

Two sets of twins, sons and daughters of Jackson County physicians, modeled for the luncheon and style show which the auxiliary to Jackson County Medical society gave April 1 at Rogue Valley Country club. All ready and waiting in the hall are (left to right) Debbie and Pam Miller, seven-year-old daughters of Dr. and Mrs. William Miller, Queen Anne avenue, and Tom and Hilary to Jackson County Medical society Mrs. Roland M. Mayer, 29 Richmond avenue. (Knackstedt photo)

Brown-Kelly Ceremony Takes Place in South

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leq Brown, whose marriage was a recent event in San Jose, Calif., are living at 1717 Main street, Klamath Falls. The bride, the former Miss Janet Rae Kelly, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Kelly, Route 4, Box 399D, Medford. The bridegroom, a student at Oregon Technical Institute, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll E. Brown, 2784 Griffin Creek road, Medford.

The couple made their wedding trip to San Francisco and Santa Cruz, Calif. The 7 o'clock evening ceremony was read March 15 by the Rev. Winfield Blount in the San Jose Westminster Presbyterian church. Double ring rites were used. Miss Verna Adams, Bend, was the bride's only attendant, and Bruce Bray, Klamath Falls, served as bridegroom. Seating the guests was a brother of the bridegroom, David Brown.

Calla lilies and ferns decorated the church and the organ music was played by Mrs. L. T. Frasier. The bride wore an eggshell colored real silk frock with lace trim at the waistline and a matching shoulder length veil. She carried a French bouquet of white carnations. The honor attendant's dress was of blue and her accessories beige. Her matching bouquet was of pink carnations.

The reception given by the bride's parents, was held in the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. T. P. Kelly in San Jose. Light blue and white decorations were used. Mrs. Bray served the wedding cake and pouring punch was the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. E. Lake, Dunsmuir, Calif. Coffee was served by Mrs. Collis Lynes, San Jose, and Mrs. Charles Koleszar, also San Jose, had charge of the guest book. Assisting during the reception was Mrs. Joseph de Freitas, San Jose. The bride's mother chose a print sheath dress with jacket, and the bridegroom's mother wore a black suit with white accessories and white carnation corsage.

The bride and bridegroom attended Medford High school. The bride, until her marriage, was a dental assistant in the offices of Dr. Joseph W. Burba and Dr. Eugene R. Cossette. The bridegroom also has attended Oregon State university and Southern Oregon college.

Money Management To Be Lesson Topic At April 10 Meeting
Mrs. Ira Phelps will present a lesson on better ways to manage earnings at the First Ward Relief society of Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Wednesday, April 10.

The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street. In addition to the talk on the wise use of resources, there will be a sewing demonstration on setting in sleeves and putting on collars. Also shown will be how to make binders to hold at least 12 magazines.

All interested women are welcome to attend. A nursery will be provided and children should take sack lunches. A potluck luncheon will be held for the women.

DAR Reports On Convention Are Presented

Yreka - Reports on the Daughters of the American Revolution state conference, held recently in San Francisco, were made at a meeting of Siskiyou chapter last Wednesday in the PP and L building social room.

Hostesses were the regent, Mrs. Henrietta Terwilliger, who presided, Mrs. Anna Calloway, Mrs. Clyde Turner and Mrs. Larry Walters. Three members attended the state conference, including the regent, Mrs. Terwilliger, the vice regent, Mrs. Alfred Crebbin and Mrs. L. L. Lichens, who is state vice chairman of civil defense.

Siskiyou was one of the hostess chapters and furnished the favors for the regent's breakfast. The favors were colored photos of Mt. Shasta mounted on triangles of native stone. The local chapter won two awards, one for membership increase and the other for U. S. Flags distributed.

After the reports on the convention, the regent read an article on conservation. It was followed by a collection of "Pennies for Pines."

Mrs. Amy DeBarn, chaplain, led the devotionals and Mrs. Robert DeNure led singing. The president general's message was read by Mrs. Rosemond Westover.

The next meeting will be a luncheon on April 20 honoring the girls who won Good Citizen awards, and their mothers.

Rotary Women
Reservations for the Women of Rotary luncheon to be served Wednesday, April 10 may be made with the hostess, Mrs. Edmund E. Hass, 1615 Crown avenue, telephone 772-8273. The event will begin at 12:30 p.m.

Montana Rites of Interest

Of interest to Medford residents is the recent marriage in Glasgow, Mont. of Miss Cheryl Linn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Linn, 119 Washington street, and McKenzie H. Yager, son of Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie Yager, Belmont, Calif.

