The winner then takes on Vancouver in the best-of-seven division championships.

BOUT POSTPONED
San Juan, Puerto Rico - (UPI) - World lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz hoped to resume training today for his rescheduled title defense against Cuba's Douglas Vaillant here next Sunday. The bout, originally scheduled for last Saturday night, was postponed when Ortiz suffered a gastric upset shortly before the weigh-in. Promoter Harold Toppel said the champion's fever disappeared Sunday and his condition was "very encouraging."

Benson, Jackson Hurl No-Hitters For KF Pelicans

Klamath Falls - A pair of no-hit, no-run games got Klamath Union high off to a head start Saturday in Southern Oregon conference baseball.

The Pelicans defeated Ashland 14 to 0 and 11 to 0 here. Gary Benson whitewashed the Grizzlies in the opener. He issued four walks and struck out 11 batters. The Pelicans used eight hits, six Ashland miscues and seven bases on balls off Bruin tossers for their 14 runs.

In the second ruckus Rich Jackson gave up a walk and hit a batter. He whiffed batters 15 times. John Rhodes, the Ashland chucker walked five and fanned the same number. Tom Osa paced the KF hitting with a triple and two singles. Mike Kitching also three-baggered for the Pel.

The games were the only ones played Saturday in the circuit. Grants Pass and Crater were weathered out and are rescheduled for Tuesday at Central Point.

Ashland has a Tuesday non-league game at Medford

Duke Snider Decision Hangs Fire

Vero Beach, Fla. - (UPI) - The Los Angeles Dodgers have decided to wait until midweek to determine whether they will go through with the long-anticipated sale of veteran outfielder Duke Snider to the New York Mets.

The deal, which has been hanging fire all winter, came close to being completed Saturday night but General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Dodgers suddenly asked for another delay. It is understood that the Mets are willing to meet the Dodgers' $40,000 asking price.

Snider himself is eager for the sale to go through. "I talked to Buzzie Saturday night and he still wasn't sure if I'd go," said Snider. "But if I am sold to the Mets, they'll be doing me a favor.
