Birthday Celebrated

W. R. Bullock was honored by a small group of friends who called on him Sunday, April 14, when he celebrated his 98th birthday anniversary.

Mr. Bullock makes his home here with his youngest daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Karl J. Knutson, 615 North Columbus avenue.

He was born in Blanchard, Iowa, April 14, 1865, the day President Lincoln was assassinated and has lived in Medford since 1900.

A son, the Rev. Ralph D. Bullock, is a missionary in Hong Kong. Three other daughters are Mrs. Ruth Forgy, Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Rose D. Frost, Santa Barbara, Calif., and Mrs. Loveda De Pont, Solana Beach, Calif.

A granddaughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cearley, reside on Biddle road. He has seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Mr. Bullock has raised daffodils and narcissi, which he has sold to Medford residents for many years. He was a member of the ground observer corps and was honored in 1957 as the oldest sky watcher in the Medford sector. He was custodian in the Medford schools from 1910 to 1937.

W. R. Bullock, who celebrated his 98th birthday anniversary Sunday, April 14, still enjoys the spring flowers. After retiring, Mr. Bullock grew and sold daffodils and narcissi to residents of his neighborhood. Mr. Bullock makes his home with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Karl J. Knutson, 615 North Columbus avenue.

Show Set For Coming Week End

Eagle Point—"America the Beautiful" is the theme for the Eagle Point Garden club's annual standard flower show which has been announced for April 27 and 28 in the Eagle Point grade school gymnasium.

Added features of the flower show this year will include a style show with fashions from the Town and Country Dress shop in White City, Saturday at 3 p.m. A silver tea and plant sale will be open for the convenience of guests both Saturday and Sunday afternoons from 1 to 5 p.m.

Of special interest in the non-competitive division of commercial displays will be the exhibit of Mrs. Lewis Allen of White City specializing in African violets, and Mrs. John Dickinson of Shady Cove specializing in roses.

Also in this division will be conservation and education and herb displays. Exhibits of the winning essays submitted in the recent garden club sponsored contest will be on display throughout the flower show.

Public Invited

The general public, as well as garden clubs and garden club members, are invited to attend and exhibit. The Eagle Point Garden club is working toward an award and is making a special invitation to everyone in the area who has not received a blue award in a flower show to enter in the novice division this year. According to a spokesman for the club, all horticulture exhibits in bottles must be grown by the exhibitor but arrangements may be obtained in some other fashion. Arrangements will be classified for the novice, amateur, advanced amateur and garden clubs.

The junior division will include horticulture, arrangements, featuring "Cowboys and Indians," "Nature's Treasures," and "Going Into Orbit" themes.

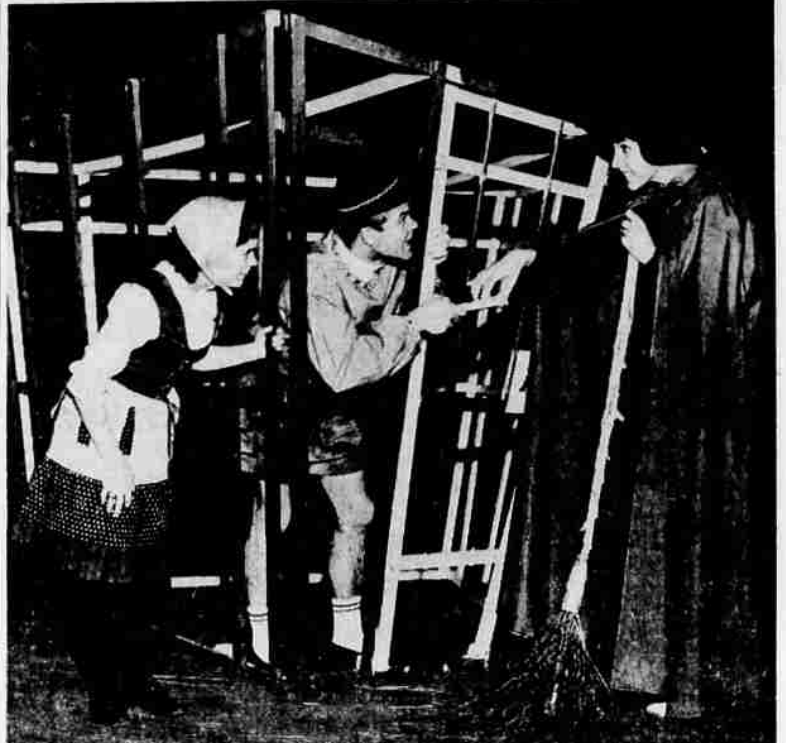

In keeping with the theme the club has selected such arrangements for the classes as "American Way of Life" and "Crossing the Plains" for the novice; "Everything Grows Bigger in Texas," "Early American," and "Yankee Doodle" for the amateur; "Freedom of Religion," "By an Ozark Stream," "Southern Belles," "Beauty Is Where You Find It," and "Interpretation of a Song" for the advanced amateur and "From Sea to Shining Sea" for the garden clubs.

Entry Hours

Entries will be received on Saturday, April 27 from 7:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. when they must be in place.

Mrs. A. T. Wattenberg of Eagle Point is the flower show chairman and may be reached at telephone 446-3777 for further information.

Mrs. Ted Flury is in charge of staging; Mrs. Charles Cushman and Mrs. Dale Bigham in charge of scheduling; Mrs.

SOC Players have chosen the classic "Hansel and Gretel" for the annual children's play. Shown preparing for the production are Gretel (left) played by Jane Olson, Sun Valley, Calif.; Hansel, (imprisoned in cage) enacted by Milton Scheppe, Roseburg, Ore., and the witch, portrayed by Carole Sandburg, Coos Bay, Ore. The first performance of the play will be sponsored by the Medford branch, American Association of University Women, Tuesday, April 23, at the Holly theater at 2:30 and 4:15 p.m. Two evening performances are scheduled for April 26 at 8:15 p.m. and April 27 at the same time in Churchill hall on the SOC campus and Ashland AAUW members will sponsor matinee showing April 27 at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. also in Churchill hall.

Angel Street Players Announced by Troupe

"Angel Street," the play by Patrick Hamilton also known as "Gaslight," is the next production of the Thespian troupe of Medford High school, and will be presented April 25, 27 and 29 in the arena theater, Room 61 in the high school annex.

Season ticket holders should make reservations and single tickets will be available at the door or in advance from those associated with the production.

The play unfolds the demonic story of the Mannings who live on Angel street. Under the guise of kindness, a handsome Mr. Manning is torturing his wife into insanity. He accuses her of petty aberrations that he has arranged himself and since her mother died of insanity, she is more than half convinced that she, too, is going out of her mind.

While her diabolical husband is out of the house, a benign police inspector visits her and ultimately proves to her that her husband is a maniacal criminal suspected of murder committed 15 years before in the same house, and that he is preparing to dispose of her.

Then starts the game of trying to uncover the necessary evidence against Mr. Manning. It is a thrilling and exciting melodramatic game.

The lead parts of Mr. and Mrs. Manningham are played by Paul Jenny and Miss Jackie King.

Elizabeth, the housekeeper, is played by Miss Tracy Blackstone, and Nancy, the maid, will be portrayed by Miss Rhonda Farfan.

Mr. Rough, the police inspector, will be done by Greg Keith, and policemen will be Dave Ragnetti and Mike DeSalvio.

Mrs. Lenore Zapell, drama instructor, is directing the play.