The ceremony was held March 23 in the chapel at Glasgow Air Force Base with Chaplain John B. Johnson officiating. The bride wore a white cotton broadcloth sheath dress for the two o'clock afternoon rites. Her shoulder length veil was held by a white satin headband and her corsage was of red roses. Irvin R. Goodroad gave his sister-in-law in marriage.

Mrs. Irvin R. Goodroad, sister of the bride was matron of honor. She wore a blue chiffon frock with white accessories.

Mr. Yager served as best man for his son. Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goodroad.

The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and attended Medford Beauty school. Mr. Yager is an airman second class and is serving with the 91st Armament and Electronics division at Glasgow. They are making their home in Glasgow.

Trio Visits
O'Brien - Ronald Miner of Milo academy and Jerry Gardenia of La Sierra college, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barnes last week. Another guest of the Barneses was Private Kurt Lofing. Private Lofing and Mr. Gardenia will return to Sacramento together.

Session Held By Auxiliary

Crater Lions auxiliary met Wednesday night, April 3, at the home of Mrs. Steve Richards, with the meeting conducted by the club president Mrs. Marvin Hart. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Dick Hawkins and Mrs. Earl Richardson.

Nominations for new officers were held and elections will be at the May 1 meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. William Ferris. New members initiated into the club were Mrs. Victor Oswald and Mrs. Richard Nelson.

A visitation by nine members of the Prospect Lions auxiliary was made, which included the District Director Mrs. George Hubbard. Five members of the Crater club recently made a visitation to the Shady Cove-Trail auxiliary and visitations to the Rogue River and Eagle Point auxiliaries are planned. On Wednesday April 10 a visitation will be made to the Medford Lions auxiliary with a dinner meeting to be held at the Colony restaurant.

Forth-coming projects of club include an Easter baked food sale to be held at the Home Appliance store and a food booth at the Crater Lions Fun Fair April 19, 20 and 21.

Crater PTA Conducts Election

Central Point - Mrs. E. L. Frederiek was elected president of Crater Parent Teacher Student association during recent elections conducted by the unit. Mrs. James Hays and Mrs. Paul Thompson were elected vice presidents, Mrs. Dean Roberts, secretary and Robert Alley, treasurer.

C. A. Meyer, superintendent of District 6C, announced an annual school election to be held May 6. A hearing was to be held Thursday on the school budget at Central Point Junior High school when the public was invited to participate.

During the meeting, a question was raised as to the continuance of the PTSA, as to its value, and whether a Parents club would better serve the school, its students and their parents.

government, schooling, industry and architecture. The student explained that mainly the schools in Spain are Catholic schools with separate ones for boys and girls. Because many parents cannot afford to pay for schooling, many of the children do not attend school and illiteracy is common.

His home is in Valencia, where he is a student at Colegio La Salle, and is required to wear a type of uniform. The school year is from October to June with only Saturday afternoons and Sundays free as well as church holidays.

The student's father is an orange grower. Preceding his talk music was furnished by the Crater High school Lavalliers, directed by Norman Carothers. Miss Elaine Young was accompanist.

Dorris Couple Visits Ernest Adams Family
Hornbrook-Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adams were Mr. and Mrs. George Brautlacht of Dorris, Calif. The visitors, former Hornbrook residents, plan to return here to make their home when Mr. Brautlacht retires in June.

Six candidates were initiated into the local organization during a recent meeting. They are Sheryll and Carolyn Stone, Roseanne and Robin Fitzsimmons, Mary Hapton-stall and Nilla Dobbins.

SPECIAL SELLING

On Easter Flats!

Patents In	Regular	$7⁸⁸
• White	$9.00 and
• Red	$10.00

Leathers In

- White
- Red
- Beige

Burelson's
Shoe Salon

Main and Bartlett Streets Phone 772-6428

Burelson's

Downtown Medford

Buy Now! Use Your Charge Account!

for lovely ladies in the Easter parade

a light, cool, carefree Weathervane ... tailored for you by

Handmacher

As Seen in Vogue!

Ribbon trimmed costume with a bow to chanel. $39⁹⁸

Others Priced from 25.98

RIDE 'N SHOP MEMBER!

Main and Bartlett Streets

Downtown Medford

Phone 772-6428

NED THE NURSERYMAN SAYS:

Gardening is more fun if planned before planted . . . let us help you!

For patio elegance choose from our planters and plant material. The finest rose is a Nursery Land rose, potted and growing.

Your Sunday drive will save you money at Nursery Land. Fruit trees of quality, standard $1.90 and dwarf $2.90.

"It Pays To Plant With Good Design"

NURSERY LAND

1/4 Mile East of Central Point Overpass