

Mrs. Jerry Olson, who took charge of the tea table for the recent annual benefit party of the Medford committee, American Cancer society, held at Hillcrest House, is shown here with the tea table centerpiece of carnations and statice. Mrs. Olson's dress was of blue chiffon to match her blue organdy hat. All hostesses for the party wore "mob caps" handmade by Mrs. John T. Weisel and Mrs. Fred Lewis, and each then decorated her own. The centerpiece had been arranged and donated for the event by Mrs. Tom Ginn.

Wild Flowers Will Be Topic

Central Point — Dr. Irone Hollenbeck, professor of science at Southern Oregon college, will be guest speaker at an open meeting of the Central Point Garden club, which will be held at the Central Point Grange hall, Wednesday, May 1 at 8 p.m.

The topic, "Wild Flowers", will be presented by Dr. Hollenbeck along with slides and specimens.

A social hour will follow with Mrs. Donald A. Faber, Mrs. Charles Jantzer and Mrs. Charles Ghelardi as hostesses. Guests and the general public are invited.

Flower Show Held In Jerome Prairie

Jerome prairie — A spring flower show was given recently by the Jerome Prairie Garden club in the Community hall. Mrs. E. J. Silverthorn, Mrs. Edward Koenig and Mrs. J. A. Manfull decorated the hall. Those who served the luncheon were Mrs. Leubach, Mrs. Silverthorn, Mrs. C. C. McCallister, Mrs. H. L. Cole, Mrs. R. S. Rae and Mrs. Koenig.

Mrs. Hazel McFarland, Mrs. W. F. Stemm, Mrs. I. S. Hooten and Mrs. M. M. Hammond conducted a plant sale. In charge of the guest book were Mrs. O. D. Stot and Mrs. Manfull.

Master Point Play Announced

The monthly master point game for Riverside Bridge club will be played Wednesday, May 1.

During the April 24 session 38 players competed. Mrs. G. A. Coddling and Paul A. Hutton won first place in the north-south position. Their score was 132½ points.

Continuing in that position winners were Mrs. T. R. Parker and Mrs. Hutton, 127½; Al Gilhousen and James Morgan, 107½, and Mrs. V. R. Gilbert and Mrs. R. C. Burgess, 105.

East-west winners were Mrs. H. B. Collins and Mrs. J. J. Finegan, 123; Mrs. M. M. Herman and Mrs. A. K. Trout, 115½; Mrs. W. E. Cole and Mrs. B. C. Jenkins, 114; and Mrs. D. Phipps and Mrs. K. L. Janouch, and Mrs. B. B. Hughes and Mrs. Y. M. Dolen who tied with 108½.

Nativity Shrine Service Planned

Nativity shrine, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will conduct memorial services during their meeting Saturday, May 4, in the Grants Pass Masonic temple. Officers are to be there at 7 p.m. Mrs. Wyles E. Berry, worthy high priestess, has announced.

Members of Bethel 69, International Order of Job's Daughters, will present an adendum.

Mrs. B. D. Mitchell (at left) is a member of the committee which will head the coming membership campaign of the Medford Broadway Theater league. Mrs. Mitchell is pictured here with Mrs. Darrell Miller and the exhibit which the league arranged at the recent benefit tea given at Hillcrest House by the Medford committee of the American Cancer society. Both Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Miller were hostesses for the tea, and have on the ruffled cotton hats which the hostesses made for the event. Mrs. Mitchell's hat was aquamarine and her dress was white; Mrs. Miller wore a print frock and her yellow hat was trimmed with samples of her child's art work.

Early-Day Pictures of Medford To Be Shown

Seth Bullis, known as "Mr. Medford" will show slides of early Medford to the Arm Chair Travelers at the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street, Monday, April 29, at 1 p.m.

The pictures were assembled by Mr. Bullis on request of former mayor John Snider for use during the Oregon Centennial. They were made into slides from the pictures in the Eugene Thomas collection. Though it was given at the center a year ago, requests were made for a repeat performance.

Monday is a busy day at the center with Spanish from 10 a.m. to noon; travel pictures from 1 to 3 p.m. and a knitting class, under the direction of Mrs. Edward Barnett, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Because of the activity, the executive board of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging had to schedule its meeting on Monday, April 29, at the Red Cross auditorium from 3 to 5 p.m. At this meeting, the celebration of Senior Citizens Month of May will be discussed. An open house tea and exhibit at the center has been held each of the last four years.

