

Medford Sorority Woman Honored; Week Planned

Mrs. Delbert Cantrall, Medford, was honored as Oregon's outstanding member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority at the seventeenth annual convention in Roseburg, April 19 through 21. She was chosen on the basis of a written report submitted by her chapter, Alpha Lambda, which she has served as president this year.

Mrs. Willie Fischer, Alpha Lambda, is first vice president of the state council. Mrs. Leland Carpenter is state parliamentarian and Mrs. Robert Shangle will serve as editor of the state paper. Both are members of Delta Omega chapter, Medford.

Mrs. Vernon Rush, Alpha Kappa chapter, Ashland, was appointed representative to the ESA home board.

Awards were won by several local chapters. They are Beta Nu, Eagle Point, second place in rushing; educational program first place, Delta Omega and third place Alpha Lambda; yearbook, Alpha Lambda, first place; outstanding chapter, Alpha Lambda, second place, and Delta Omega received honorable mention.

Internationally, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, opens ESA week today in observance of the thirty-fifth anniversary of the organization. The observance will continue through May 4. In this connection Mayor James J. Dunlevy, Medford, has issued a proclamation, stating that the Rogue area council members of the sorority have been outstanding in the organization with active philanthropy which has proved beneficial to the citizens of Medford and Jackson county.

The first chapter was organized May 1, 1929 at Jacksonville, Texas. There now are 40,000 members and 1500 chapters throughout this country and Denmark, Germany, Guam and Holland. Oregon now has 1192 members in 65 chapters including new ones at Corvallis and Eugene.

Late June Date Set for Rites

Mrs. Inez Sheperd, 909 Sunset avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Oleta Sheperd, to Brian Watson, son of Mrs. Pearl Watson, 155 South First street, Central Point.

The bride-elect is a 1959 graduate of Jacksonville High school and now is attending Medford Beauty school. Her fiancé is a 1956 Medford High school graduate. He is employed by Timber Products Inc. A late June wedding is planned.

Mrs. Delbert Cantrall, 844 Winchester avenue, has been named as Oregon's outstanding member of Epsilon Sigma Alpha International sorority. She was chosen during the seventeenth annual state convention in Roseburg, April 19 through 21. She is a member of Alpha Lambda chapter for which she has served as president this year. Today marks the opening of ESA week, proclaimed for Rogue area council members by Mayor James J. Dunlevy, Medford. (Chris studio photo)

Marriage Announced

Announcement was received here last week of the marriage of Mrs. Ernest A. Rostel, formerly of Medford, and Joe W. Hayer, Lima, Ohio. The ceremony was performed in Washington, D. C., on March 22.

Mrs. Hayer, who came to Medford as Margaret Hensley following graduation from the University of Oregon, worked for several years on the Medford Mail Tribune before her marriage to the late Ernest A. Rostel of Central Point.

She is editor of Hearing News, publication of the American Hearing society, and has been employed by that agency in Washington, D. C., since 1951.

Mr. Hayer is a consultant for the steel foundry industry. They are residing at 2122 Massachusetts avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Miss Karen Matsen (Kennell Ellis)

Engagement Of Students Is Announced

Rogue River-News of interest in this area is the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Karen Matsen and Dana Joseph McBarron Jr., which recently was announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Matsen, Wapato, Wash.

The bridegroom-elect, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dana J. McBarron of Rogue River, lives in Vancouver, B.C.

The wedding is set for late June in Yakima, Wash.

Miss Matsen, now a student at Yakima Valley college in Yakima, has attended Oregon State university and Lewis and Clark college. Her fiancé is a 1961 Rogue River High school graduate. He also attended Oregon State university and now is a student at the University of British Columbia.

The young couple will live in Canada and both plan to continue their education at the University of British Columbia.

The bridegroom-elect visited his parents during spring vacation. Mr. McBarron and his mother then went to Yakima and visited at the home of the bride-elect's parents. She returned last week.

Fine Arts Festival Set

Ashland-Dr. Calvin W. Taylor, professor of psychology at the University of Utah, will be the featured speaker for the Southern Oregon Festival of Fine Arts to be held on the Southern Oregon college campus May 5 through 12.

Dr. Taylor was selected as principal speaker for the festival because of his research into the identification and development of creative talent. He has served in five national research conferences in this field and is nationally known for his work on creativity.

Dr. Taylor will present an address at 8 p.m. Friday, May 10 in Churchill auditorium. Other events for the festival include an art show during the entire week, music recitals on May 5 and May 12, a film showing on May 7, an opera workshop presentation on May 8 and 9, and a dance recital on May 11.

The public is invited to attend all of these events at no charge.

Benefit Announced

St. Mark's Spring Art festival will be theme for the annual benefit card party to be sponsored by St. Catherine's guild of St. Mark's Episcopal church Tuesday, May 21.

Mrs. Louis Thurman and Mrs. William B. Clegg Jr., are general chairmen.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. Justin Smith Jr., telephone 773-2864 or Mrs. Gary Monical, telephone 535-2541.

Mrs. Kenneth Ray Jacks (Landis photo)

Nancy Stevenson Wed To Kenneth Ray Jacks

Miss Nancy Sara Stevenson became the bride of Kenneth Ray Jacks, Saturday, April 20 in rites held at 10 o'clock in the morning at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. John Ilg officiated at the marriage ceremony and the nuptial mass.

Acolytes were Gregory Van Dyck and Eric Jensen.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William W. Stevenson, 230 Saginaw drive, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Jacks, Route 4, Medford.

Miss Mary Stevenson, Reno, Nev., was her sister's attendant, and Robert Betschart was best man. Ronald Fruit seated the guests.

