Footlighter Play To Open Tuesday Night at Theater

"Five Finger Exercise," a drama with comedy touches, will open Tuesday, April 16, for a five-day run at the Footlighter theater at the Fairgrounds. The play, with a setting in Suffolk, England, is directed by Frank Buchter.

Director Buchter, who has a background of many years both as an actor and director for this little theater group, this time is working with an all-new cast. The one exception is Les Boardman, who has appeared in several Footlighter offerings and who plays the role of Walter Langer, a tutor.

Of particular interest is the presence in the cast of JoAnn (Mrs. Reedy) Berg, a former Miss Oregon. Mrs. Berg is playing the mother, Louise. The role of her husband, Stanley Parrington, is played by John Gregory, a real estate dealer in Medford. Their daughter, Pamela, is played by DeAudrey Knapp, who is on the staff of the Thunder-
