Hank Aguirre Even Better This Year; Scores Third Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Hank Aguirre has a one-track mind.

"I have to prove to myself," says the Detroit Tiger southpaw, "That I'm not a one-year flash."

Maybe the 31-year-old change-up specialist from Azusa, Calif., hasn't convinced himself of that yet, but he's starting to make a dent on the rest of the American league.

Aguirre enjoyed his greatest year in baseball last season when he turned in a 16-8 record for the Tigers and a 2.21 earned run average that stamped him the most effective pitcher in the circuit.

So far he has been even better this year.

His 5-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox Sunday was his third route-going triumph without a loss and his earned run average stands at a remarkable 1.40.

Aguirre, who struck out seven and gave up eight hits, held the Red Sox scoreless until the seventh when Bob Tillman nicked him for a two-run homer. The Tigers had clinched the victory before then, however, on Norm Cash's three-run homer off Bill Monbouquette in the fourth. The win snapped Detroit's three-game losing streak.

The Cleveland Indians ended Baltimore's four-game winning streak with a 2-0 nightcap victory after the Orioles won the opener, 7-0. The New York Yankees shaded the Washington Senators, 7-6; the Los Angeles Angels downed the Kansas City A's, 6-2, and the Chicago White Sox beat the Minnesota Twins, 8-0, after losing the opener, 7-0.

Steve Barber struck out 11 batters and held the Indians to four hits as he posted his third victory for the Orioles, who were stopped on four hits themselves by Dick Donovan in the nightcap. Jackie Brandt homered for Baltimore in the opener and Woodie Held for Cleveland in the nightcap.

Tresh Stars For Yanks

Tom Tresh drove in three runs with a homer and two singles and Bobby Richardson also contributed three hits in the Yankees' triumph over the Senators as Jim Bouton picked up the victory in relief of Ralph Terry.

Home runs by Felix Torres and Leon Wagner paced the Angels to victory over ex-teammate Ted Bowsfield of the A's. Don Lee gained his second win of the year with Jack Spring's help in the ninth.

Rookie left-hander Jim Roland, aided by a five-run rally in the fifth inning, won his second game for the Twins with a three-hitter over the White Sox in the first game of a doubleheader. Bob Allison and John Goryl homered for Minnesota.

But Johnny Buzhardt kept the Twins under thumb with a four-hitter in the hightcap. Pete Ward drove in four runs for the White Sox and Jim Landis hit an inside-the-park homer. Jack Kralick suffered his third loss in a row without a victory.

SLUMP OVER?

Los Angeles-(UPI)-The big batting slump appears over for the Los Angeles Dodgers who broke out with a deluge of 23 base hits while sweeping their first doubleheader of the season against the Houston Colts Sunday. Hometown favorite Ron Fairly led the outburst with five hits in nine times at bat. In the the second game he hit a two-run homer in the fourth inning and drove in the winning run with a single in the ninth.

Bob Charles Golf Victor

Houston -(UPI)- Bob Charles, a lanky New Zelander, today had 10,000 reasons and they're all dollars why golf is not strictly a righthander's game.

Charles, the first southpaw ever to win a Professional Golf association tournament, took the $10,000 first prize Sunday in the Houston Classic.

The splintery 27-year-old took the lead in the second round and held off a strong finish by Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., to win by one stroke.

Charles' 12-under-par score of 67-66-66-69-268 broke the Classic's 72-hole record of 273 set by Cary Middlecoff in 1955. Hawkins and amateur Homero Blancas of Houston also broke the record with their scores of 269 and 270, respectively.

BASEBALLERS WIN

Sao Paulo, Brazil - (UPI) - The United States baseball team ,stil ismarting from its surprise 13-1 rout by Cuba, bounced back today to beat Mexico in the Pan-American games 6-3 behind the seven-hit pitching of Bobby Jenkins. The victory in baseball, however, was preceded by another U.S. defeat earlier in the day when Frank Froehling, San Antonio, Tex., was upset in tennis by unseeded Juan Arrendondo of Mexico, 6-3, 8-6.

Crater JV Winner in Track Tiff

Central Point—Jay Luski, Fred Marshall, and Larry Glawe were double winners for Crater Saturday when the Comet jayvees downed Roseburg in a track meet at Roseburg by 78 to 34.

Games, Meets Billed Tuesday

What looms as a busy week in sports for schools of the area has a fairly heavy schedule on Tuesday.

In baseball Prospect high is to play Crater junior varsity at Central Point, Rogue River is to vie at Eagle Point and Roseburg to come to Grants Pass.

Track meets include Grants Pass high at Marshfield, Illinois Valley at Phoenix, Phoenix freshmen at Crater and Hedrick ninth grade at Eagle Point.

Roseburg comes to Medford high for a girls' tennis match.

It was possible that the Medford-Ashland high boys' net match, rained out Friday, would be made up today. The Medford - Klamath Falls match, postponed Saturday, could be made up Wednesday.

San Francisco-(UPI) - Extra batting practice was in store tonight for Jim Davenport, Chuck Hiller and Tom Haller —three big names with the San Francisco Giants who are hitting a collective .152. "We'll have them bat at 5 p.m." said manager Alvin Dark Sunday after his club nudged its National League lead back to a full game.

LA Lakers Tip Celts

Boston -(UPI)- They're pretty big to act like flies, but the Los Angeles Lakers are certainly in the Boston Celtics' ointment.

The Lakers, all but counted out after losing three of four games to Boston in the National Basketball association's playoff finals, launched an optimistic comeback Sunday night in a 126-119 victory over the Celtics.

The Lakers did it on Boston's home court, and they did it when the aging Celtics were within one game of clinching their fifth successive pro basketball championship. The series resumes Wednesday night at Los Angeles and, if necessary, concludes here next Saturday night.

The game was a see-saw affair, Boston building an early seven point lead but the Lakers fighting back in hot fourth quarter scoring spurts to put it safely away - their second victory in five final playoff starts.

OSU Will Split Track Forces

Corvallis - (UPI) - Oregon State will split its track forces next week end following rain-swept dual meet victories over Washington State and Idaho here Saturday.

The Beavers are scheduled to send delegations to the Penn, Drake and Mt. San Antonio relays.

Trenton, N.J.-(UPI) - A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., set a track record of 58 minutes, 34.48 seconds to capture the country's first 100-mile championship auto race this year at the Trenton Speedway Sunday. Foyt, who also won this title last year, averaged 102.491 miles per hour in his Sheraton Thompson special.
