UPI Sports Writer August, Ga. - (AP) - The New York Yankees and San Francisco Giants.

That's now this sports writer predicted the major league baseball pennant finishes last year - and they both came through.

There's little question about picking the Yankees again; they appear so superior to any of the other clubs in the American league. But picking in the National league is vastly different.

Three clubs look strong. There are four others who could do it without surprising anyone too much.

Here's the predicted finish: American League New York Yankees Baltimore Orioles Detroit Tigers Chicago White Sox Cleveland Indians Boston Red Sox Minnesota Twins Kansas City Athletics Los Angeles Angels Washington Senators

National League San Francisco Giants Cincinnati Reds Los Angeles Dodgers St. Louis Cardinals Philadelphia Phillies Pittsburgh Pirates Milwaukee Braves Chicago Cubs New York Mets Houston Colts

Teams Win At Home

United Press International The Western Hockey league playoffs are moving along on a tried-and-true formula: home rink equals victory.

Seven games have been played in the Southern and Northern division playoffs so far, and the home team has come out on top every time.

The playoffs give the team finishing higher in the regular season standings the right to play the deciding games of the best-of-three and best-of-seven meetings at its own arena.

Upholding the formula Sunday night were Seattle, which downed Edmonton 3-2 to win its first round playoff series over Edmonton, and Portland, which knocked off San Francisco 6-3 in the first game of the Southern division finals.

Beavers Win Power Show

DeLand, Fla. - (AP) - Portland and Seattle put on a power show Sunday with the Beavers winning the Pacific Coast League exhibition game 11-8.

Dalton Jones doubled four times for the Rainiers, with Pete Jernigan and Stan Johnson adding home runs. Dick Green smashed a round-tripper for the winners.

Royals Knot NBA Series

United Press International Oscar Robertson didn't let a torn sneaker sole that flapped when he ran distract him from his work Sunday night.

As a result, the Cincinnati Royals forced the Boston Celtics into a final seventh game in Boston Wednesday for the Eastern division playoff title of the National Basketball Association. Both have won three games.

Robertson scored 36 points and grabbed 15 rebounds as the Royals downed the Celtics 109-99 in Cincinnati.

"That's the second pair of sneakers I wore out this season," the big "O" said. "But this time it was worth it."

The Los Angeles Lakers took the advantage in the Eastern division playoff series 3-2 with a runaway 123-96 win over the St. Louis Hawks Tuesday.

OSU Evens With 'Cats

Corvallis - (AP) - Oregon State avenged an earlier season doubleheader loss to Linfield by scoring 4-3 and 5-3 baseball victories over the Wildcats Saturday.

The Beavers improved their record for the season to 7-7. The losses were the first for the Wildcats in six games.

Forest Service Wins Donkey Ball Contest

Happy Camp, Calif. - Forest Service basketball team, after four-legged beasts, trounced the Volunteer Fire Department, also equestrians, during the Lions club donkey basketball game here recently.

Score was 44 to 28 after hilarious four quarters of comedy basketball.

Forest Service donned fancy head-dress pieces and painted many varieties of war paint to imitate Indian get-up. Firemen in their traditional red hats found that travel on the backs of donkeys was not quite so fast as their fire trucks.

SCORE CALLS QUITS

Indianapolis, Ind. - (AP) - Herb Score, a fiery lefthander whose dazzling major league baseball career was halted by a line drive nearly six years ago, called it quits Sunday without attempting again the comeback he tried so long to achieve. "I want to give it up," the veteran American league pitcher said when the Chicago White Sox management told him he would pitch for their Indianapolis farm club this year.

Kennedy Hurls First Ball To Open Major Loop Slate

By FRED DOWN UPI Sports Writer

Major league baseball's 1963 pennant races began today with President Kennedy lending the dignity of his office to the event in Washington, D. C., and a traditional air of carnival-like outdoor fun marking the proceedings in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The annual "advance openers" sent the 20 big league teams off in a coast-to-coast, "round-the-clock" tournament of 1,620 games during which 18 teams will try to prove that the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers are not the best teams in baseball. The experts and the odds-makers predict the 18 teams will fail to prove their point.

President Kennedy presided at his third presidential opener when he tossed out the first ball before the American league opener between the Baltimore Orioles and Washington Senators.

Governors Attending Game Governors James A. Rhodes of Ohio and Bert T. Combs of Kentucky were to head the list of guests at Crosley Field, Cincinnati, where the Reds were to start the National league season against the Pittsburgh Pirates. The ceremonial first ball was to be thrown out by Susan Schroeder, 8, Cincinnati's Easter Seal child.

The Orioles finished the 1962 season in a seventh-place tie but believe several key trades have built them into pennant contenders. Their most important addition is shortstop Luis Aparicio from the Chicago White Sox.

Introduce Promising Rookie The Senators introduced a promising rookie in first-baseman Tom Brown, former Maryland football star, who led the team in batting this spring.

Angels, Colts Champions Of Exhibition Campaign

United Press International The Los Angeles Angels and the Houston Colts are the champions of the spring exhibition season.

Both closed their spring "season" on a victorious note Sunday, the Angels shutting out the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-0, in Los Angeles and the Colts defeating the Kansas City Athletics, 3-1, in 10 innings at Wichita, Kan.

The Angels - third in the American league in 1962 - finished their 1963 spring exhibition season with an 18-10 record. The Colts - eighth in the National league last season - wound up their spring with a 16-11 mark.

The world champion New York Yankees were ninth in the AL standings with a 12-17 record and the NL champion San Francisco Giants were 10th in their circuit with a 10-17 slate.

A crowd of 49,473 in Los Angeles saw Bo Belinsky, Don Lee, Julio Navarro and Tom Morgan limit the Dodgers to four hits. Leo Wagner hit two doubles and scored two runs to lead the Angels' seventh-
