African Students Speak

Miss Priscilla Mbuvi and Clifford Somkence, students from the Continent of Africa, now studying at Southern Oregon college spoke for members of Lincoln School Parent Teacher association April 11, in Lincoln school.

From different areas of Africa, the two described points of interest where they live. Mr. Somkence talked of the schools and Miss Mbuvi's topics were the homes, work and education.

New officers of the Lincoln association unit are Mrs. Virgil Stickley, president; Mrs. Willard Henney, vice president; Mrs. Lucille Fields, secretary, and Mrs. Don Landing, treasurer.

Boy Scout Troop 2 presented colors for the evening and the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr., of Advent Christian church, gave the invocation.

Room count was won by students of the third grade. Refreshments were served by mothers of students of the first grade.

After the meeting parents viewed the art and craft display from District 549C elementary school now in progress at the school.

Navy Man on Leave Is Prospect Guest

Prospect – Scott Grieve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heston Grieve, is visiting with his parents while on a 10-day leave from the Navy. He came from San Diego and is to report to a Naval school in Memphis, Tenn.

During his stay, his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Millbank, Copco, Calif., also visited in Prospect as guests of her parents, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Halaver Garden.

Weather Poses Problem For Annual Benefit Tea

Members of the committee planning the annual tea to benefit the American Cancer society are wondering if they should wear long - sleeved dresses instead of summer cocktail gowns when they greet guests at Hillcrest tomorrow afternoon, it is reported. The capricious weather is posing problems also for the many women who have been selected by various clubs and organizations to make flower arrangements for the contest which is a traditional part of the event. Flowers are late in blooming, and those that are in bloom now have suffered from wind, rain and snow.

However, the committee seems confident that nature's obstacles will be overcome somehow, and that the party will be a success. Buds are being forced in many a household, and the flower arrangements will be displayed in the large upstairs rooms at Hillcrest house, where guests need not fear the weather.

The downstairs rooms will contain the collections and displays that individuals and art groups are loaning for the afternoon.

Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, chairman of the tea this year, has requested exhibits on the theme "World of Arts." She reported recently that Mrs. A. H. Hiebert has agreed to show some articles from her collection. Several hand-designed and executed enamel plates, a steel-engraved silver chessbox with hand-carved ivory chessmen, and a hand - made silver bowl in a grapeleaves pattern will be in her display.

Mrs. John Winton will loan her potter's wheel, and many other artisans and artists, both professional and amateur, will display their work.

Tea and refreshments will be served from 2 to 4:30 in the afternoon at Hillcrest house, and the public is invited to attend.

Ten 'Fairest Women' Selected at Luncheon

St. Anne's Altar society gave the annual Easter Monday luncheon yesterday at Rogue Valley Country club and as in past years, several hundred women attended. Although the weather was more like winter than spring, the guests wore fashionable suits and frocks, and their most beautiful spring hats.

Ten women were selected as "the fairest." Chosen were Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, Mrs. Russell Acheson, Mrs. Eugene Cossette, Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, Mrs. John Collins, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Kenneth Allen, Mrs. Fred C. Lorish, Mrs. Stephen Mosher, and Mrs. Paul R. McCulloch. It was the second consecutive year that Mrs. Ulrich and Mrs. McCulloch, Portland, had been chosen.

Judges were Mrs. D. Ford McCormick, Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter and Mrs. Reedy Berg. In announcing the winners, Mrs. Carpenter said "This is an utterly impossible task- any number of women might have been chosen."

Trellises of ivy and flowers transformed the setting into a garden-like place, and blooming pansies centered the tables.

Mrs. Frank Gritsch and Mrs. Paul Moore were general chairmen.

Mental Health To Be Subject

Miss Donna Gilkey of the Jackson County Family and Child Guidance clinic will present a program on mental health at a meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational church. It will be held Thursday, April 18, at the home of Mrs. Emmett Bullard, 22 North Berkeley Way.

A business meeting will be conducted by the president, Mrs. Henry Padgham, at 11 a.m. A sack lunch will be served at noon and dessert will be provided by the hostesses, Mrs. Floyd Fogelquist, Mrs. Carl Elhart and Mrs. Maude Snider.

Child care will be at the home of Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West Fourteenth street.

Junior Women to Give Gallery Party Tonight

Officers and members of Medford Junior Women's club, a unit of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, will be hostesses this evening for a reception at Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street. The reception will mark the opening of an exhibit of entries in the annual art competitions held by the Oregon federation for high school students.

Mrs. Gene F. Chamberlain, member of the Junior Women's club, is art division chairman of OFWC, and Mrs. James A. Wells is chairman of the reception. The event is set for 8 o'clock and anyone interested is invited to attend.

All the work of the Oregon students entered in the OFWC competitions will be displayed in the backroom of the gallery. In the main room an exhibit of the work of Janel Lessing, child prodigy from Playa del Rey, Calif., is continuing and will be up through Saturday. Gallery hours are 12 noon until 4 p.m.

At the last meeting of the Medford Junoir Women's club, held at the home of Mrs. Jack L. Lust, officers for 1963-64 were elected. Mrs. John L. Holmes was elected president; Mrs. James W. Grigsby, Jr., first vice president; Mrs. Wells, second vice president; Mrs. John Shea, recording secretary; Mrs. Randy Warren corresponding secretary; and Mrs. George Brenner, treasurer. Mrs. Holmes will succeed Mrs. F. D. Nelson.

Director Speaks

Lee Ragsdale, director of health and physical education for the Medford school district, was the guest speaker. He told the group how his department presents health and physical fitness to the boys and girls in this school district. He brought charts to show, and explained the various tests given at the schools to help each child keep physically fit. "Health and physical fitness are synonymous to me," said Mr. Ragsdale.

During National Library week the club will present books to the Library of Medford and Jackson County. Mrs. Eugene W. Ingram is chairman of this project.

The annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs will be held this year in Eugene May 8 and 9. Mrs. Nelson, club president, appointed Mrs. Truman A. Nelson as delegate; Mrs. Holmes and Mrs. F. D. Nelson will also attend.

Mrs. Chamberlain told the club about the art contests.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Asplund, 1456 Jasper street, May 15 at 8 p.m.

Assisting Mrs. Lust for the last meeting were Mrs. Harlan Weaver and Mrs. John L. Holmes.

DAR Seeks To Improve 'Image'

Washington –(UPI)– The 72nd Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution opened last night with a streamlined program aimed at improving the DAR's public image and giving delegates a bigger voice in its resolutions.

The organization's new president - general, Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan of Alexandria, Va., is the prime mover behind a program to build better understanding of the DAR's activities and objectives.

During the week-long meeting at Constitution hall, she is sponsoring two innovations to permit delegates to air their views on the stand the DAR takes on national issues, and on its policy goals.

For the first time an informal open forum to answer questions from the nearly 4,000 delegates from 50 states will be held on the proposed resolutions today. Voting on the resolutions, cut down from the usual 20 to 12, will follow at a business session Wednesday.

Another innovation is a forum being conducted Friday by Mrs. Duncan on DAR history, policy and current goals.

Families Visit

O'Brien – Mr. and Mrs. William Woodbury and family hosted the Joseph Stowes and children of Crescent City, Calif. and the Kenneth Armstrongs and family of Santa Cruz, Calif., recently.
