Cave Junction - Eagle Point high-bob Corliss hurled a no-hit, no-run baseball victory for the Eagles here Friday.

The Eagles blanked the Illinois Valley Cougars 3 to 0 in a Rogue league game.

Only three men reached base against Corliss—two on errors and one on a base on balls. The Eagle twirler fanned 14 batters 15 times. No Cougar got on base after the third inning.

Eagle Point put over single markers in the second, third and fourth innings. Bob Henderson's hit, an error and a passed ball gained one tally. In the third canto John Linder singled. He swiped second and third bases and crossed home after Gary Clement's sacrifice flyout.

Whirlwind Net Crew Takes Pair

Playing topnotch tennis and looking the best they have this season, Medford high's netmen won two matches Saturday by 6 to 1 margins.

In the morning they beat an up and coming Shasta team from Redding, Calif. Then, in the afternoon, they tripped Roseburg.

These victories kept the Black Tornado unbeaten in 11 matches.

Gail Graben took the only win for Shasta's Wolves and Bryan Phillips the only one for Roseburg's Indians.

Medford encounters Grants Pass here Tuesday in its final Southern Oregon conference dual engagement. The District 6 tourney will be on Thursday at Southern Oregon college.

6 Medford Bowlers Qualify

Six Medford bowlers were among the 33 men who have qualified for the finals of the Masters tournament of the Oregon State Bowling association.

They are Martin Stockdale, Gayle Kimball, Bill Luman, Dick McKenna, Wally Norum and Ray Wise.

Finals will be stated at Eugene on May 3, 4 and 5. Competition will be double elimination. Four-game matches will be bowled with total pins deciding each match.

Ninety-four men took part in qualifying play during the recent men's state tourney. The Masters, in its second year, had a 50 per cent entry response over 1962, according to Ray Wise, Medford, secretary of the state association.

The tourney format is based on that of the National Masters.

Pointers Set Marks

Central Point - Five Central Point grade school records fell Thursday when the Pointers defeated Lincoln Savage in both divisions of a track meet.

The eighth grade won 65 to 38 and the seventh 46 to 31.

Eighth grader Terry Twedell set a mark for his class of 121 feet 10 inches in taking the discus. Glen Gueringer was second in the eighth grade pole vault with a new school mark of 9-8.

Terry Pierce won the broad jump and 150 and 330-yard runs for the Pointer eighth. Twedell was a double victor, taking the javelin along with the discus. For Savage Toller won the high jump and 75 and Schmidt the low and high hurdles.

Terry Morris set CP seventh grade standards of 9.0 in the 75 and 17.6 in the 150 and also took the broad jump. The relay team of Jack Snook, Doug Miller, Kerby Renfro and Morris teamed for a 54.3 record 440 relay. Renfro took the 330 and tied for first in the high jump.

TEASE

New York - (UPI) - For 1963, the National Notion association reports that the "teasing" comb, whose regularly irregular teeth were the basis of the bouffant, bee-hive, over-teased styles for 1962, will still be a prime implement. But it will occupy fewer woman-hours as coiffures are modified.

THORNE RUNS 9.7

La Grande - (UPI) - Pendleton's Bob Thorne was clocked in 9.7 in a meet here Friday for the best time in the 100-yard dash by an Oregon high school trackman this year.

SO Has Six OCC Bests

Portland - (UPI) - Portland State and Southern Oregon, perennial contenders for Oregon Collegiate conference track and field honors, are in a familiar role with the first listing of "best" marks for the 1963 season.

The powerful Vikings lead in seven events and share another, while SOC has top marks in four events and share two others. Eastern Oregon claims one top effort while Oregon Tech shares one with SOC.

Coach Ralph Davis' Vikings placed 19 men among the top three in the 15 events on the regular OCC program. PSC has posted four outstanding early season marks, led by Ken Patera's 56-0 1/4 shot put and 155-3 discus throw. Two other outstanding marks are Steve Curtice's 221-11 javelin toss and PSC's 3:28.3 relay clocking.

SOC Standouts

Southern Oregon has outstanding performers in Bill White, a 14.8 high hurdler, Mike Hood's 23-2 broad jump and Mike Hanby's 14-1 1/4 pole vault.

Besides Patera, Don McMillan of PSC leads in two events, the 880 (2:00.2) and mile (4:23.5), while SOC's Doyle Branson is the sprint leader with a 9.9 in the 100 and a tie with OTI's Ed Cecil at 22.2 in the 220.

Other Portland State leaders are Don McCartney in the quarter mile (49.4) and Phil White (6-2) in the high jump, which he shares with SOC's Fred Thomas. Southern Oregon's other first place belongs to Norm Oyer with a 9:48.1 clocking in the two mile.

