

Johnson-Barton Ceremony

Eagle Point - Miss Mary Diane Barton and Delbert Leland Johnson Jr., were married in 7 o'clock evening rites held April 20 in Eagle Point Community Bible church. The Rev. Warren Christensen performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Barton, Suite Falls Star route, Box 84, Eagle Point. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Johnson, 174 Mace road, Medford.

Miss Karen Jossy, Eagle Point, a cousin of the bride, came from Oregon State university, to serve as the maid of honor. Donna Barton, a sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Another sister, Darlene Barton, was flower girl.

William Strawn, Medford, was best man, and seating the guests and lighting the candles were Dan Barton, a brother of the bride, and Dennis Cornutt, her cousin.

Mr. Barton escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Gown of Organs

The bride's chapel length gown of nylon organza over taffeta was appliqued with rosebuds of self-material. Her elbow length illusion veil was held by a pearl and rhinestone crown. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Miss Jossy wore a yellow nylon organza dress over taffeta with rhinestone tiara and the junior bridesmaid's frock, also of yellow nylon organza, was lined with floral taffeta. Both carried bouquets of gaisies.

The flower girl wore a frock which matched that of the junior bridesmaid. Her headband was of daisies and she carried a basket filled with lavender and white lilac blossoms.

Decorate With Lilacs

The church was decorated with white and lavender lilacs, which, with bows, also marked the pew ends.

Mrs. James Cornutt, aunt of the bride, furnished the wedding music, and Maynard Hadley sang.

The reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the Eagle Point Grange hall. Serving the cake was Mrs. Earle Jossy and Mrs. Louis A. Bruner, aunts of the bride. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Glenn Coffey, Beaty, Nev., another aunt, and presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Raymond Hines, a sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Harlin Stinson had charge of the guest book.

Assisting at the gift table were the Misses Linda and Sue Cornutt, cousins of the bride. Donna and Darlene Barton passed bags of pastel colored rice.

About 100 guests attended the wedding and reception.

The church decorations and corsages were arranged by Mrs. Lorita Wisdom. The wedding cake was decorated by Fred Coffman.

Guests Here

Out-of-state guests included Mrs. Dave Welch, Hemet, Calif., a grandmother of the bride. Numerous relatives and friends came from cities throughout Oregon.

The couple left for the Oregon coast on their wedding trip. The bride chose a teal blue sheath dress with jacket for traveling. Her corsage was of white carnations and pink rosebuds. They will live in Medford at 160 DeHague street.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Eagle Point High school where she was a student for three years, prior to that attending southern California schools. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school in 1961 and now is a machinist with Lewis Manufacturing company in Medford.

Family Dinner Held in Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Edwards were hosts at their home on Oregon road on Sunday for a family dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tucker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hayes, all of Gazelle, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Tucker and daughters, Medford, Robert Tucker, Yreka, and Bob Edwards, Hitt.

Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis Hutchison

Mrs. Ernest Barnes (right) won second place in the flower arrangement contest which is a part of the annual tea given at Hillcrest House each spring as a benefit for the American Cancer society. Mrs. Barnes made the arrangements for Contemporary Book club; it is of white tulips and broom with driftwood. Mrs. Barnes received her prize from Mrs. Ralph Thompson, one of the tea chairmen, pictured here with Mrs. Barnes. The committee members all wore charming handmade ruffled-brimmed hats for the tea, and Mrs. Thompson chose a rose-colored hat with a wine red dress.

California Ceremony Of Interest in Valley

Ashland - News of interest here is the marriage of Miss Barbara Coleen Webb and David Lewis Hutchison which was solemnized April 6 in Shafter, Calif.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Webb of Shafter and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Ruth Hutchison, 51 Gresham street, Ashland, who went south for the ceremony. The Rev. Dale B. Klint read the rites in the Shafter First Baptist church. About 200 guests attended.

Mr. Webb gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a satin floor length gown with bell skirt and a satin rose at the back. Her fingertip veil was held by a silk pillbox headpiece. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations centered with coral roses.

Two Attendants

Mrs. James Webb, Whittier, Calif., a sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmatron and Miss Linda Bidema, Ashland, a niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid.

