

Worship Services To Be On Daylight Time

With Oregonians turning their clocks ahead one hour Sunday, April 28, at 2 a.m., ministers throughout the area reminded worshippers that services will be held by daylight time.

May Procession, Coronation Events Set by Catholics

The annual May procession and coronation ceremonies, honoring the Virgin Mary, Mother of Christ, will take place in Sacred Heart church Wednesday, May 1, at 7:30 p.m.

Participating in the festive event this year will be students of St. Mary's High school and seventh and eighth grade students of the parochial grade school. Included in the ceremonies will be a procession through the church, recitation of a living rosary, coronation of the Blessed Virgin and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The perpetual help devotions which are usually scheduled at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays will be held after benediction next week.

Earlier the same day, at 6:30, 7 and 8 a.m. masses, the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker will be observed.

Friday, May 3, the first Friday of the month, the usual Sacred Heart devotions will be held with masses scheduled at 6:30, 8:10, 10:40 and 11:20 a.m. and at 6 p.m.

The monthly Fatima devotions will follow the 8 a.m. mass on Saturday, May 4, and a mass will be said at 11 a.m. the same day for the children of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine catechism classes.

Confessions during the coming week will be heard on Thursday and Saturday from 4 to 5:30 and 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Loyalty Campaign Continues Sunday

Bethel Assembly of God, 1225 East McAndrews road, will observe the second Sunday of its 1963 Loyalty Campaign Sunday. The campaign emphasis is on Christian stewardship. Sunday will be concerned with the talents of Christians.

During the Sunday school's 9:45 a.m. opening assembly, children will give instrumental and vocal numbers.

The sermon subject for the 11 a.m. worship service will be, "Clothed With Power." The message for the 7:30 p.m. evangelistic service will be entitled, "Man's Greatest Want." The Rev. Lawrence D. Krause, pastor, will speak at both services.

A series of revival services will begin Tuesday, April 30 at 7:30 p.m. with Evangelist Les Martin. Services will be at 7:30 p.m., except Monday and Saturday.

Roundtable Topic Noted for Week End

The question to be discussed on Minister's Roundtable on KMED-TV Saturday at 11:05 a.m. is "Is Healing a Part of the Commission of the Church?" The panel may touch on the matter of faith healing, spiritual versus physical healing, prayer and healing, and the church's role in healing today.

Panel members this week will be the Rev. David V. A. Browne, St. Mark's Episcopal; the Rev. K. L. Mathewson, Foursquare, with the Rev. Gilbert O. Skaar, First Southern Baptist, as moderator. Guest panelist for this discussion will be Dr. John Watson, a local physician.

The program, sponsored by the Medford Ministerial association, will be broadcast Sunday at 8:05 a.m. on KMED radio.

Series of Sermons Listed for Church

Central Point - A series of sermons entitled, "The Pillars of Salvation" is now being presented by the pastor, the Rev. Paul O. Kroon, at the 11 a.m. worship service at the Community church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point. This series will extend over a period of seven Sundays.

"Faith" will be the subject of the sermon for Sunday. The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Ekstedt and sons, Daniel and Stanley, missionaries to Curacao, Netherlands Antilles, will be in charge of the evening service. The Ekstedt family have been in Curacao since 1938. They expect to leave again for another term of service within the next few weeks.

The REV. WILLIAM FISHER Week of Services

Evangelist Plans Series of Services At 1st Nazarene

The Rev. William Fisher of Kansas City, Mo., evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene, will hold services beginning Sunday at the First Church of the Nazarene, 520 North Holly st. These meetings will continue through the following Sunday, May 5, and will be held at 7:30 p.m. daily with services at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. on Sundays.

In 21 years of evangelism, Mr. Fisher has conducted more than 500 revivals. A feature of the instrumental music will be the baritone horn with which he won first place in Oklahoma and second in national competition in Chicago.

The Rev. Harold M. Sanner, pastor of the local church, returned yesterday from Trinidad, British West Indies, where he held services. En route home he spent several days at the denomination's mission station in the Republic of Panama where he was speaker for three meetings.

