

Mr. and Mrs. Irwen Max Stockford

Catholic Ceremony Weds Pair

Miss Catherine Louise Miller and John M. Weissenfels were married April 20 at 12 noon in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The nuptial mass was celebrated by the Rev. G. N. Lulay.

Mrs. Carl Damm, North Bend, an aunt of the bride, was the honor attendant, and Jake J. Tamburello was best man.

Mr. Damm gave his niece in marriage. Her waltz length gown was of lace over taffeta and her shoulder length veil was held from a pearl trimmed tiara. She carried a cascade bouquet of white rosebuds and orchids on a white prayer book.

Her attendant wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and corsage. The wedding group was entertained at dinner following the ceremony by Mrs. Agnes Ford in her home on Coleman Creek road.

The bride is employed as a cashier for Western Union Telegraph company and the bridegroom is associated with Padgham Millwork company. She attended St. Mary's schools in Medford and he received his education in Silverton, Ore., schools.

On April 16 the bride-elect was honored at a linen shower given by Mrs. Ruth Walden and Mrs. Berwyn Ellison in the Ellison home at 1284 Kings highway. About 30 guests attended. Refreshments were served.

The bride, who came to Oxnard with her family and attended high school there, previously lived in San Diego, and originally was from San Antonio, Tex.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

Chairmen of the annual Easter Monday luncheon of St. Anna's Altar society were Mrs. Frank Gritsch (at left) and Mrs. Paul Moore. For the large party, which attracted about 400 women to Rogue Valley Country club, Mrs. Gritsch wore a pale beige suit with mink fur collar, and a beige colored hat. Mrs. Moore's suit was of blue and her hat was white. (Knackstedt photo)

Local Catholic Women To Join National Work

Court St. Mary's members, Catholic Daughters, plan to join in work of a national committee of the organization, "Women for Decency," which has as its purpose the curtailment of literature considered obscene.

Announcement of the plan was made during an open house conducted by the group recently in observance of the sixtieth anniversary of the Catholic Daughters in America. The local court has been organized for four years.

The event was held in the Knights of Columbus hall. Committees are not yet set up on a local level.

It is stressed that good reading be made available in the home as a positive action towards this goal.

Mrs. Perry Rayburn spoke on good reading material available in the Rayburns' St. Mary's Catholic Book store, 243 North Ivy street, where they have a confraternity library and a reading room for public convenience.

Mrs. Eli Noguier told of the national CDA organization and a film was shown concerning its work. The speaker explained that the group had donated a quarter of a million dollars to the Immaculate Conception shrine in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. George Davy, grand regent, introduced guests and Mrs. E. I. Flakus presented awards to winners of an annual poetry contest. Prizes went to Shelly Moore and Robert Lowery, first; Angela Raker and Margaret Archers, second, and Michael Brophy and John Loffer, third.

During the social hour for which Mrs. George Holsinger was chairman, Mrs. Florence Lance, vice grand regent, poured coffee, and Mrs. Alberta Haas, member of the board of trustees, served cake. The court's colors, purple, yellow and white, were used for decorations.

During a recent meeting a nominating committee was elected, made up of Mrs. Lance, Mrs. Eimer Ness, Mrs. Lowell Meunier, Mrs. Leonard Kuckelman and Mrs. Mary Oliver. Officers are to be elected May 1, and installed in June.

Mrs. Davy, and Mrs. Ness, state secretary and past grand regent of the court, were delegates to a state convention April 19 through 21 in Tillamook.

Recent events in which the court participated were the Cancer Crusade tea at Hillcrest house when Mrs. Fred Shere arranged an entry; and a Day of Recollection sponsored by the court and the third Order of St. Francis,

PICARD
JEWELERS

Home of Grandparents Scene of Wedding Rites

Miss Linda Marlayn Ehrig became the bride of Irwen Max Stockford in rites read April 20 in the home of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Van Ortwick, 1369 Poplar drive, Medford. The Rev. D. E. Millard performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Davis of Oxnard, Calif., and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stockford, 602 North Riverside avenue, Medford.

Miss Willie Lee Ehrig, Oxnard, was her sister's only attendant.

Roy D. Van Ortwick, an uncle of the bridegroom, was best man.

