

Funeral Service Wednesday for Milton Steinmetz

Gold Hill - Milton Steinmetz, 70, mayor of Gold Hill, who died Saturday, has been active in civic and community affairs for a number of years.

When he arrived in Gold Hill from Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada, in 1913, he helped build the cement plant here. A graduate of Lehigh college, Bethlehem, Pa., and the Empire Automobile institute, Buffalo, N.Y., he was a civil engineer.

He served overseas in World War I, receiving a master engineer senior grade appointment in the U.S. Army. He married Loleta Hougham in Lawton, Okla., on Dec. 25, 1917. In Oklahoma, Alabama, and Georgia, he was active in the construction of cement plants and was superintendent of a strip coal mine in Oklahoma.

The dam projects on which he worked were the Spavinsdam dam in Oklahoma and the Exchequer dam at Fresno. He moved to California in 1931 and from 1933 to 1939 he operated a gold mine east of Baker, Ore. They moved to Gold Hill in 1939.

He was appointed to serve a short term on the Gold Hill city council in 1951 and was appointed mayor Dec. 5, 1955. He has served that post continuously since that date.

Prior to his retirement he was active in the construction of airports on the coast of Oregon, Washington, and Alaska.

He was born Feb. 4, 1893 in Bangor, Pa.

While serving as mayor he donated his time for engineering projects within the city and brought maps up to date on streets, sewer and water lines. He also assisted in compiling material for a Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce brochure.

He was a member of Hiawatha lodge, F&AM, Hudson, Ind., for more than 40 years; Gold Hill Chamber of Commerce, the Eastern Oregon Mineral and Mining association, Grants Pass Barracks, Veterans of World War I, and Gold Hill chapter, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors besides his wife include three sons, Donald Steinmetz, Medford; David Steinmetz, Beaverton, and Harry Leigh Steinmetz, at home; one sister, Mrs. Edith Hinton, Bangor, Pa.; five brothers, Russell Steinmetz, Santa Ana, Calif., and Raymond Steinmetz, Alvin Steinmetz, Clarence Steinmetz, and Luther Steinmetz, all of Bangor, Pa.; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held Wednesday, April 24, at 1 p.m. at the Conger - Morris downtown chapel, Medford. The Rev. D. E. Millard of the New Age church, Eagle Point, will officiate. Interment will be in Hillcrest Memorial park.

Honorary pallbearers will include William Ferguson, Wilbur Martin, Clyde Walker, Don Morrow, Bud Force, and Len Martin. Active bearers will include Ferd Jones, Hilton Brignall, Floyd Lance, Alva Walker, Charles Hutchison, and Lloyd Miller.

The body will lie in state at Conger-Morris funeral home until the time of the service.

CHOSEN MISS TEEN—Pretty Judy Adams, 16, of Parma, Ohio, gets a kiss on the cheek from actor Jeremy Slate after being chosen Miss Teen U.S.A. at America's Teen-Age Fair in Burbank, Calif. She won out over five other finalists as the girl who typifies the best in American youth. She received a new car, a part in a motion picture, a $1,000 wardrobe and a two-weeks expense-paid vacation in Canada. (UPI)

Honors Banquet Tickets Available

Ticket sales for the third annual Medford Scholastic Recognition banquet are now under way, according to Bill Tope, ticket chairman of the event.

The banquet is scheduled to be held at the Rogue Valley Country club Tuesday, April 30, at 6:30 p.m. Featured speaker of the evening will be Len Casanova, head football coach at the University of Oregon.

Klamath Falls Police

Seek Man Who Escaped

Medford city police have been notified by Klamath Falls police that a parole violator who had been in custody there has escaped.

The escapee, Roger Dean Ballard, 20, got away from Klamath Falls authorities about 11:30 p.m. Friday. He is believed headed for California.

Medford police recalled that Ballard, who had been sought locally about two years ago, escaped from a Medford officer, and later was in a high speed chase, making his getaway. He was apprehended a few days later in Albany, officers recalled.
