Swim Coaches Institute at UO

Eugene – Forbes Carlile, Dutch National coach and former Australian Olympic coach, will be guest lecturer Saturday, April 13, at a swimming coaches' institute.

The institute is sponsored by the school of health, physical education and recreation at University of Oregon. Sessions open at 9 a.m.

Carlile will discuss training and conditioning, swimmers' physiological reactions to the stress of training and testing of swimmers for signs of strain and conditioning.

There are registration fees required with one amount for coaches and a lesser cost for students and swimmers.

Ducks Beat LC Pioneers

Portland – (UPI) – Oregon scored nine runs in the last two innings to overcome Lewis and Clark 14-6 in a baseball game Wednesday.

The undefeated Ducks were paced by infielder Bob Porter, who clouted a ninth-inning grand slam home run and drove in six runs for the day with three hits.

John Livingston contributed four hits, Jeff Allen a double and a home run and four runs batted in, and Fred Pettengill three hits, including a double, for the Webfoots.

Collier Rolls Into 7th in ABC

Buffalo, N.Y. – (UPI) – The best performance at the American Bowling Congress tournament on Wednesday was turned in by 18-year-old Dick Coollier of Pittsburgh, who had to borrow money to roll in the classic division.

Collier came to the ABC prepared to bowl in the regular division, but was informed that he had to perform as a professional. His companions on the North Versailles Bowl team of McKeesport, Pa., came up with the $64 entry fee and Collier went on to take seventh place in the classic singles with a 687 series.

This was Collier's first ABC and his fourth tournament appearance of any kind. He joined the Professional Bowlers association three weeks ago.

In the booster division a new leader emerged for the first time since March 27. Andrea T.V. of San Juan, P.R., took first place with 2815, replacing Ridge Lanes of Ridgeway, Ont. The Ridge team dropped to second with 2787. The booster division is reserved for teams averaging 850 or less.

Ed Bailey's Grand Slammer Gives SF's Giants 8-7 Nod

By DICK JOYCE
UPI Sports Writer

Ed Bailey and Clay Dalrymple – a couple of major league catchers traveling in opposite directions on baseball's merry-go-round – have found the same route in leading their teams to come-from-behind victories.

The veteran Bailey, one-time standout catcher of the National league while with the Cincinnati Reds but now relegated to the second-string job, pinch-hit a grand slam home run Wednesday night in pacing the Giants to a 8-7 triumph over the Houston Colts.

Dalrymple Caps Rally

The 26-year-old Dalrymple, starting his third year as a regular backstop, capped an eight-run outburst in the seventh inning with a two-run homer to give the Philadelphia Phillies a 10-7 victory over the Reds.

Sandy Koufax, pitching his first complete game since last July, held the Chicago Cubs to five hits in a 2-1 triumph for the Los Angeles Dodgers; Ray Washburn of the St. Louis Cardinals blanked the New York Mets, 4-0, and Donn Clendenon's homer led the Pittsburgh Pirates over the Milwaukee Braves, 3-2, in other games.

Houston led 7-4 going into the eighth inning, but reliever Don McMahon filled the bases and Bailey blasted his pitch 390-feet over the right field wall. Felipe Alou hit a homer and Orlando Cepeda added three hits for the Giants.

Koufax Finger Okay

Don Demeter singled home the tie-breaking run and then Dalrymple connected – both coming on the first pitch served by the Reds' fourth hurler, Jim Brosnan. Johnny Callison also homered for the Phils.

Koufax, sidelined for the last half of the 1962 season with a circulatory ailment on his pitching finger, showed no effects from the injury, striking out 10 Cubs. With stars Maury Wills, Tommy Davis and Bill Skowron benched with injuries the Dodgers made the most of five hits to beat old nemesis Bob Buhl.

Washburn set the Mets down on four hits, handing Casey Stengel's team its second straight shutout. Dick Groat's homer and Bill White's three hits paced the Cardinal's attack.

Clendenon's second home run of the season came in the eighth inning to make Don Cardwell's debut as a Pirate a winning one.

Celts Win In Finale Of Playoff

United Press International

The graybeards of basketball, Boston's veteran Celtics, pulled the bell ropes to sound midnight for Cincinnati's cinderella team and immediately turned to their newest title task.

The Celtics, faltering with age in recent weeks after seven seasons of total domination in the National Basketball association, go hunting their fifth straight world playoff crown on Sunday.

And the Celtics, who Wednesday night eliminated the Royals from the Eastern NBA playoffs, don't care whether St. Louis or Los Angeles wins the role of Western finalist.

The Lakers and Hawks, deadlocked at three wins apiece, clash in Los Angeles tongiht for the Celtics in the best-of-seven finals starting here on Sunday. The second game of the finals will be here Tuesday before the teams go west for two games on yet undisclosed dates.

The Celtics, flashing the bursts of speed and scoring that had carried them to seven straight eastern playoff crowns, made it eight straight Wednesday night in a 142-131 conquest of the diehard Royals.