Suggestions on activities from seniors using the center will be welcome and may be telephoned or written to the center committee in care of Mrs. Fred Rankin, chairman. New Activity

A new activity will start Thursday, May 2, from 10 a.m. to noon. It will be a class of clay sculpture to be taught by Mrs. Ruby Ralston. Mrs. Ralston gave a demonstration of her work at the last meeting of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists of which she is a member.

The course will last five weeks and those interested should attend the first demonstration meeting on May 2. Class registration and information on materials needed will be given at that time.

New members are welcome to enter the Mosaic class on Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon. The oil painting class meets Tuesday afternoons and the copper tooling class on Wednesday, both from 1 to 3 p.m.

The Senior Center orchestra, headed by William Pickell, is looking for new members. Any senior who formerly played an instrument may attend the regular practice meeting on Thursdays from 1 to 3 p.m. This orchestra has a variety of instruments and is open to all interested seniors. There are several instruments which have been donated to the group and may be used by new members.

Persons may contact the director or the secretary, Mrs. Pearl Spackman for information.

Bridge Group

The Saturday bridge group, headed by L. C. Davis, has room for more players. It meets from 1 to 4 p.m. Mrs. Maude Coddling is their advisor after conducting bridge classes for them last winter.

The Sunday Singing Senior group plans to resume their songsters soon.

Forty-three seniors took part in the Senior center's booth at the Crater Lions Fun Fair last week end and in the Cancer Tea at Hillcrest the previous Wednesday.

Representatives To Speak For Women's Group

Mrs. Irma Norleman and Mrs. Winifred Nicholson, national representatives of the Christian Business and Professional Women's council, will speak at a coming meeting of the Medford council. The women are from Kansas City, Mo.

The meeting will be held Thursday, May 2, at 6:15 p.m. at North's restaurant and will have a mother-daughter theme.

A program of vocal and instrumental music will be given.

Girls from Medford High school will model garments made in a class taught by Mrs. Keith Hockersmith. Some of the students also designed the garments they made.

Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. DeWain Phillips, 482-1070, or Mrs. Harold Johnson, 482-3052.

Three Recitals Are Presented

The last recital in a series of three given by the pupils of members of the Rogue Valley district, Oregon Music Teachers association, was held last week at Purucker's Music House, Medford.

Playing were Nancy Diment, Sylvia Prentice, Carvel Gottfried, Kathy Keiser, Danny Wilson, Chris Herndobler, Sydney Smith, Jeffrey Hawks, Dian Demo, Bruce McKenzie, Kathy Lee, Saro Jo Diment, Shirlee Smith, Valerie Hostetter, Judy Wilson and Carl Cluff.

They are pupils of Mrs. Kenneth Brown, Mrs. Harold Head, Mrs. Darrell Huson, Mrs. Frank Glonning, Mrs. Edla Peterson and Mrs. Oluf Oleson.

In Los Angeles
Hornbrook — Mr. and Mrs. Robert Phillips and sons Bobby and Paul were recently in Los Angeles for a week as guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Salido and two daughters.

Mrs. Riddell Lage, Hood River, (at left) president of the Oregon Home Extension council, was one of the speakers for the annual Homemakers' Festival given by members of Jackson county home extension units Tuesday in the Central Point Grange hall. Mrs. Lage is pictured here with Miss Data Hochhalter (center) new Jackson county home extension agent, and Mrs. David Kahl, Eagle Point, retiring chairman of the Jackson County Home Extension Advisory committee. About 300 women from all parts of the county attended the festival.

Chairman Announced For BTL

Mrs. Ralph Hibbs has been named chairman of the annual membership campaign of Medford Broadway Theater league. Headquarters for the drive will be at Rogue gallery, 220 East Main street, and it will be conducted May 12-18.

Mrs. Hibbs will be assisted by Mrs. B. D. Mitchell, Mrs. Robert Dickey, Mrs. Arlon Skinner, Mrs. Norman Caspey and other interested persons. Anyone able to give volunteer time to the drive is asked to phone Mrs. Mitchell.

Considerable interest is being shown in the coming season's plays, it is stated. Those wishing to renew their memberships may call Mrs. Skinner, 772-8913.

Plays already booked are "The Sound of Music," "Take Her, She's Mine," and "A Man for All Seasons." A fourth play will be announced later.

Topics Noted For Meetings Of Two Groups

The art of cake decorating, the repairing of hymn books and quilting, will be held during the Tuesday, April 30, meeting of the 2nd Ward Relief society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Mrs. Bruce Rawlins will conduct the session, instructing the women in cake decorating.

