4-H NEWS

Pins and Pans

The meeting of the Pins and Pans 4-H club was called to order by Patty Paradis, vice president. The roll call was given by Mrs. Paradis, our leader.

Each of the members made a pattern and then cut a shears case out of felt. We had orange drink for refreshments.

At our next meeting we will complete our shears case.

Kandy Kids

Plans are being made by the Kandy Kids 4-H club for the coming spring. The plans were made on March 25 at Carolle Kuest's home.

The meeting was called to order by Donna Bailey, president. The 4-H flag salute was led by Carol Roach. A report was given on the 4-H window that was set up in Central Point. Some suggestions were made for money raising projects this spring. It was decided to have a car wash and a cake sale in Central Point. The county juding contest to be held in May was also discussed.

Suggestions were taken for the food that was to be made for the Mothers tea in May. The meeting was adjourned as there was no further business.

Carolee Kuest gave an interesting report on jams and jellies. Refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held at Shirley and Carol Roach's home on April 8.

Smart Cookies

The eighth meeting of the Smart Cookies was held at the home of Mrs. W. R. Florey with the president, Kayrn Ricks, presiding. Myrna Young and Alice Minger led the flag salute.

Shuree Davis was welcome as a new member.

The discussion was on foods and it was decided that each member should prepare a frozen vegatable for her family and mix a chocolate drink for herself before the next meeting.

The club is planning a cake sale for April 13 at the Paulsen and Gates Thrift market in Central Point.

Helen Norris served refreshments.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Florey April 8.

Westside Blockers

The March meeting of the Westside Blockers 4-H sheep club was held at the home of Donna Hammond. Carolyn Barnes called roll and it was answered by each member listing the number of lambs cared for.

The comunity project was discussed and Janet Lee reported that the fair board did not approve of selling a lamb for a community project. Publicity for the lamb show was discussed and a class in judging was held.

The next meeting will be at the home of Carolyn Barnes April 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Refreshments were served following adjournment.

Antelope Livestock

The Antelope Livestock 4-H club met at the Antelope school house for the March session with Jary Hansen, president, conducting the meeting. Pledges were led by Eugene Stanley. Cheryl Swain called roll.

The club members, with the cooperation of parents, decided to hold the club's annual box social April 27 in the Eagle Point Grange hall.

Ron Anderson announced plans for weighing steers. Two new members present were Buzz Howard, who will be in the beef club; and Sandi Robertson, who will be in the sheep club.

The meeting of the Livestock club adjourned in time for the Dairy club's panel discussion, after which refreshments were served.
