Four Businesses Entered in Talent

Talent—Four business establishments here were broken into Wednesday night or Thursday morning. The entries were discovered about 7 o'clock this morning.

They were the Talent Feed Store, Valley Locker and Grocery, the Talent Club and the Talent Shell station.

Heaviest losses were reported by the Valley Locker and Grocery from which cigars, two radios, meat valued at $25, men's gloves, cigarettes, beer, wine and chewing tobacco were taken.

At the Talent club, which was also entered by the front door, all coin machines were broken into and cigars stolen. An attempt was made to enter the safe, which was badly damaged. The amount of money removed from the coin machines was not reported.

Glass doors at the Shell station were broken and the doors at the feed store. No other losses were reported by either place.

Peggy Lee's Search for Success

Jazz music authority and critic Leonard Feather once said of Peggy Lee, "If you don't feel a thrill when she sings, you're dead."

The thrilling intensity of her singing style mirrors a great talent, a troubled life—and a faith that has helped sustain her.