Perry Christiansen, minister of music and education, has announced that Carolyn Cole, a teen-ager from First Nazarene, has been named winner of the Siskiyou zone oratorical contest. She will present her oration at the Oregon Pacific district contest in Springfield, Ore. this week.

First Baptists Note Coming Activities

The Rev. Bernard E. Andrews, pastor of the First Baptist church, will speak Sunday at 11 a.m. on the subject, "The Works of the Flesh Are Manifest." Music for the service will be provided by the Gospel Aires Men's quartet. Soloist will be the Rev. Byron Evans.

Sunday at 7 p.m. Mr. Andrews will speak on the subject, "What Have We To Give Them?" Miss Virginia Gandt will be soloist and a men's quartet will also sing.

Other activities for Sunday include a fully graded Sunday school at 9:40 a.m. and a family hour at 6 p.m. providing various youth groups for the young people of the church and an adult study class on New Testament survey.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the church meets for its mid-week Bible study and prayer service. All the services of the church are being held at the Wilson school, Grand and Corona aves., while the new church building is under construction.

Happy Camp Church Presents Awards

Happy Camp-Awards were presented at the last service of a series held at Community church, Happy Camp. The services were conducted by the Rev. Roy Sprague, former pastor of the church, who has been in evangelistic work on the Pacific coast for the past three years.

Awards were presented those who brought guests and answered the Bible assignment. First award was received by Kitty Walden, with the awards to Linda Castleberry, Ann Bolksom, Gayle Carnes, and David Driver. Nineteen other awards were also presented.

Mr. Sprague will assume the post of missionary in the Seattle area of the American Sunday School union, May 1.

Concord Spiritualist Address Set Sunday

Gold Hill - The address at Concord Spiritualist chapel, Gold Hill, will be given Sunday at 7:30 p.m. by the pastor, the Rev. Elvina Colburn. Mrs. Pansy Jones, healer, and Sidney Jones will assist with the services.

Mrs. Bianca Corona and Mrs. Colburn will play a piano and solovox duet, and Miss Carol McCall will play the clarinet.

James Carbanier will show silver screen photographs taken in the chapel scene room.

Ashland Methodists List Sermon Subject

Ashland - Dr. P. Malcolm Hammond, minister of First Methodist church, North Main and Laurel sts., will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on "The Beat in the Book of Revelation." A coffee hour will follow the service.

Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. the all-church family potluck dinner will be held. Bill Weber is in charge of the program.

Two Churches Announce Events

Central Point - The sermon topic by Dr. Earl W. Benbow at the Central Point Presbyterian church, will be "The Great Invitation, 'Come Unto Me'" on Sunday at 11 a.m.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Schafroth, will sing an arrangement of Haydn's "The Heavens Are Telling." Mrs. C. A. Meyer is organist.

Nursery care is provided. A coffee hour for fellowship will follow the service.

The youth group, after a discussion meeting at the church at 7 p.m., will go to the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Colley, 318 South Second st., Central Point, for a fireside.

Jacksonville - A program of mystery is planned for the church night fellowship meeting which will be held at the First Presbyterian church Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

The evening's activity will begin with a potluck dinner.

"The Near-Sighted Christian" is the title of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. King K. Jones during the 11 a.m. worship service. Sunday the choir will sing the anthem "Tell Me of Jesus."

Acts 21 will be discussed during the Men's study which meets in the church Sunday at 7 p.m.

Unity Services Noted for Sunday

The Rev. Katharine Bosworth, minister of the Unity church, Holly and Haven sts., will have for the subject of her lesson at the 11:15 a.m. Sunday service, "Sons of Light." The text is taken from John 12:36.

Miss Sandra Myers will be at the organ. Mrs. H. H. Breece will sing "The Lord is My Light" by Frances Allister.

The prayer ministry will meet Wednesday, May 1, at 11 a.m. Those attending are to take their lunch. At 1 p.m. the study class will meet.

The Wednesday night study class will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Unity Center, 995 South Oakdale ave.

This is the second of a series of lessons on "Science of Living." The lesson topic for all study classes for the week will be "Faith, the Key to Demonstrating Your Good."