Their identical coral colored gowns were floor length and made with bell skirts. Their flowers were coral carnations.

James Webb, a brother of the bride, was best man. Carl Lewis was groomsman and seating the guests were Wayne Morris and Robert Lewis.

Lighting the candles were the Misses Linda Miller and Sandra Galino, cousins of the bride.

Bethel Conducts Practice Session

Illinois Valley - Members of the Kerby Bethel, International Order of Job's Daughters, conducted a practice session April 15 for initiation ceremonies to be held May 6.

Refreshments were served by Miss Judi Prather and Miss Bonnie Hagerman. Another practice session will be held May 2 at 2:30 p.m. in the Kerby Masonic temple.

Scouts Postpone Skill Day Event

A Girl Scout skill day event scheduled for May 4 has been postponed until September, those in charge of the event have announced.

The bride's mother wore a silk aqua blue sheath dress and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a rose color sheath frock of lace. Both had camellia corsages.

The reception was held in the church patio.

The couple is living in Lancaster, Calif.

The bride attended Bakersfield college and Fresno State college. She is a home economics teacher at the Delano Joint Union High school. The bridegroom attended Ashland High school. He was a member of the Air Force for five years. He is employed by North American Aviation, Electronics division.

Other guests from Ashland were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Dan Bidema, and children Teresa, Sandra, Margaret, Danny and Clifford.

Yreka Club Observes Anniversary

Yreka - Yreka Federated Women's club observed the 25th anniversary of organization on April 16th at a meeting in the social room of the Pacific Power and Light company. Readings from the minute book year 1938 were enjoyed. Exactly 25 years ago Tuesday the club was organized by the late Eulalie Schomaker at her home. The first president was Mrs. Utahana Atkins.

The club room of the Masonic Temple was the first meeting place of the club. During its first year it had a display in the county fair and in its early history won a loving cup as a special music award from the California Federation of Women's Clubs.

The old minute book was read by Mrs. Harold Dexter at Tuesday's meeting. It was planned to continue the club history at the next session.

Plans were made for a May luncheon, which will be the last meeting of the club this season. Appointed to make arrangements for the event were Mrs. Roy Pruett and Mrs. Dan Shelley.

Topic Listed For Gardeners

A program on space in the space age parks and recreation areas will be given by Robert L. Hayworth for Medford Garden club members Thursday, May 2, at 1:30 p.m., in the home extension auditorium at the fairgrounds. Mr. Haworth is director of Medford's park and recreation department.

New annuals and perennials for the summer garden will be Mrs. Harry Bryant's topic, and distinction in flower arrangements and how to achieve originality in arranging will be the subject for Mrs. Dayton Depue.

Mrs. Charles Stearns will be tea chairman.

An executive board meeting is to be held Monday, April 29 at 1:30 p.m., in the home of the president, Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald, 3488 New Ray road, Central Point.

Attend Meeting

Prospect-Several members of the Prospect Lions auxiliary made a visitation to a meeting of the Eagle Point Lions auxiliary April 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Leland Johnson Jr. (Anders photo)

Benefit Events Planned By Medford Altrusa Club

Two benefit events have been announced by the Altrusa Club of Medford. Proceeds will support community projects of Altrusa, including their vocational scholarship grants to older women for retraining purposes.

Friday, May 3, a bridge party will be held at the Girls Community club at 7:30 p.m. Final plans for this event were made at a meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Walter Young, president, Thursday, Mrs. George Coddling, committee chairman, is in charge.

Mrs. Coddling will be assisted by Mrs. Lucine Miles and Mrs. Fred Konehot.

The second event will be the following day, and will be rummage sale at the Eagle hall, 215 West Main street. The sale will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Miss Lotus Eaton is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Valton Finley, Mrs. Pauline Bright, and Mrs. Florence McKenna.

The bridge party is open to both men and women and tickets may be purchased from any member of the club or by telephoning Mrs. Coddling 773-2501 or Mrs. Miles 772-2344.

Refreshments will be served from 7:30 to 8 p.m. with card playing to follow. Persons attending are to take their own cards or other game desired.

