First Preliminary Contest for Miss Rogue Valley Set

The first preliminary judging for the Miss Rogue Valley contest sponsored by the Medford Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held April 17 at Sambo's restaurant.

On April 20, contestants will appear in the Pear Blossom parade. April 20 and 21 contestants will model Burleson's fashions at the Crater Lions' Fun Fair.

Second preliminary judging will be at Sambo's April 24. Winner of the contest will receive a $100 scholarship from the Pepsi Cola Bottling company.

A candidate must be single, never have been married, divorced or had marriage annulled. She must also be a high school graduate by Labor Day and not less than 18 nor more than 28 years old by that date.

Other Qualifications: An entrant must also be of good character, possess poise, personality, intelligence, charm and beauty.

She must also possess talent. Any talent exhibition must be no longer than three minutes. It may include singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument, dramatics, art display, dress designing, creative poetry, writing, or a three-minute talk on the profession she wishes to pursue.

The candidate must be a resident of the city, county or territory in which the local pageant is held for six months prior to the event. This rule is waived for those who are college or university students in the area.

The entrant may be either professional or amateur. Six contestants have been entered so far, it was reported.

Honda Association Elects New Officers

The Southern Oregon Honda association elected new officers recently. Those installed were Elden Owens, president; Larry Simmons, vice president; Richard LaFleur, secretary; Jerry Stuart, treasurer; Al Zuman, sergeant at arms; Lonnie Harper, judge, and Dan Dixon, assistant judge.

Robert Harrison was appointed public relations chairman. The association's first activity, a field day at the Old Military Base recently, was reported successful.

The workshop, co-sponsored by the university and the National Committee for Education in Family Finance, will be held here for the 11th consecutive year. It will run from June 17 to July 12.

The four-week course is designed for secondary school teachers of social studies, business education, homemaking and mathematics; and elementary school teachers and principals.

Forty qualified participants will receive cash grants of $100 each. Among topics to be covered in the course are personal income, budgeting, banking, consumer credit, renting and buying a house, life insurance and other insurance, personal taxes and Social Security.

Dr. Hugh B. Wood, professor of education, will be coordinator of the workshop.
