

Pate-Hagler Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pate, who were married April 2 in the home of the bride's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hagler, 5395 South Pacific highway, are living at 3410 North Pacific highway. The bride is the former Rena Iona Hagler, daughter of Mrs. Ellen Jones, 244 South Central avenue.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Pate, Gordo, Ala.

The Rev. Violet Bolliger of the Talent First Methodist church, performed the ceremony at 9 o'clock in the evening. About 30 guests attended the double ring rites.

The date chosen for the wedding was the fiftieth wedding anniversary of the bride's mother, and her father, the late Chris Kaufman. The bride also wore her mother's engagement ring.

Peach blossoms, arranged by Miss Beatrice Rasmussen, decorated the Hagler home.

Wedding music was provided by Miss Gloria Rasmussen, Mrs. Chris Hagler and Mrs. Dennis Hagler, another daughter-in-law of the bride, sang a duet.

Chris Hagler gave his mother in marriage. She chose a pink chiffon and lace dress with pink hat and short veil, and her bouquet was of orchids.

Mrs. Arthur Curtis, a daughter of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a white chiffon gown.

Brenda Curtis, a granddaughter of the bride, was flower girl. Her frock was of yellow and green and she wore a matching headband.

Jo-Doe Hagler, a grandson, was ring bearer, and Dennis Hagler, her son, was best man. Mr. Curtis, seated the guests.

Johnny Hagler, a grandson, lighted the candles, and Jimmy Hagler, another grandson, was in charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jones chose a blue dress with white accessories.

A reception in the Hagler home followed the ceremony. Mrs. Chris Hagler and Mrs. Ernest Rasmussen had baked and decorated the wedding cake served by Mrs. John Greb, Corvallis.

Mrs. Carl Bennett, a sister of the bride, had made the punch poured by Mrs. Bell Anderson, a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Fowler and sons, cousins of the bride, assisted.

Corsages for the occasion were made by the bride.

The couple plans a belated wedding trip to visit relatives of the bridegroom.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at a shower given by her daughter, Mrs. Curtis. About 12 guests attended.

Other out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. Greb, and the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kaufman, Gold Hill.

Dinner Planned At Central Point

Central Point - Members of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church, Central Point, have invited their husbands to a potluck dinner and program Friday, April 19, at 6:30 p.m. at the church. This will take the place of the quarterly daytime association meeting.

Miss Mary Ellen Bell, public health nurse, will speak and show pictures taken during her travels in several European countries.

Mrs. Loyal Kelley, chairman of the dinner committee, suggests that those attending bring a hot dish, either a salad or dessert and their own table service.
