

Kansas City Athletics Have Good Laugh; Living It Up With 4-Tilt Victory String

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It is the Kansas City Athletics' turn to enjoy a good laugh at the expense of critics who said they looked like a girls' softball team.

How long or how loud the Athletics will continue to laugh is open to question but for the moment they're living it up with a four-game winning streak and a one-third share of first place in the American League.

The Athletics—whose colorful new uniforms made them the game's No. 1 joke during spring training—climbed into a three-way tie with the New York Yankees and Detroit Tigers Tuesday with a 7-4 victory over the Chicago White Sox. Key men in the triumph were outfielder Gino Cimoli and pitcher John Wyatt, who Eddie Lopat says are "among the most underrated players in the league."

The Cleveland Indians beat the Washington Senators, 3-0, the Tigers topped the Yankees, 7-2, the Minnesota Twins won a four-hour and 41-minute struggle with the Los Angeles Angels, 11-10, and the Boston Red Sox defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 6-1, in other American League games.

Cimoli batted in three runs with a single, triple and sacrifice fly to spark the Athletics' 10-hit attack.

Wyatt took over from winner Ted Bowsfield in the ninth and stopped the White Sox cold, earning his second "save" of the season. Cimoli has now connected for eight hits in his last 14 trips to the plate.

Pitches Two-Hitter
Sam McDowell pitched a two-hitter and struck out 13 batters for the Indians, who tagged Claude Osteen for his first loss. Woodie Held and Johnny Romano homered for the Indians. It was McDowell's first complete game in a 1959 game.

Hank Aguirre enabled the Tigers to beat Whitey Ford for the first time in four years with a 10-hit pitching performance and a 40-foot single that resulted in three Tiger runs. Aguirre's hit—a roller down the third base line—came during the Tigers' five-run fourth inning.

Clete Boyer fielded the ball cleanly but threw it wildly past first base and all three Detroit runners who were on base scored. The win was Aguirre's second in a row and the loss Ford's second straight.

Walks In Winning Run
Elli Grba, 17th pitcher to see action, walked George Banks with the bases filled in the 13th inning to give the Twins their marathon win over the Angels. The 17 pitchers set a major league record and the nine used by the Angels tied a mark. Bob Allison had four hits and Bernie Allen three for the Twins and Billy Moran had three for the Angels.

Bill Monbouquette pitched a five-hitter and Dick Stuart homered for the Red Sox, who tagged Robin Roberts for five runs and six hits in seven innings. Stuart, who started the game hitting .105, also had a single and drove in a total of four runs.

Portand Tries To Oust Seals
United Press International
Portland tries to polish off San Francisco tonight in a Western Hockey league Southern division playoff at San Francisco's Cow Palace.

The Northern division also resumes action with Seattle at Vancouver. This series is now tied at two wins apiece.

The two division finals are best-of-seven affairs with the winners clashing next week in a best-of-seven battle for the Lester Patrick trophy and the league championship.

Portland skated to its second straight win over the Seals in an overtime thriller Sunday at the Cow Palace.

Cuba Will Take Part In Games

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Sao Paulo, Brazil—UPI—Cuba will take part in the Pan American games, but its activities will be restricted to the playing field only.

The arrival of 57 athletes Tuesday confirmed Cuba's intention to participate in the games which get under way Saturday. Earlier, Cuban officials had accused the United States of using illegal measures to bar the Castro athletes from the competition.

On arriving here, the spokesman for the delegation pledged that all athletes and the 15 coaches would conduct themselves "in accordance with Olympic principles and regulations."

Friendly Assurance
This was interpreted as a friendly assurance that Cuba will concentrate its efforts on winning gold medals and not on winning converts.

Another problem regarding the Cuban athletes was that of alleged professionalism and authorization for them to compete in the games was placed on a conditional basis pending an investigation.

Meanwhile, advance delegations from the 21 other countries began arriving Tuesday and by the time the opening ceremonies are conducted some 3,000 athletes will be in attendance.

Included among Tuesday's arrivals, in addition to the Cubans, were the first group of U.S. athletes and the Canadian and Venezuelan contingents.

GAME RAINED OUT
Eugene—UPI—A scheduled baseball game between Oregon and Portland State was postponed Tuesday because of rain.

When England first produced lick-and-stick stamps in 1840, critics claimed they would cause tongue lesions and spread cholera.

Alabama's AG Has Orders To Continue Probe

By DON MARTIN
Montgomery, Ala.—UPI—Alabama Atty. Gen. Richard Flowers still is under orders to continue his investigation into allegations the Alabama—Georgia football game in Birmingham last September was rigged.

The joint legislative committee, making a preliminary final report, said Tuesday it instructed Flowers to continue his probe of the accusations contained in an article in the March 23rd edition of the Saturday Evening Post.

The attorney general said he planned to present the committee all of the evidence he compiled on a three-day trip to Atlanta last week.

In its short statement, the committee claimed "Georgia politics" was a "major factor" in the Southeastern controversy.

The aging committee chairman, Rep. Alton Turner, issued a terse preliminary report. The statement said the committee's probe failed to uncover any evidence last September's football clash between the two rivals in Birmingham was fixed.

The committee also said there was no evidence that Alabama football Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant was guilty of unethical conduct.

Allegations the Alabama-Georgia clash was rigged were contained in an article of the March 23rd edition of the Saturday Evening Post.

Celts Hold Two-Tussle Lead In NBA

By DICK DEW
Boston—UPI—The Boston Celtics and Los Angeles Lakers flew to the West Coast on the same plane today and if both teams are intact on landing, their playoff series will reach third game stage tonight.

The Lakers promised a rousing Los Angeles reception for the four-time playoff champion Celtics and announced they expected to take two victories in Los Angeles to even the best-of-seven final playoffs.

"That way," said Laker Coach Fred Schaus, "when we come back here Sunday, we'll begin a three game series for the championship. We should have 15,000 nice friendly souls waiting in Los Angeles to watch us come back. Our guys still have to be shown." Celtics' Ideas Differ

The aging Celtics, with slightly different ideas, had no intention of blowing their two-game lead in the National Basketball association finals.

Boston scored a 113-106 victory on its home court Tuesday night for the big two-game advantage.

Bill Russell was rebounding like an octopus (38, two short of his own playoff record), while Sam Jones (27 points), Tom Heinsohn (28 points), Bob Cousy (16 points, 11 assists), Russell (18 points) and Frank Ramsey (13 points) accounted for most of the scoring.

Boston cornerman Tom Sanders managed, with help, to "hold" Elgin Baylor to 30 points, but Jerry West rolled up 28 and Dick Barnett had 20 to round out the losing leaders.