Wears Lace

Dr. Stevenson escorted his daughter to the altar. The bride wore a gown designed with a bodice of lace over silk net, and the skirt of peau de soie had an overlay of silk organza with a front panel of lace. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and rosebuds with stephanotis. Her pearl and diamond pendant was a gift from the bridegroom.

The honor attendant wore a sheath dress of champagne lace and a coral colored veil.

Her bouquet was of coral carnations.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise silk sheath dress with matching coat and hat and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in an ice pink costume suit with white accessories and her corsage was an orchid.

Bruno Pellegrini furnished the organ music.

A wedding luncheon for the bridal group and the families was served at noon in the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was decorated with the wedding cake encircled by smilax and white camellias. The top decoration of wedding bells on the cake had first been used on the wedding cake of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Martin of Boston, Mass.

The bride was graduated from St. Mary's High school and attended the University of Nevada. The bridegroom was graduated from Phoenix High school, attended Southern Oregon college and currently is enrolled at Oregon State university majoring in electrical engineering.

The couple now live in Corvallis.

Francis Thrun Honored Guest; Rites Saturday

Miss Frances Thrun was a guest of honor at a shower given in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Bristlin, 4418 South Pacific highway.

Mrs. Keith Bristlin was co-hostess of the event which took place April 9 on the 40th wedding anniversary of Miss Thrun's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thrun, 121 Kenwood avenue.

Refreshments were served and the bride-elect was presented with gifts of linens.

Miss Thrun is the bride-elect of Arthur O. Aos. They are to be married in a nuptial mass Saturday, May 11, in Sacred Heart Catholic church, Medford.

Shower Honors Bride-Elect

Miss Patricia Beliveau, bride-elect of James E. Floyd, was honored April 19 at a shower given by Mrs. Richard A. Bradley, sister of the bridegroom, in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Floyd, 500 Fifth street, Phoenix. Miss Beliveau is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Beliveau, 14 Cottage street, Medford.

About 20 guests attended the event at which the honored guest was presented miscellaneous gifts.

Mrs. Merle Simmonds, Mrs. Dora Lewis and Mrs. Roy Clark, all of Phoenix, won prizes for games. Refreshments were served.

The bride-elect, who first attended school in Germany where her father was stationed with the Army, is a graduate of Medford High school. The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Phoenix High school and is with the Bureau of Land Management, Medford office.

The wedding is planned for May.

Prospect Couple Home From Mexico

Prospect — Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Clevenburg have returned from a three-month trip to Mexico. While away they spent most of their time at Mezatlan from where they made side trips.

On their return they spent three weeks in Phoenix, Ariz., made trips to the petrified forest, meteor crater, and Oak Creek canyon. They also stopped at Flagstaff and Globe.

In California they stayed several days at Palm Springs and Bakersfield.

Miss Oleta Sheperd

Scholarship Is Awarded

Central Point—Miss Catherine A. Harsh, honored queen of Bethel 38, International Order of Job's Daughters, has been awarded a scholarship to the college of her choice by the grand guardian council scholarship committee of Oregon.

The $300 award is one of nine given in the state. Miss Harsh will graduate from Crater High school, Central Point, in June. She plans to enter Southern Oregon college in the fall.

Son Home

Ashland — Visiting last week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gray, 585 Allison street, was Pfc. Roy C. Gray Jr., 82nd Airborne division, Fort Bragg, N.C.

Ashland — Mr. and Mrs. R. E. L. Jeter, 473 South Mountain avenue, are vacationing for several weeks in Hawaii with their daughter and her family.

HOW TO Make Mother Happy

IMPERIAL CULTURED PEARLS

EARRINGS: Single cultured pearl, 10 K yellow gold screw backs. from $10.00

RING: Single cultured pearl ring in 10 K yellow gold. $18.95

NECKLACE: Beautiful graduated cultured pearl necklace, 10K white gold clasp. from $25.00

BROOCHES: from $10.00

Mrs. Esther Barrell

Teacher and Engineer Announce Wedding Day

Mrs. Esther Barrell of Eugene has announced the engagement of her daughter, Dolores Carlene, 3294 Britt avenue, Medford, to Ervin Eugene Tipping, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tipping of Webster City, Iowa.

Miss Barrell was graduated from the University of Oregon with a degree in history. She was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega social sorority. Mr. Tipping was graduated from Arizona State college with a degree in architectural engineering.

Miss Barrell is a teacher at Medford Senior High school and Mr. Tipping is a construction engineer for Pacific Power and Light company of Portland. He was with the Medford branch before being transferred to Portland.

The wedding will take place in Eugene on August 3. The couple will live in Beaverton, where Miss Barrell will be employed at Beaverton High school.

Miss Dolores Barrell (Knackstedt photo)

AS ADVERTISED IN THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL • DOUBLE FEATURE SPRING EVENT

SALE

Franciscan whitestone ware

WIDE SELECTION OF BEAUTIFUL PATTERNS IN STURDY EVERYDAY EARTHENWARE BY THE MOST FAMOUS NAME IN DINNERWARE — FRANCISCAN.

APRIL 29 TO MAY 11

24 piece beginner set for 8

15.95 21.95
CLOUD NINE 8 DINNERS 7 DECORATED PATTERNS
OPEN STOCK VALUE 25.00 AN EXCELLENT BUFFET SERVICE! OPEN STOCK VALUE 35.00

and 20% OFF ON ALL OPEN STOCK

Make your selection now while our stock is complete!

"The Store of a Thousand Thoughtful Gifts"

Swem's BOOKS - GIFTS - RECORDS 217 East Main Street—Medford