The Grants Pass and Ashland classes will meet as usual.

Unity church of Medford is an affiliate of the Unity School of Christianity at Lee's Summit, Mo.

Adult Discussion Series to Begin

A new series of Adult Bible discussions will begin Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Trinity Baptist church. The subject of the discussions will be "God's Workshop - The Church," studies in I Corinthians. Pastor Bruce O. Rogers will lead. Youth groups will meet at the same hour.

"Watch Your Step" or Guides Along the Path of Faith" will be the title of Pastor Rogers' message at the 11 a.m. worship service. The Scripture portion will be Colossians 2. Mrs. Herbert Hunter will sing during this service.

Trinity Baptist church is located at Griffin Creek and South Stage rds. A nursery is provided during the Sunday school and morning worship hours.

Entrance Exams Are Announced

The archdiocesan entrance examinations for eighth graders planning to enroll in a parochial high school next fall will be given Saturday, May 4, it has been announced.

For students in the Medford area the tests will take place in St. Mary's Grade school, 11th and Ivy sts., from 9 a.m. until noon. Parochial grade school pupils as well as those attending public schools are to take the examinations before parochial high school enrollment can be arranged.

A make-up test will be given on May 12 for those finding it impossible to be present on May 4.

Dr. A. S. Flemming To Speak Sunday at First Methodist

Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, Eugene, tenth president of the University of Oregon, will be the guest speaker at both services of First Methodist church. The title of his sermon is "Taking Up Our Crosses."

This will be the second Sunday in the three week stewardship program of the church "Loyal Laymen in Action." John Ifft, chairman of the commission on membership and evangelism, and Mrs. Verne Wilson will be lay prayer leaders.

Dr. and Mrs. Flemming will arrive in Medford on Saturday and will be guests at the Rogue Valley Manor during their stay in the valley. Dr. Flemming served as secretary of the department of health, education and welfare for three years prior to accepting the appointment as president of the University of Oregon. He has also served as president of Ohio Wesleyan University, as director of the office of defense mobilization and as a member of the National Security Council.

He was president of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America from 1950-54 and is a contributing editor to Good Housekeeping magazine.

Maynard Hadley, soloist, will sing the Finnish folk song "How Great Thou Art" at both services. At the 9:30 a. m. service, the youth choir will sing the Finnish folk song "How Great Thou Art" at both services. At the 9:30 a. m. service, the youth choir will sing "Praise Ye the Father" by Gounod. The chancel choir will sing "Great and Marvelous Are Thy Works" by Gaul at the 11 a.m. service.

DR. A. S. FLEMMING University President

The final Sunday of the stewardship program will be

1957 Award of Merit Winner CHURCH NEWS National Religious Publicity Council

Adventist Pastor To Give Farewell Sermon Saturday

C. C. Weis, who came to Medford from Central Oregon last fall to accept the pastorate of the Medford and Shady Point Seventh-day Adventist churches, will deliver his farewell address to Medford church members Saturday at 11 a.m.

Pastor Weis will leave Medford next week to assume the position of home missionary and Sabbath school department leader for the Columbia Union conference, composed of seven eastern states, including the District of Columbia.

Mrs. Weis, who is at present teaching grades seven and eight at Rogue River Academy, will remain in Medford until the close of school.

The Weis have one daughter, Linda, who is attending Laurelwood academy, Gaston, Ore.

Served in Canada Pastor Weis obtained his education at Canadian Union college, and has held the position of president of the Newfoundland mission, and that of home missionary and Sabbath school secretary of the Canadian Union mission.

Before coming to Central Oregon, the Miss spent eight years in the Australian division.

Elder Duane Corwin, who has been conducting Bible lectures in the area for the past year, and Sydney Nelson, who has been directing the musical portion of the lectures, will act as pastors of the two churches until the appointment of a successor to Elder Weis.

At 4 p.m. Saturday, the Rogue River academy choir will present a sacred concert in the Medford church.

