

Fellowship to Hold Clean-Up

Hornbrook - The Christian Women's Community Fellowship met in regular session Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bertha Bradley. Members present voted to hold a clean-up day at the church on April 11. This will be an all day affair, and those attending are asked to take a sack lunch.

The regular study of the book of Romans was led by the Rev. C. A. Nyland preceding the meeting, which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ernest Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Bloom

Bloom-Oden Rites Held in First Methodist Church

When Miss Sylvia Oden became the bride of Donald E. Bloom in recent rites at Medford First Methodist church, she wore a moonstone lavaliere which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding as a gift from his father. The heirloom since has been worn by the bridegroom's sisters for their marriage rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Oden, Wolf Creek, and the bridegroom is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bloom Sr., Jacksonville.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 8 o'clock evening rites, March 23. About 40 friends and relatives attended the double ring ceremony.

Soloist was Mrs. D. G. MacDougall and accompanist was Mrs. Leslie Boardman.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her floorlength gown was designed with a Belgium lace bodice and the skirt was of tiered net over crepe. A crown of seed pearls held her elbow length veil and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The bride's honor attendant, Mrs. Angelo L. O'dear, is a sister of the bridegroom. Her full length aqua blue sheath dress was of satin overlaid with netting of the same shade. She wore a matching net headdress and carried pink carnations.

Theresa Specker, a niece of the bride, and LeRoy Oden, a brother, were candlelighters. Mr. O'dear was best man for his brother-in-law and ushers were Everett Oden, a brother of the bride, and Don-

Officers Are Elected

Mrs. E. D. Paylor, Grants Pass, president of the Woman's Baptist Mission Society of Oregon, will conduct the installation of new officers for the Woman's Mission Society of Eastwood Baptist church on April 9 at 10 a.m. at the church. She will also give some highlights of the activities of the state organization.

Mrs. Clifford Young will lead devotions for this meeting and hostesses for the luncheon are Mrs. Robert Balk, Mrs. H. W. Morrow, and Mrs. Joseph Rehmer. A business meeting will be conducted by the new president, Mrs. Dean Anderson.

Miss Edythe McCarty, American Baptist missionary now serving in Chiengmai, Thailand, has accepted an invitation from the Woman's Mission society to speak at the midweek service at Eastwood on April 10 at 7:30 p.m. There will be a time of fellowship after the service when refreshments will be served by Mrs. Carl Jones and Mrs. Robert Cook.

Parade of Hats Set at Meeting

An Easter parade of hats will be held at the Wednesday, April 10 meeting of the Mistletoe club of Royal Neighbors of America. The meeting will be held at noon at the Girls Community club and covered dish luncheon will be served.

Members are to take hats they have fashioned to be modeled.

Little Priscilla Roberts, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Roberts, Central Point, had the sash of pretty frock tied by Mrs. Robert Reichers and she was ready to parade down the ramp at the fashion show which the auxiliary to Jackson County