Given in marriage by the bridegroom's grandfather, C. P. Van Ortwick, the bride wore a white chiffon gown over taffeta designed with three-quarter length sleeves and short lace jacket. Her accessories were white and she wore a white flowered net-covered pill box hat. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

The attendant's sheath dress was of pale pink brocade white satin and her pill box hat was covered with pink and white flowers. She had white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

The Rev. Mr. Millard and Mrs. Millard furnished the wedding music. About 60 guests attended.

A reception followed the ceremony. The bridegroom's mother continued serving the wedding cake and punch was poured by Mrs. K. C. Smith, sister of the bridegroom. Coffee was served by the bridegroom's grandmother, and Mrs. Smith also had charge of the bride's book.

Following a wedding trip to northern and southern California the couple will live at Port Hueneme, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with a Construction battalion at the Port Hueneme Naval base. The bride's father, a chief petty officer, also is stationed there with a Construction battalion.

The newly married couple plans to return to Medford to live when the bridegroom has completed one more year of service.

The bride, who came to Oxnard with her family and attended high school there, previously lived in San Diego, and originally was from San Antonio, Tex.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

The bridegroom attended Medford schools and was graduated here in 1959, when he joined the Navy.

National Head Visits Lodge; Convention Set

Mrs. Clara Gerison, Heppner, Ore., national inner ward, and state director of the Degree of Honor Protective association, was in Medford April 22 for the annual inspection of the local lodge. Past state president, Mrs. Lawrence Doerfling, Grants Pass, also assisted with the inspection.

Visitors from Grants Pass were Mrs. George Eggers, Mr. Everett Rosecrans, and Mrs. John Lowe. Visiting from Central Point was Mrs. William Johnston and from Ashland were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hartley and Mrs. Gabriella Bryan. Visiting from Medford was Mrs. Terry Walthers.

Miss Carol Krause, junior graduate, was initiated into the adult lodge.

The drill team entertained and a selection was sung by the Glee club.

The district convention will be held May 7 in Bend, Ore., and the state convention is scheduled to be held in Portland in April, 1964.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated with camellias.

SUNDAY AND MONDAY ONLY

Newberrys

PRICE BUSTERS

OPEN SUNDAYS
10 A.M. to 5:30 P.M.
for Your Convenience

Bring the whole family... shop in all 54 big departments, where the selection is wide and the savings big. Treat the family to a delicious luncheon at

Our Rogue Sidewalk Cafe

Piping hot main dishes... icy cold salads... melt-in-the-mouth pastries, created by our own master baker... served cafeteria style.

Simulated BUTCHER LINEN

Imagine! A butcher linen weave fabric in dozens of solid colors! Washable, crisp, cool blended fibers. 36" wide. Newberrys' low price

54¢ Yard

White Terry Cloth

At Newberrys' Low, Low Price! Washable, wearable, wonderful Terry Cloth. The never-iron, all cotton fabric that loves the summer. Perfect for swim suits, jackets, shorts, tops, even curtains and slip covers. 36" wide. Reg. 77c

67¢ yd

SPORTSWEAR FABRICS

36"x45" wide, sportswear fabrics in dozens of interesting designs and patterns. Washable, all cotton... Newberrys' low price... Reg. 77c

67¢ Yard

CHARGE IT AT THE

SHOPPING CENTER STORE

35 East Jackson, Medford Acres of Free Parking

YOU CAN "CHARGE IT" AT NEWBERRYS

Burelson's

Downtown Medford

Aloha

Once Again Hawaii Comes To Burelson's

Fashions for Fun, Sun and Leisurely Days!

Tropical Prints Designed and Executed In Honolulu Especially For Burelson's!

CHOOSE FROM OUR COLLECTION WHICH INCLUDES...

- Swim Suits
one and two-piece styles
- Muu Muus
- Waikiki Walkers
- Beachcomber Shirts

All In Glorious Colorful Prints To Delight Your Eye

Enjoy Hawaiian Music

For your pleasure, we have arranged to have Hawaiian music piped into our store. Come in, browse around, look over our lovely Hawaiian fashion creations and enjoy the soft, romantic music of the islands.

Your Charge Account Invited.... Ride 'n Shop Member

Main and Bartlett Streets Downtown Medford

Phone 772-6428