The purpose of the vocational scholarships is to retrain women who are left without support so they may earn a living. Other projects have included donations to Rogue Valley and Sacred Heart hospitals building funds, Girl Scout camps, Christmas baskets, Rogue Valley Council on Aging, and grants-in-aid for women scholars from South America and Asia.

The April meeting celebrated the 48th anniversary of Altrusa International, which was founded on April 11, 1917. It was the first service club for women executives, owners of business or of professions status.

Initiated in a candlelight ceremony were Mrs. Owen Kunkel and Miss Claire Hanley. The information committee was in charge. Committee members are Miss Catherine Fonken, Miss Mary Hanley, Mrs. Margaret Miles, Mrs. C. A. Pallier, Mrs. Coddling and Mrs. Young.

Elected officers were Mrs. Charles Kyer, president; Mrs. Lotus Eaton, vice president; Mrs. Mary Carpenter, recording secretary; Miss Joan Beasley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. A. Pallier, treasurer, and Mrs. Betty Fichtner and Mrs. Maisie Daily, directors for two year terms.

They will be installed at the July meeting.

United Nations Will Be Topic

Ashland - The United Nations is to be the subject for discussion at a Monday evening meeting sponsored by the Ashland Provisional unit, Oregon League of Women Voters.

Speaker at the 8 p.m. meeting in the Gresham room of the public library will be Omar Bacon, Jackson county librarian and vice president of the Jackson County chapter, Oregon United Nations association. This is planned as an introduction to the local unit's United Nations study.

The public is invited to attend the meeting.

SPRING SPREE!

Four Blossoms and flowers herald the spring season in the Rogue Valley and your downtown merchants are celebrating the occasion with Four Blossom bargains. Park and Shop makes all of the bargains easy to reach. Just drive onto any of the convenient lots and shop at your leisure anywhere in downtown Medford. Join the throng—make it a family fun project.

Park & Shop Provides FREE PARKING with Your $2.00 Minimum Purchase.

Homemakers Attend Council in Corvallis

Forty-four homemakers from Jackson county will attend the 31st annual meeting of the Oregon State Home Economics Extension council on the campus of Oregon State university in Corvallis April 30, May 1-2. The theme of the conference is "Attitudes and Your Future."

Tuesday afternoon the women have a choice of conducted tours through different departments of the university. At the international banquet that evening Mrs. Riddell Lage, state council president, will give a report on the Associated Country Women of the World conference held in Australia last October. International students on the campus will also speak.

At the banquet Wednesday evening Dr. Gerald Wallace, superintendent of schools in Corvallis, will speak on "Attitudes Toward Our Community." Business sessions and workshops will be held during the day Wednesday and Thursday morning.

Most of the Jackson County Home Extension units will have a lesson in May on the care of hard surface floors.

How to have beautiful floors with a minimum of care is the purpose of this lesson.

All types of floors, including the many new types of tiles, will be discussed. Information on the cleaning and the types of waxes suitable for each kind will be given. The lesson was given to unit project leaders by Miss Dana Hochholter, Jackson county home economics agent.

Lake Creek Unit

Lake Creek Extension unit will meet Wednesday, May 1, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Osterman, Brownsboro. The project lesson will be given by Mrs. Murray Bartling.

Mrs. W. W. Jackson, former member of Jackson county advisory committee, will be installing officer for officers for next year. She will conduct the candle lighting service. This will be the final meeting for this season.

For information concerning the menu call Mrs. Henry Meyer. Table service will be needed.

AS ADVERTISED IN THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL •
• DOUBLE FEATURE SPRING EVENT

SALE

Bell's
HOMEWARES

Franciscan
whitestone ware

WIDE SELECTION OF BEAUTIFUL PATTERNS IN STURDY EVERYDAY EARTHENWARE BY THE MOST FAMOUS NAME IN DINNERWARE - FRANCISCAN.

APRIL 29
TO
MAY 11

24 piece beginner set for 8
15.95

INCLUDES 8 DINNERS 8 CUPS 8 SAUCERS
AN EXCELLENT BUFFET SERVICE!

21.95
7 DECORATED PATTERNS
OPEN STOCK VALUE 35.60

and
20% OFF ON ALL OPEN STOCK
Make your selection now while our stock is complete!

Phone 772-2133 Bell's Homewares 323 East Main