Top Oregon Collegiate conference marks follow:

Beavers Break School Marks

United Press International

Oregon State trackmen set two school records without benefit of a victory Friday in competition at the Penn Relays in Philadelphia and the Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa.

Tom Wyatt set one OSU record in the intermediate hurdles at the Penn Carnival. He finished second in 52.0 to Maryland's Chris Stauffer, who was timed in 51.2.

Lou Fasano got off a discus throw of 168-5 1/4 at Drake for the second record and third place behind Stanford's Dave Weill, who won at 183-2.

The Beaver four-mile relay team of Lain Colpitts, Jerry Brady, Jan Underwood and Morgan Groth finished third at Des Moines behind Stanford in 16:57.7. Stanford's time was 16:43.4.

Forest Grove - (UPI) - William-ette high jumper Ken Ashley soared 6-9 1/4—the best of his career—as the Beards edged Pacific 67-64 in a dual track meet at Forest Grove Friday.

BROSE FIRES 726

Buffalo, N.Y. - Robert Brose of Jamesville, Wis., fired a three-game 726 for the best performance in the American Bowling Congress tournament Friday night. His effort on games of 229, 252 and 245 was the third highest individual series in the regular team division. He paced Holiday Inn of Jamesville.

Red Raiders Win In Triangle Meet

Ashland - Southern Oregon college's power-laden track force was the overwhelming winner here Saturday in a three-way meet.

The Red Raiders, taking all but one of the 16 events ran up 125 points to 32 by Oregon College of Education and 9 by Southwest Oregon.

Fred Thomas, Raider jumping expert, led the way with victories in three events. Doyle Branson, Denny Ellis and Bill White were double victors and Spike Gordon established a new pole vault high.

Thomas took the high jump at 6 feet 3 inches, the broad jump at 22-9 and the hop step and jump at 44 feet.

Branson traveled the 100 and 220-yard dashes in 9.9 and 22.4 and White went over the low and high hurdles in 24.5 and 14.9. Ellis put the shot 46-10 1/4 and hurled the javelin 198-10.

Gordon soared 14-3 3/4 in the vault.

Lone non-Southern Oregon winner was Doug Bartlett, OCE, with 139-1 in the discus.

The victory was the fourth straight without loss for the Raiders.

SOC next goes to the track at 3:30 p.m. here Tuesday against Humboldt State college.

Portland Tops Denver, 7-4

Portland - (UPI) - Ken Harrelson and Jim Hughes slammed back-to-back home runs in the eighth inning to give the Portland Beavers a 7-4 Pacific Coast League baseball win over Denver before 2,652 persons Saturday.

Harrelson's homer with Dick Green on base and Hughes' solo four-bagger in the bottom of the eighth came after the Beavers tied the score at 4-4 with two runs in the top of the inning.

Paul Seitz, a 22-year-old right-hander, pitched a five-hitter for Portland against Denver to register his first victory of the season in two decisions.

NCAA Puts Schools on Probation

Miami - (UPI) - The University of Omaha was put on indefinite probation by the National Collegiate Athletic association Friday and given until October 1 to show cause why it should not be ousted from the association.

The 18-man council of the NCAA also placed Hardin-Simmons university on probation for two years and restricted the Abilene, Tex., college from participating in post-season football or any televised games over which the NCAA has control for the same period.

Omaha was suspended for participating in the All-Sports Bowl game Dec. 8, 1962. The NCAA extra events committee did not sanction the game and warned Omaha not to participate in the event.

Hardin-Simmons was placed on probation for violations of NCAA recruiting and grant-in-aid rules.

McClure Decisions Wright

Toledo, Ohio - (UPI) - Unbeaten middleweight contender Wilber (Skeeter) McClure of Toledo scored his 14th consecutive professional victory Saturday night on a unanimous 10-round decision over veteran Teddy Wright of Detroit in their nationally televised fight.

McClure, 24, and ranked ninth among the world's 160-pound contenders, had Wright groggy in the eighth and ninth rounds, but couldn't floor nor knock out the rugged Detroit, who has been stopped but once in his 62 fights.

McClure, weighing 156 pounds to Wright's 154, brought the crowd of 2,000 to its feet in the Toledo Sports Arena in the fifth, eighth, ninth and 10th when he landed his best punches.

The three ring officials favored McClure on a five-points-must basis as follows: Referee John Ousky, 48-42; Judge Joseph (Pep) Justo, 48-42, and Judge Jack Myers, 45-43. The United Press International agreed, 48-42.

IMPROVES 2-MILE

Los Angeles - (UPI) - Julio Marin, the nation's speediest collegiate two miler this year, improved on his own Southern California record Friday night as USC defeated California, 97-48, in a dual meet at the Coliseum. Marin of Costa Rica was clocked at 8:51.6 for the two miles, surpassing the 1958 meet mark of 8:54.8 and his own school mark of 8:52.0 registered this year.