The 40-voice group under the direction of Marvin Wilson will sing a variety of selections opening with "Prayer Perfect" and including "Adoramus to Christe" by Palestrina, Mozart's "Praise Ye the Lord," the Swiss folk song, "Children of the Heavenly Father," and several Negro spirituals. The program will close with the "Sevenfold Amen" by Lutkin.

Heritage To Be Discussed At Local Congregational

"Higher Education—A Heritage in Jeopardy" will be the title of the sermon preached by the Rev. Robert W. Tull on Sunday at the 11 a.m. service of the Congregational church. The service will be held in the auditorium of Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou blvd., just east of South Modoc rd.

As a part of this service, the choir will sing "Be Thou Not Still, O Lord" by Morgan. A Women's Gift offering will be received and dedicated to needy projects in the world mission of the church.

During the worship hour, the church school will meet in various parts of Hoover school, providing child care in the school health room for infants and children under three years of age, and classes for all other children from three years old through ninth grade.

Immediately following the church service, the members of the Pilgrim Fellowship will leave directly from Hoover school to attend an afternoon area youth meeting at the First Congregational church, Ashland. They will be the guests of the Ashland church for Sunday dinner and an afternoon program led by state officers, and then will return to Medford by late afternoon.

Breakfast Planned Wednesday the Laymen's Fellowship will meet for breakfast at 6:30 a.m. at the Town House cafe. The choir will meet for rehearsal at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Richardson, 749 West 14th st.

Thursday at 8 p.m., the first of four meetings for prospective new members will be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gene Chamberlain, 46 Windsor ave. This meeting is open to all persons who wish to know more about the history, beliefs, plans, program and membership of the Congregational church.

Mariette Lee will represent Greenville college; Loyal Smith, Prairie Bible institute, and Caroline Harger and the Rev. Roland Stewart, Seattle Pacific college.

In the morning worship service a women's trio with Carolyn Harger, Merrie Marsh and June Shroyer will sing before the message by the pastor on the subject "God Is Faithful."

During the family hour at 6 p.m. the youth group under the direction of Caroline Harger will discuss the merits of the Christian college. The pastor will begin the membership class for the Junior High group.

The monthly inspiration will follow the family hour at 7 p.m. under the direction of June Shroyer.

Zion Lutheran Sermon Title Told

The Zion Lutheran church will meet for its regular worship at 11 a.m. Sunday. "The High Cost of Freedom" will be the title of the sermon to be preached by the Rev. H. C. Covert. The choir will sing the anthem "Sing Unto the Lord."

The amplification of the organ chimes has been completed and they will be heard from the church tower Sunday before the 11 a.m. worship service and immediately after.

The Intermediate Luther League will meet at the church, Sunday at 6:30 p.m. Following the devotional period they will go on a treasure hunt. They will return to the church for refreshments.

The Men of the church will meet on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the church to make final plans for the Mother-Daughter banquet which will be held May 18.

Seniors To Be Honored at Dinner

Monday, April 29, at 7 p.m. Eastwood Baptist church will honor its graduating seniors at a banquet in the social hall.

Toastmaster at the banquet will be Dr. Paul Walker. The banquet's theme: "Your Future With God in the Rocket Age." Guest Speaker will be the Rev. Max Aiken, pastor of the First Baptist church, Yreka. Seniors and their parents will be guests at the dinner.

Sunday at the morning worship service, the sermon by the Rev. Clifford Young, will be: "A Man and Some Hogs," based on Mark 5:1-20. The chancel choir will sing "Incline Thine Ear, O Lord."

At the 7:30 p.m. service, the pastor will speak on: "The Woman," based on Mark 5:21-34.

Tuesday, April 30, Dr. Eugene Gerlitz will continue his course, "Our Contagious Faith," for teachers and interested friends from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

The Junior Baptist Youth Fellowship will entertain a similar group from Yreka, Calif. on May 4. The Victory class has announced a party for April 27.

Sponsored by the Women's Missionary union, the banquet will feature as speaker Mrs. Eloise Winkler, Christian women's leader in the city and a deaconess of the First Presbyterian church. Fires of her recent visit to Hawaii will be shown by Mrs. Fred Phillips and Mrs. Orrin Oger will sing the "Hawaiian Wedding Song."

