

Tablets

By R. E. NEALON
Mail Tribune Table Rock Correspondent

The Table Rock ladies club will meet Wednesday, April 17, at the home of Mrs. Aubrey Taylor, with Mrs. E. W. Robinson assisting. Each one is asked to bring a "white elephant."

Mrs. Vernon Gebhard and Mrs. Robert Dunn will work for the cancer drive in the Table Rock and Sams Valley districts April 15th and 16th. Mrs. Gebhard states that the cancer fund is not a part of the United fund.

Several from here attended the funeral of Margaret Wolgamott in Medford Tuesday. Mrs. Wolgamott was a sister of John Dickey of the Modoc orchard.

Mrs. Manley Jacobson and family from California points, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Anna Jacobson on Pumice lane.

Other Table Rock visitors are Mrs. Ernest Mulligan and four children from San Jose, Calif., and Mrs. Ronald Perry and two children Pleasanton, Calif., who are visiting the Thomases at the Table Rock Store; and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Edgcomb, Redding, Calif., who were Sunday guests of R. E. Nealon, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Houston of Applegate, and Mrs. Josephine Cornutt, Old Stage rd. We Stand Corrected on Luy Story

Chris Kenney, an old time resident of Jacksonville, called up on the phone to tell us that we were mistaken when we wrote in Tablets that Paul Luy's mother was a member of the Bybee family. In the biographical record of western Oregon people, Mrs. Minnie Bybee married Fred Low; so I guess Kenney is right.

Here we go back to our unfinished sense of humor story in last Friday's Tablets. We were told by our doctor that a growth on our head should be removed as it might develop into something serious. We met the doctor at Sacred Heart hospital. With our forehead on the table while doctor was prodding around on our head, we remarked that a lot of improving had been done since the last time we were in the hospital. He replied, yes, some $200,000 worth. Then we asked if they had paid for it. He said, no, of course not. Then we said we hoped they didn't expect us to finish paying for it. During this conversation a lady walked in wearing a white frilly head-piece that seemed to frame the most beautiful face we have ever seen. Her white velvet-like skin had not been touched with any make-up. Her eyes, in their natural state, glistened like diamonds; but the loving, kindly expression on her face made you think you were looking at the face of an angel; but we could see that we had hurt her feelings.

Our doctor, who had gotten us out of many tight places, came to our rescue and said, "He doesn't mean a thing. It's just his way of joking."

When the Dr. had finished, we found that our insurance didn't pay for anything less than a day in the hospital, so the doctor asked me how I felt, and I said woosy, which was true. Although the scalp he took off was only the size of a thumb nail, it felt as if we were being scalped.

Let's Pitch In And Help

Since the hospital was built back in 1910 hundreds of people have entered and gone out its doors in better health and spirits. But time has taken its toll and a new and modern hospital staffed with modern equipment is needed. Hospitals as they come now cost a lot of money, and it behooves us of the Rogue valley to pitch in and see that these folk get the needed funds to build and equip this needed building. It is altogether proper and fitting that we should do this for those who dedicated their lives to help and comfort others.

Thought for the day—
I am almost convinced that the only good that exists is that personal quality which leaves every one happier who contacts is possessor.

Egg Hunts Slated In Jacksonville, Other Cities

Jacksonville—The Jacksonville police department is sponsoring an Easter egg hunt Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the old Beekman lot on Fifth street, Police Chief Frank Carter announced yesterday.

Don Stoner of Applegate is furnishing the eggs for the hunt.

The children participating in the hunt will be divided into two groups, one of ages one to five, and the other of ages five to 11. There will be four prize baskets offered, two for each group, Carter stated.

Central Point
Central Point Jaycees will sponsor their annual Easter egg hunt Saturday morning in the city park at 9 a.m.

According to Bob Clark, chairman, the hunt will be divided into three different age groups. Children through the age of eleven are invited to participate.

Prizes, donated by Central Point merchants, will be given to children who find prize eggs and turn them in at the judges stand.

Grants Pass
Grants Pass — This city's Riverside park will be the scene Sunday afternoon for a children's Easter egg hunt, sponsored here annually by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Games and races for children up to the age of ten will start at 2 p.m., to be followed by the "scramble" for Easter eggs. Children participating will be divided into three age groups.

Over 150 prizes are being donated by local merchants to go to the winners of races and finders of prize eggs. General co-chairmen of the project are Jim Peckham and Len Grover.

