Academy Exam Noted by Senator

The competitive United States Civil Service designation examination used in connection with securing a nomination to the U. S. Air Force, Merchant Marine, Military, and Naval academies will be held Monday, July 8, in 29 Oregon cities, according to Sen. Maurice B. Neuberger.

Medford, Ashland and Grants Pass are among the cities where the examinations will be given.

The purpose of the examination is to provide an objective testing method to aid senators and representatives in the selection of nominees to the four academies.

Qualified young men who are seeking a nomination should write a member of the Oregon congressional delegation for authorization to take this test.
