Giles Says Balk Rule Will Continue To Be Enforced

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

New York—UPI—National League President Warren Giles said today the controversial balk rule "will continue to be enforced" despite two new angry broadsides from St. Louis Manager Johnny Keane and Houston General Manager Paul Richards.

Dismayed over the unprecedented number of balks already called so far this season, Keane said, "If the umpires keep calling the balk rule the way they have been, it will decide the National League pennant race."

Richards was even more upset, especially since his Houston pitchers, who had only five balks called against them all last year, already have been charged with 10 balks so far this season.

In a blistering wire to Giles, he said the balk call had "returned to some sensible basis before baseball and the National League become a complete joke."

"How long is this comic opera going to continue?" Richards inquired in the telegram. "The balk calls of National League umpires are ridiculous for the fans and are ruining the game for everyone concerned."

From his office in Cincinnati, Giles disagreed with Keane's contention that the balk rule ultimately will decide the NL pennant winner.

"It won't decide the pennant any more than any other rule," he said.

"The rule is being enforced just as it is written in the book," Giles added. "I think the umpires should enforce the rules. No balks are being called that are not balks. And I don't anticipate anything being done about it unless the rules committee changes the rule."

Richards claims the Houston pitchers are so confused they're thinking of the balk rule all the time instead of thinking about pitching.

Seven Teams Will Compete In Legion Junior Baseball

There will be seven teams—the most ever—in this season in the Southern division of Area 4 for American Legion junior baseball.

Central Point, Medford, Grants Pass and Ashland each will have a team. Klamath Falls will field two clubs again and the Tri-City Gems will be the seventh aggregation. The Gems will have players from Merrill, Malin and Tulelake.

Plans for the season were formulated on Sunday at a meeting at the Cheney Forest Products office at Central Point. The Cheney firm again will sponsor the Studs at Central Point.

A total of 42 games will be played among the seven teams. The opener will be on Sunday, May 26, when the Studs oppose the Falcons at Klamath Falls.

Games at Fairgrounds

It was reported that, "if they get things in shape in time," Medford will play all its home games at the fairgrounds ball park at the south edge of Medford. Central Point's Studs plan to play a few tilts there but mostly will have its home games at Memorial field, White City. Tri-City will use the field at Merrill as home.

The Southern division will be one of three sections of Area 4.

All teams were represented at the Sunday session. They were Loren Binney and Bob Williams, Klamath Falls Falcons; John Paxton, Klamath Falls Hawks; John Wilson, Tri-City; Bill Leybold, Ashland; Ron Maurer, Grants Pass; Cliff McLean and Fred Beck, Medford; and Bill Askwith and Donald E. Faber, Central Point.

Bucks, Seals Come Down To The Wire At Portland Tonight

By United Press International

Seattle, winner of the Western Hockey League's Northern Division, finds out its opponent in the finals tonight when San Francisco meets Portland.

The Totems Monday night iced the Northern Division crown by putting on one of their most blistering displays of the season in the rubber game of the best-of-seven series against Vancouver.

Seattle pushed five goals through the net in the final stanza to pile up an 8-2 decision.

The great Seattle veteran, Guyle Fielder, who missed the sixth game because of illness, came back to hit a goal and two assists. Defenseman Gord Sinclair also sizzled with a pair of goals and an assist.

Other Seattle snipers were Bill MacFarland, Jim Powers, Gerry Leonard, Bob Barlow and Bob Sobourin. Vancouver's tallies were registered by Bob McCusker and Dave Duke.

Vancouver had finished two points ahead of Seattle in the regular season play, but the Totems were the complete masters Monday night.

Portland edged the Seals by three points in the regular Southern Division struggle, but the two teams enter tonight's final playoff contest at Portland tied at three wins apiece.

The Southern Division winner will have one big advantage over Seattle in the final

Braves Recover From Mets Series, Knock Out Drysdale

By TIM MORIARTY
UPI Sports Writer

How can a team look so bad against the New York Mets and so good against the National league's best pitcher?

That's what Milwaukee Manager Bobby Bragan was asking himself today after his Braves bounced back from a "lost week end" in New York by blasting their way to a 10-2 victory over Don Drysdale and the Los Angeles Dodgers Monday night.

"I guess our guys were just glad to leave that chamber of horrors in the Polo Grounds, said Bragan in explaining the manner his Braves recovered from four straight losses to the Mets.

Drysdale lasted only five innings as the suddenly aroused Milwaukee sluggers ripped the big right-hander for six runs and eight of their hits at Los Angeles. Eddie Mathews clouted a three-run homer and Hank Aaron and Denis Menke chipped in with solo blasts to back up lefty Bob Hendley's six-hit pitching.

Drop Out of First

The Cincinnati Reds knocked San Francisco out of first place by scoring a comeback 7-4 victory over the Giants on two-run homers by Jerry Lynch and Frank Robinson in the eighth inning.

Jack Sanford was cruising along with a 3-1 lead when the Reds struck and handed first defeat after three straight victories. Marty Keough also homered for Cincinnati while Orlando Cepeda and Tom Haller hit solo blasts for the Giants.

The Philadelphia Phillies ended the Mets' four-game winning streak, 6-6; the St. Louis Cardinals downed the Houston Colts, 5-2, and the Pittsburgh Pirates took over first place by blanking the Chicago Cubs, 2-0, in other NL games Monday night.

In the American League, Tom Cheney pitched a four-hit, 4-1 victory over the Los Angeles Angels and Wayne Causey batted the Kansas City Athletics to a 6-3 triumph over the Detroit Tigers. Rain washed out the Cleveland Indians - Chicago White Sox game. All other AL teams were idle.

from Cincy catcher John Edwards was too slow. Alou also stole third base in the same inning. The Giants lost, however, 7 to 4. (UPI)