Gold Hill Odd Fellows' Building Funds Tops $1,000

Gold Hill — Mrs. Charles Stripping, general chairman for the Odd Fellow lodge 129 and Amethyst Rebekah lodge 87 building project, reports that the building fund has now gone over the $1,000 mark.

She announced that she will be calling a meeting soon for all Rebekahs and Odd Fellows the place and date to be announced later.

Donations have been received from different lodges throughout the state, she noted, and Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges in the district of Jackson and Josephine counties have shown interest in wanting to help the Gold Hill fraternal groups.

Ashland Rebekahs and Odd Fellows are donating the use of their IOOF hall for a benefit dance Saturday from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. All proceeds are earmarked for the Gold Hill IOOF building fund.

Also on Saturday, commencing at 9 a.m., Amethyst Rebekahs are holding a food sale at Gail's Gold Hill market, to aid the building fund. Arrangements are under way for a talent show on Saturday, April 20, at 8 p.m., at Patrick Elementary school multi-purpose room. All proceeds will benefit the building fund.

BUNNIES AT WORK—Mrs. Rick Wolgamott and her two pre-school age daughters, Ricky and Carla, are the Easter bunnies in Eagle Point this year.

Easter Bunnies Get Eggs Colored For Eagle Point Hunt

Eagle Point—The Easter rabbit and her two bunny rabbit children, give them Easter eggs, and help them find a hidden egg if necessary Saturday morning at the Easter egg hunt. Prizes will be awarded in all age groups for the lucky egg finder.

The Easter bunny this year is Mrs. Rick Wolgamott and her two pre-school age daughters, Ricky and Carla.

Siskiyou Historians To Meet Saturday

Yreka—The Siskiyou County Historical society will hold its next meeting Saturday in the museum at 2 p.m. James McNeill, president of the society, will be the speaker. His topic will be "Pack Trains of the Salmon River Country."

Radio Class Gives Demonstration At District 6 Meeting

By MARY COLLEY
Mail Tribune Correspondent

Students from the able and gifted radio class, accompanied by their instructor, Alan Hill, gave a demonstration and spoke at the school district 6C board of directors meeting Tuesday night.

This class is a volunteer group of students who have met Saturday mornings at Crater High school to master techniques of transmitting and receiving Morse code and to study the mechanics of radio.

They have put in 17 three-hour sessions, starting Jan. 5 and ending March 18. These students working together have built a radio transmitter, which worked the first time it was used, according to Hill. Started by Mack

The class was started through the efforts of Gilbert Mack, principal of Patrick and Hanby schools at Gold Hill.

Students speaking to the board of directors were Miss Sandra Ganong, eighth grade, Gold Hill, and Wallace Skyrman, tenth grade, Crater.

The board of directors opened bids for a 73-passenger pusher type bus. They deferred a decision until they have had an opportunity to study the bids.

Teachers hired were Miss Vernola May Hutchinson, grade 5, Sams Valley; Alan Hill, principal and grade 6, Sams Valley, and Jack McCoy, principal, Central Point Junior High.

McCoy has been principal at Central Point Elementary school the past two years.

Board member Leo Ghelardi reported on the progress of the site committee. C. A. Meyer, superintendent of district 6C, reported on the public hearing of the 1963-64 school budget held April 4.

Election boards for the May 6 school election were accepted. They will be board 1, Central Point Junior high gym, Mrs. Ethelyn Noel, Mrs. Betty Chamberlain, Mrs. Bonnie Higginbotham and Mrs. Ruth Campbell; board 2, Gold Hill (Hanby) gym, Mrs. Willie McLean, Mrs. Nora Bailey, Mrs. Ruby Christenson and Mrs. Evelyn Thompson; board 3, Sams Valley school building, Mrs. Rosalia Abbott, Mrs. Helena James, Mrs. Leona Houston and Mrs. Ruth Peffley.

Meyer gave special recognition to the Crater FFA chapter for honors won at the State Future Farmers of America convention.

Pat Neal was elected state president, Alan Bray was the state public speaking winner, Ron Smith was one of five winners to receive an Oregon Council of Cooperative scholarship, State Farmer awards were won by Pat Neal, Bob Ryan and Alan Bray.

FHA Representative To Address Chamber

Gold Hill — A speaker will represent the Federal Housing Administration of Portland at the next meeting of Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce, according to Frank Sutcliffe, vice president and program chairman.

The meeting is slated for Thursday, April 18, at 12 noon at the Rogue Riviera. The administration's requirements for loans and financing of homes will be the topic.

All chamber members and any other person interested are invited to attend the meeting, it was stressed.
