Freshmen awarded first honors were Susan Naumes, Marily Erb, Greg Hull, Carlye Baker, Jean Wehrly, and Mary Louise Harmon; second honors went to Suzi Elliott, John Renshaw, Glenn Stewart, Mary Jacobson, Dan Kosmatka, and Bill Reverman.

Eighteen girls from St. Mary's High school attended a day of recollection at the convent of the Holy Names Sunday. The day began with Mass, said by Father Lulay, in the Convent Chapel.

After breakfast, which was provided by the Sisters, three conferences were conducted by Father Lulay in the Chapel. The first conference denoted "The Role of Women," the second explained the "Means of Growth in Love;" and the third was based on "Peace and Joy, the Rewards in Living the Role." Private conferences were held in the convent parlor after the conferences. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament brought the conferences to an end.

A tour throughout the entire convent was then given by the Sisters, followed by a social with the Sisters in the Community room of the convent.

Special permission was granted His Excellency Archbishop Edward D. Howard for the day of recollection.

Sister Sheron Marie and Sister Mary Agatha organized the day.

Guest speakers have highlighted recent American problems classes. Mayor James Dunlevy visited the Seniors March 29 to expain the organization of Medford's city government. Both the legislative branch, which is composed of mayor and councilmen and the various administrative departments were included in the explanation.

Mayor Dunlevy used current problems and proposals to illustrate the functioning of individual departments. Students were allowed time to direct any questions they had to the mayor.

Charles Crary, an active member of the labor field for many years, was guest of the class Monday, April 1. Crary put forth the problem of finding jobs for both high school and college graduates as the underlying weakness in our economy. The position that labor occupies, the rights this position brings, and details concerning the purpose of strikes and boycotting were included among his discussion topics.

Representatives of the Armed Forces spoke to Junior and Senior boys recently. Four representatives from the various branches, headed by Chief Hawkins of the Navy, outlined various plans that each branch of the service offers. Time was left for a question and answer period to clear up any difficulties the boys had regarding their military obligation and ways of serving.

The vigorous campaigns of the various senior candidates for Student Government Day began Tuesday, April 2, and came to a climax Thursday, April 4, with the speeches of the candidates and their managers in a special assembly. The offices for which the candidates vied were superintendent of schools, councilmen of ward II, fire chief, and city treasurer-recorder. The actual voting took place Friday, April 5.

In social studies, we have been studying about building new homes. We have read books and watched new houses being built on Mace rd.

We have found many signs of spring. We are making a booklet about spring in science.

Most of the people in Mrs. Audrey Berry's and Mrs. Huldah Fisher's third grade rooms have finished their "If I Were Going" readers. The last part about Africa was especially interesting. We have learned many things about the desert. We have seen two interesting films about the camel.

We had fun making self-portraits. We cut them out and put them on the bulletin board.

Jean Wenzel is a new girl in Mrs. Elva Edler's fourth grade room. She came to us from Washington school.

George Head transferred to Washington school.

The fourth grade boys' baseball team has won all of their intramural games.

During National Library Week, April 22-26, Jack Bailey's fifth grade room will prepare a special bulletin board in the school library. The bulletin board will feature award winning books.

Wednesday, April 24, the Howard school librarians will have an afternoon tea for patrons. There also will be a plant sale, with the proceeds to be used for the purchase of new library books.

In history and geography, we have finished a unit on transportation. During the next two weeks we will be studying communication and government.

We have a new student in our room. Danny Jones comes to us from the state of Washington.

Students from the department were privileged to go with Mrs. Nita Birdseye to the Medford art center last week. They went to see the work of Janell Lansing, a student from southern California who is about our age. We were interested to see her work, and to see the various kinds of material she used to paint her pictures.

Mrs. George Flanagan will be coming to our school for two days each week. She will help us in whatever we are doing. Mrs. Flanagan has been to many of the places we study about, and has brought back pictures.

We are looking forward to the art show which the Medford grade schools will be having soon. We are putting the finishing touches on our projects, which we hope to send.

Our department chorus is working on numbers to be sung in the Music Festival May 10 in the Medford Armory.

Ronald Quackenbush's sixth grade home room welcomes a new student. Her name is Judy Johnson, who attended Jackson school.

During activity period, a group of 18 fifth and sixth grade boys have been taking part in a chess tournament. Winners in first-round contests have been Barry Leach, Maynard Hadley, Steve Strickland, Keith Guisinger, and Jimmy Marshall.

We are completing a unit on weather in science.

We are starting our spring fitness testing in PE. Early results indicate an improvement over the full tests.

Intramural softball has gotten under way.

Oak Grove School

Oak Grove students have had a successful year with a student body led by Mike Herrin, president; Steve Note, vice president; Rita Myers, secretary, and Jeff Werner, treasurer. Mrs. Dena DeKorte is the supervisor of the student body.

There have been five meetings held this year. Our most recent National School assembly was put on by George Pitts, who made sounds with bones, told jokes, showed some skills, and did some ventriloquism.

Our PTA has planned a family night at the movies. All families can get in for a dollar. Mrs. Beatty has planned the entertainment for the evening. Popcorn and candy will be sold during the movie.

On March 13, Dads and Moms came to school to learn or understand sixth grade math. Earl Kirby told them about different bases and terms and why they are taught. Refreshments were made by the students.

April 8 through 12 is library week. Mrs. DeKorte, our librarian, has planned activities for the week. Her room is going to put on a play about a girl who gets lost in Bookland and must read a book before she can get out. She finds it so much fun that she reads many more and the characters come to life.

Another activity in book week is the decorating of Easter eggs like book characters. A prize will be given to the one who makes the best egg.

In sports, the boys are starting baseball. The first game was April 4 against Griffin Creek.

The sixth grade girls have had an excellent volleyball season this year. They won six games and lost one. The fifth grade girls will represent Oak Grove in volleyball next year.

April 5, the sixth grade girls challenged the sixth grade boys to a kite flying contest. All of the kites were homemade.

"It's trying! The Classified Ad said this grass seed was great for bare spots!"

In addition there is within the sale area an unestimated volume of Douglas-fir, logs and peeler blocks, unmerchantable because of defect which the bidder may agree to remove at $0.50 per M board feet, gross scale. The prices bid for stumpage shall be considered as tentative rates subject to quarterly calendar adjustment upward or downward by 0.5 of the difference between the average of the monthly Douglas-fir Region Indices, as calculated by the Forest Service, or the Western Pine Association Lumber Price Index for the three previous months, and the following base indices: Douglas-fir 114.26(E); Shasta red fir 91.54(A); white fir and other species 91.54(A).