Mother-Daughter toasts will be given by Mrs. Deane Roberts and her daughter, Joyce, following a junior high girls' quartet composed of the Misses Shirley Roberts, Cheryl Lewis, Susan Willcuts and Andrea Roberts.

Toastmistress for the evening will be Mrs. Wayne E. Roberts, Central Point, who will coordinate the program. A background of Hawaiian decor and music will contribute to the island atmosphere, and each guest will be presented with a lei.

All interested women, and all girls from the first grade up, are invited.

Unitarian Group Schedules Panel

The Unitarian Fellowship will present a panel discussion Sunday written by Unitarian Steve Allen.

Various members of the group will take the parts of Aristotle, Darrow, Dostoevski, Freud, Hegel and Montaigne and discuss the question of punishment for crime. The topic is "Meeting of Minds."

The fellowship meets at the Red Cross building, 60 Hawthorne ave., at 11 a.m.

The annual meeting of the fellowship was held April 21. New officers are Ernst Wender, chairman; Irving Thomas vice chairman; Mrs. Jean Skirvin, secretary; and Carl George, treasurer.

Christian College Day Observance

The Free Methodist Sunday school will observe Christian college Sunday in the adult assembly period, with former students from Christian colleges telling of the values of these institutions and the effect upon their lives.

Mariette Lee will represent Greenville college; Loyal Smith, Prairie Bible institute, and Caroline Harger and the Rev. Roland Stewart, Seattle Pacific college.

In the morning worship service a women's trio with Carolyn Harger, Merrie Marsh and June Shroyer will sing before the message by the pastor on the subject "God Is Faithful."

During the family hour at 6 p.m. the youth group under the direction of Caroline Harger will discuss the merits of the Christian college. The pastor will begin the membership class for the Junior High group.

The monthly inspiration will follow the family hour at 7 p.m. under the direction of June Shroyer.

Medford Presbyterians List Sermons and Music

"The High Cost of Christianity" will be the sermon topic used by the Rev. David R. Brown at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

The Senior High choir under the direction of Phil Frohnmayer will sing, "Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God," for the first service. The chancel choir will present the anthem for the 11 a.m. service. Harvey Field, baritone, will sing for both services.

Senior High Fellowship will hear the second in a series on art Sunday at 7 p.m. with a discussion of "Christianity in Drama," conducted by the Faith Commission. Senior High Fellowship also has a midweek potluck dinner each Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. Junior High Fellowship meets each Tuesday after school for church school, dinner and Fellowship.

Saturday and Sunday, May 4 and 5, Geneva Fellowship will hold a retreat at Katydid. All young unmarried adults between the ages of 18 and 25 are invited to make reservations by calling Nancy Walker, 664-3047 or David Brown, 779-1711. Dinner will be served Saturday at 6:30 p.m., followed by an evening program.

The midweek study fellowship for adults meets each Wednesday at 8 p.m. Next week the pastor will continue a study of the minor prophets with the Book of Haggai.

Westminster church is located on Oakwood dr. between Barnesburg and Groveland aves.

'San' Day Planned By RLDS Church

Sunday is 'San' day at the Medford branch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. During the past 13 years of "San" School of Nursing Day promotion throughout the general church, some major benefits have been realized.

The Independence Sanitarium and hospital, Independence, Mo., was established in January, 1910. Its school of nursing is an integral part of the church. Eighty-four of these students were leading participants in a recent area church conference for young people, sponsored by the Church Ministry to College Youth authorities.

At the 11 a.m. service, Sunday Priest William Gregory will deliver the message on "San" day, taking for his sermon topic, "The Healing Ministry of Jesus and His Church." Scripture will be Matthew 4:22 and Luke 10:9.

An offering will be taken for the School of Nursing, joining with the general church membership in giving financial support to the school.

Christian Science Lesson Subject Told

"Probation After Death" will be the subject of Sunday's service at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave. The opening scriptural passages will be from the Sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5:3 with related readings from the Christian Science textbook.

Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school. All are invited to the services.

Persons to Join Church on Sunday

Several persons will join Ascension Lutheran church during the 11 a.m. worship service Sunday.

