

Music Drive Achieves Goal

For the first time since 1954, Jackson County Civic Music association achieved its goal of selling all memberships available for the season, during last week's 1963-64 drive, association officers have announced.

Board members have met to consider further artist selections. Mrs. Darrell Huson, association president, presided. In addition to the two concerts already scheduled, the Vienna Boys choir and Paris Chamber orchestra, three others are planned. These will be contingent upon scheduling and when dates have been secured, they will be announced. Mrs. John Lusk, drive chairman has stated.

New membership cards will be mailed in the fall prior to the first concert, Mrs. Lusk added.

Shady Cove Guild Women To Attend Luncheon Event

Shady Cove - Mrs. Harry Birch and Mrs. Leonard Moece of St. Martin's Episcopal church, Shady Cove, will represent the guild at a southern Oregon deanery luncheon April 29 in Riddle. It was announced during a guild meeting recently in the home of Mrs. John Wilson, Shady Cove.

Guests at the meeting included Stanley Welch, church vicar, Mrs. J. McCorkle, Mrs. Kenneth Lacey and Mrs. Albert Esten.

A letter was read expressing appreciation from the Rev. R. S. Kinney of the church's mission at Allakaket, Alaska, for items sent by the guild.

Mrs. Ranald Axtell, chairman for a rummage sale to be held May 2 in the Fehl building, Medford, appoint subcommittees.

The May meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Paul Robinson with Mrs. Joe Waltz as cohostess.

Social Events ♦ Women's News

Among the many items which will be offered during the Potpourri sale scheduled April 26 and 27 by volunteers of the Jackson County chapter, American Red Cross, will be a revised edition of the Red Cross Canteen cook book. Pictured above are four of the canteen members when initial plans for the sale recently were made. Left to right they are Mrs. George M. Roberts, Mrs. Melvin Krows, Mrs. A. Conro Fiero and Mrs. Ernst Ruegger. Mrs. Fiero is canteen chairman and Mrs. Ruegger, co-chairman. The original book was compiled in 1958. Two editions have been completely sold out with requests for copies still being received from valley residents and Red Cross chapters throughout the country. It also has proven to be a favorite gift item.

Potpourri Sale Slated By Red Cross Chapter

Volunteers of the Jackson County chapter of the American Red Cross went into action this week with initial preparations for the main fund raising event of the year, a Potpourri sale, April 26 and 27, at the Chapter house.

The local chapter is a United Fund supported agency; however, the entire budget is not met through this drive. To meet their balance of financial need which enables them to provide the wide scope of community services they now offer, volunteers participate in a series of fund raising events throughout the year.

The sale promises to be a community effort with contributions of new merchandise coming in from the local retail merchants.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Shady Cove - Miss Bonnie Smith of Shady Cove was guest of honor at a bridal shower given for her at the home of Mrs. Delbert Spain, April 5. Mrs. Lewis Dusenberry and Mrs. Ray Bitterling were cohostesses. Miss Smith's marriage to Arthur George Pech will be an event of Saturday, April 13 at the Trail Community church.

This will be a double wedding as her sister, Miss Carol Smith will be married at the same time to Dewey Lee Henderson.

The color scheme for the coming wedding was used in the decoration motif. The centerpiece was heart-shaped with a floral arrangement of white daffodils and lavender anemone and grape hyacinths.

Games were played with first prizes going to Mesdames Ivan Hale, Al Andre and James Smith. Mrs. Smith is mother of the bride-elect. Other prizes were awarded to Mrs. Everett Elrod and Miss Carol Smith.

Mrs. Ben Nork Jr., assisted the bride-elect with opening gifts. Others attending the shower were Mesdames Marjorie Andre, William Reeves, John Klasee, Ray Chubb, Ted Jantzer, Walter Sattler, Everett Elrod, and the honored guest's sisters, the Misses Carol and Sharon Smith.

Applegate Unit Elections Held; Enter Exhibits

Applegate Valley - Mrs. Paul McDonough, Sterling road, was elected chairman of Upper Applegate extension unit at the meeting April 5 at the home of Mrs. Clarence Roloff. Mrs. Rupert Maddox Jr. was elected vice chairman; Mrs. Earl Sharp, secretary; and Mrs. Roloff, treasurer. Mrs. McDonough will attend state council meeting at Corvallis April 29 through May 1st.

Mrs. Maddox and Mrs. Kenneth Paine will have charge of arranging the unit exhibit at the county Homemakers' festival at Central Point April 16. Exhibits will show projects demonstrated during the year, and the local unit has selected a combination of items from the drapery, upholstery, mosaic, and hat making projects.

The unit held two workshops this year, aside from scheduled projects which included mosaic, led by Mrs. McDonough, and yeast bread, led by Mrs. Roloff and Mrs. Wilfred Pearson.

The May meeting and installation will be held jointly with Foots Creek unit at the home of Mrs. Harry Davis, Gold Hill.

Xi Mu Chapter Meets Tonight; Elect Officers

Xi Mu chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority will hear the final chapter on the study of a South American series during their meeting this evening at 8 p.m., in the home of Mrs. Charles Carey, 827 Pierce road. Mrs. William Hartman will present the subject on Brazil and the Caribbean.

A mad-hatters party will be held and members will display original styles. Mrs. Ernest Mickelson, social chairman, has announced that awards will be given.

Cohostesses will be other members of the social committee, Mrs. Thelma Halvorsen and Mrs. James Daugherty.

During recent elections, Mrs. Hartman, who has served as treasurer for the past two years, was elected president. Mrs. Carey was elected vice president; Mrs. Raymond Hoadley, recording secretary; Mrs. Mildred DeWitt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Merrill Beneka, treasurer, and Mrs. Ted Gerot, city council representative.

(Above) KIMBERLY KNITS a nautically-minded suit in wool for spring. The jacket has perfect middy manners - with merest suggestion of a collar and smart slits on the side. Slim skirt underlines a look that is at home just about anywhere. $59.95

(Left) KIMBERLY KNITS the most graceful understatement in wool knit for spring. An almost-cardigan neckline points to a trimly belted wastline. Slash pockets take to the gentle curve of the hip. This slim wonder starts at breakfast and remains the best-dressed guest for dinner. $55.95

In addition a plant and garden sale will feature an assortment of rare plants and unusual garden accessories.

Baked foods prepared by some of Medford's well-known cooks will be offered.

A wide selection of used merchandise will be on sale and the Red Cross canteen will preside for a snack bar where shoppers may rest and chat while enjoying coffee and cake.

Among the many items to be offered during the sale will be the new revised edition of the Red Cross Canteen cook book. The original book was compiled in 1958 by members of the canteen as a direct result of the great demands for recipes of the dishes prepared and served by this group of volunteers. Two editions have been completely sold out, with requests for copies still being received from valley residents and Red Cross chapters throughout the country. It has proven a great favorite as a gift item, the staff pointed out.

The new book will contain the salad, entree and dessert recipes of the earlier edition, along with many new dishes, and will make its appearance in the original cover designed by a member of the local high school Red Cross. Loose-leaf inserts of the new additions will be available for persons already having the cook book.

The canteen of the Jackson County chapter of the Red Cross, with Mrs. Conro Fiero as chairman and Mrs. Ernst Ruegger as co-chairman, has achieved recognition for its outstanding service. Organized to serve in time of disaster, they keep in practice by participating in all local visits of the bloodmobile, they serve luncheon during the monthly Red Cross board of directors meetings, are responsible for all food service during disasters such as the December 2 flood and have successfully managed a number of special events like the Bridge Brunch as the chapter house last week.
