

Central Point Club Elects; Sets May Event

Central Point-Mrs. Arnold Bohnert was elected president of the Central Point Garden club during April 3 elections held in the home of Mrs. Clem Ault. Mrs. C. T. Wilson and Mrs. Byron Griffith were cohostesses.

Mrs. Walter Ricks was elected vice president; Mrs. Julius Lusky, secretary; Mrs. W. C. Higinbotham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Shere, treasurer; Mrs. Donald E. Faber, historian; and Mrs. R. D. Day, librarian. Installations are planned for the June 5 meeting.

Delegates appointed to attend a district meeting in Grants Pass were Mrs. Ricks, Mrs. James Cornutt and Mrs. Ault. Mrs. Charles Jantzer was appointed as alternate.

Mrs. Kay presided. Plans were made to hold an open meeting and silver tea at the Grange hall during the evening of May 1. The event is open to all interested persons and special invitations are extended to Garden clubs of the area.

Dr. Irene Hallenbeck of Southern Oregon college, will show slides of wild flowers. Arrangements were displayed by Mrs. Shere and Mrs. H. W. Sturgeon.

Horticulture specimens were shown by Mrs. Bert Elliott, Mrs. Kay, Mrs. Francis Russell and Mrs. Lester Gordon. Mrs. C. W. Anhorn showed a film on flower arranging.

Milk and cheese add valuable protein to meatless main dishes. The protein from one cup of whole milk or one ounce of cheese is about equal to that of a one ounce serving of cooked lean meat, poultry or fish. Keep these dairy products in mind when planning Lenten menus.

Birthday Is Observed During Family Dinner

Mrs. Ernest E. (Grace) Goble, 725 Oak street, Medford, was honored at a dinner recently which observed her eightieth birthday. The event, in the form of a surprise, was held at Kim's restaurant and was attended by seven of her nine children and their families.

For the occasion Mrs. Goble wore a blue print dress and her corsage was of white carnations.

Her children who attended were Mrs. Jess Beaman, Yuba City, Calif.; Mrs. Clarence Starkey, Miss Eva Goble, Miss Ruth Goble, Wendell Goble, and Rex Goble, all Medford; and Max Goble, Eagle Point. Sons-in-law and daughters-in-law there were Mr. Beaman, Mr. Starkey, Mrs. Wendell Goble, Mrs. Rex Goble and Mrs. Max Goble.

Others were a grandson, LaVerne Beaman, Mrs. Beaman and children, Michael, Danny and Gayle, Yuba City; Allen Starkey, a grandson, his wife and children, Rickey and Terry, and Ivan Goble, a grandson and Mrs. Goble, all Medford; Clyde and Venita Goble, grandchildren, Eagle Point; Mrs. William Rowe, a granddaughter, and Mr. Rowe, Phoenix; and Thomas Harding, Murphy, Ore.

The group presented the honored guest a wrist watch. Mrs. Goble was born March 19, 1883, in Janesville, Ill. She came to Medford in 1924 with her husband and six of their children from Oklahoma. The late Mr. Goble was a minister in Oklahoma and after they moved to the valley he continued to serve as a minister on a part time basis in Medford and Shady Cove.

The family lived in Medford for a short time before moving to the Lone Pine area for five years. They then moved to Shady Cove for five years before returning to Medford. Mrs. Goble has lived at her present address for the past 22 years.

She reads and keep her home for herself and the two daughters, Misses Eva and Ruth Goble, and is active in church work.

Speaker Heard By Study Club

Dr. George E. Breece, resident of Rogue Valley Manor, was guest speaker for the annual guest day program of the Wednesday Study club, April 3 in Girls Community club.

The speaker chose for his subject folk tales and folk music of the Appalachian highlands. He stated that folk tales, mostly of English, Scottish and Irish origin, were becoming a lost literature. However, in recent years more interest has been shown and people are beginning to discover and recognize the heritage of songs, ballads, folk hymns, carols and country dance tunes.

Dr. Breece related two folk stories and played recordings. The program was followed by a tea and social hour.

Houseguest

Mrs. Barbara Callendar, Milwaukee, Wis., plans to leave next week after being a houseguest for the past four weeks of Mrs. James Wicker, 809 Adams lane, Medford. During her stay the two women have visited Mr. and Mrs. Warren Barr in Prospect.