The Senior choir will sing and Luther League delegates, Gail Bekin, Gary Froehrich, and Greg Applen, will make reports on the Luther League convention. These three, along with seven other young people, attended the convention held in Salem on April 20.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. Vacation Bible school teachers will meet under the supervision of Mrs. Eleanor Briggs to plan classes and work for the summer session.

BIBLE SCHOOL PLANNED

O'Brien - Daily Vacation Bible school will be held at the First Baptist church, O'Brien, for one week following the week school is out. All age groups will be included. Mrs. Don Knight is in charge and the topic to be presented is "Living For Christ."

Stewardship Emphasis To Begin at First Christian

The First Christian church begins their annual stewardship Sunday, as the Rev. Fredrick Evans preaches on the theme of the emphasis, "First They Gave Themselves."

Sunday at 2 p.m. the executive committee of this stewardship program will meet at the church to select workers. Newly appointed members of the executive committee include M. B. Caster, stewardship chairman, Ray Leeson, Every Member Canvass chairman, and the Rev. Wendell Wagler, visitation chairman.

Sunday morning the Rev. Gilbert Skaar, pastor of First Southern Baptist church, will begin a series of sermons based on the Book of Philippians. His topic will be "The Mind of Christ."

The adult and youth choirs have been combined and will sing at both services directed by Dennis Sampels. At the evening service the pastor will speak on "The Grace of Tithing."

The training union hour has been changed to 7 p.m. followed by the evening service at 8 p.m.

Adult training union area of study for the month of May will be "Christian Family Life." Unit theme will be "Solving Family Difficulties."

St. Peter's Events Are Announced

"Our Good Shepherd Assures Us That We Belong to Him" is the sermon topic for Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main St., according to John E. Simon, pastor of the church. The services begin at 8:15 and 11 a.m.

The church school, under the direction of Robert D. Johnson, begins at 9:30 a.m. Members of St. Peter's Lutheran Laymen's League are alerted to the fact that the Southern Oregon zone rally will take place at Sutherland Sunday afternoon and evening. Also the Southern Oregon circuit Train-Two Bible class leaders' training course will continue at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Grants Pass, at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Faithful Emphasis Event at Foursquare

"Faithful Emphasis Program" was started last Sunday at Foursquare church, 2200 Roberts rd., according to Mrs. Loyd Rasmussen, Sunday school superintendent. The program will continue for six consecutive Sundays.

Each person who attends all six Sundays and weekly services will be honored May 26.

Teachers who reached their assigned goal for attendance last Sunday were Mrs. James Rogers, and Mrs. Dan Haas.

First Baptist Church

Conservative-Fundamental On the Air KBOY 11 a.m. B. E. Andrews, Pastor Byron Evans, Youth Dir. Meeting Temporarily at WILSON SCHOOL Grand & Corona SUNDAY, APRIL 28 9:40 A.M. Sunday School for All 11:00 A.M. "The Works of the Flesh Are Manifest" 7:00 P.M. "What Have We to Give Them?" Wednesday, 7:30 P.M. Bible Study

UNITY Corner Holly and Haven Streets Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo. REV. KATHARINE BOSWORTH, Minister Worship Hour - 11:15 a.m. "Sons of Light" John 12:36 Sunday School, Youth of Unity, Adult Bible Class 9:45 a.m. Office open daily, Monday thru Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m. 995 S. Oakdale Ave. - Phone 772-6902 - Everyone Welcome

First Presbyterian Church Eighth and Holly • Phone 779-1711 Worship Services 9:30 - 11:00 a.m. Sermon: "The High Cost of Christianity" The Reverend David R. Brown Church School: 9:30 and 11:00 a.m.

The MEDFORD ALLIANCE CHURCH Welcomes You Hedrick Junior High Auditorium 1505 E. Jackson SERVICES: Sunday School 9:45 A.M. Morning Worship 11:00 A.M. Youth Service 6:00 P.M. Evening Service 7:00 P.M. Mid-week Service - 7:30 P.M. Wednesday (Place announced each week) "There is a real and positive help for your every problem!"