Dr. S. E. Philips, Former Medford Veterinarian, Dies

Dr. Stanley E. Philips, 52, former Medford resident, died Thursday in Portland.

Dr. Philips had practiced as a veterinarian in Medford for many years. He moved here as a veterinarian for the Southern Oregon Humane Society about 30 years ago and practiced at the Humane Shelter on Table Rock rd. until establishing the Rogue Animal hospital on North Riverside ave., now operated by his son, Dr. Douglas P. Philips.

Born in Mt. Vernon, Wash., Feb. 28, 1911, he was educated in the Washington schools and graduated from Washington State college in 1934. He was a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

In Medford, Dr. Philips was active in many civic endeavors. He was past exalted ruler of the Medford Elks lodge, a past president of Rotary and a past president of the Oregon Veterinarian Medical association. He was a senior warden of St. Mark's Episcopal church and participated in the Boy Scout program and the United Medford Crusade.

Surviving are his father, Dr. C. S. Philips, also a veterinarian, of Mt. Vernon, Wash.; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Lordan, Seattle; and three sons, Dr. Philips of Medford; Craig Philips, in Chicago, and C. Scott Philips of Drain, Ore., and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in Portland. Dr. Philips left today for Portland to complete the arrangements.

Ashlander Appears In District Court - George Brainard Sabin, 48, of 115 Neil Creek rd., Ashland, was arraigned in Jackson county district court Thursday afternoon on a charge of rape.

He waived preliminary hearing and the right to an attorney and was bound over to the grand jury. Bail is set at $3,000.

Sabin and a 17-year-old Ashland boy were arrested by county sheriff's deputies Wednesday night, Sabin on the rape charge and the boy for contributing to the delinquency of a minor. The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities.

OSCAR LEWIS - Funeral services for Oscar Charles (Duke) Lewis, 80, of Jacksonville, who died Thursday, will be held at 11:30 a.m. Saturday in Conger-Morris downtown chapel. The Rev. George Roseberry of the First Methodist church will officiate. Committal will be private.

Mr. Lewis was born April 14, 1883, in Aumsville, Ore., and had lived in the state all his life, moving to this area with his parents from the Willamette valley.

His father operated a livery stable at Jacksonville, and drove the stage coach line to Copper and other points. He operated a grocery store in Jacksonville from 1920 to 1936, and was employed for a time in the county shops.

With Mrs. Myrtle P. Lee, he helped in setting up the initial displays in the Jacksonville Museum.

He was married Feb. 12, 1912, in Jacksonville, to Daisy Morgan, who preceded him in death two years ago.

Survivors include a son, Ray Lewis, Medford, and four nephews.