District 3 will set the tables for the potluck luncheon at noon. Women are to take their own table service and a picnic lunch for the children. Mrs. Elzy Kees will be in charge of the nursery.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street. All interested women are invited to attend.

Mrs. William Turner will present the theology lesson from Section 63 of the Doctrine and Covenants at the meeting Wednesday, May 1, of the 1st Ward Relief society, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The lesson will emphasize the importance of obeying the Lord's commandments. The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. at the church, 648 South Ivy street. Any women interested in the program may attend. A nursery will be provided.

Security Club Plans Dance, Honor Birthdays

Security Benefit club members planned a dance for Friday, May 10 during their meeting April 24 in the Pythian building. Members of the club whose birthdays are in April also were honored.

Seated at the table for the honored guests were Mrs. Walter Krug, Mrs. Adelaide Simmons, Mrs. Ellaleen Townsend, Mrs. Ida Whitaker, Mrs. Ruth Triller, Mrs. Lora Stewart, Mrs. Leatha Jones, Z. J. Collings, Mrs. Sylvia Matney and James Bishop.

A report was given on a dance held April 19.

The club meets each Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Pythian building. Luncheon is served at noon and dancing is conducted from 2 to 4 p.m. following a business meeting. All interested persons are invited.

Bridge Players In Redding for Tournament

About 20 bridge players from the Medford Duplicate club are in Redding, Calif., today to attend a sectional session which opened there April 26 and will close this afternoon.

The next major event on the Medford club's schedule is a men's and women's pairs championship tournament planned for two Tuesday evenings, May 14 and May 21.

During the April 23 regular play of the club 11 tables of players competed. The Mitchell movement was used.

Mrs. Leland Clark and Mrs. Frank Baker won first place in the north-south position, with a score of 135½ points. The second place in that position went to Mrs. R. T. Jones and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, 115½; third, Mrs. Dolph Phipps, and

Health Clinic Survey Is Made

Wilderville — Mrs. Catherine Ford, county health nurse, met with the Wilderville school Parent Teacher association executive committee recently. She was taking a survey of Josephine county schools, as to the feasibility of setting up a mental health clinic in the county, and the reactions of parents to the project.

It was explained a board for the clinic would consist of doctors, ministers, attorneys and psychology aides. The group was unanimous in approval of such a program for Josephine county.

Gardeners Plan For Installation

Eagle Point — Installation of officers for Eagle Point Garden club will highlight a meeting Wednesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Glenn D. Hale, 35 West Sixth street. Dessert will be served at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Augusta Perry as co-hostess.

Officers to be installed include Mrs. C. E. Kimmel, president; Mrs. D. Jackson, vice president; Mrs. Paul Force, secretary; Mrs. Jack Grow, treasurer; and Mrs. Ray Harsh, historian.

TOPS

The organization of TOPS plans a meeting for Tuesday, April 20 at 7 p.m. in the social room of the Medford and Jackson County Public library. Persons interested in "taking off pounds sensibly" are invited to join the group, officers state.

Guaranteed MOOTHPROOFING!

FREE!

Guard your fine woollens against moth damage—at no extra cost. We'll mothproof them unconditionally, and return everything Sanitone clean, luxuriously soft and new looking. Get this complete, professional service today!

Phone 772-6165
for Free Pickup and Delivery

Save Time Save Steps
Use Our Convenient DRIVE-IN SERVICE
Drive Right Up to the Door!

Bumas' Domestic
LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS
80-82 N. Riverside • Medford, Oregon
Your Professional Laundry
Serving the Rogue Valley Since 1900
"Nothing Makes Clothes as Clean as a Laundry"

SAVE 4 1/4% per annum

JCF Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

Home Office—2 E. Main, Medford • Ashland Branch—337 E. Main, Ashland

Live in COOL COMFORT with

GAS AIR CONDITIONING

CLEAN — DEPENDABLE — QUIET — ECONOMICAL — CONVENIENT

NOW! THERE'S A MODEL TO FIT EVERY HOME

ARKLA
Servel
GAS
air conditioning

SELECT YOURS FROM 17 MODELS

ALL YEAR AIR CONDITIONERS
Usually built into your building but can be installed, outside. Nine models. Six draw air in at the bottom, heat and cool it, filter, dehumidify and circulate it through ducts in the attic. Three models for perimeter heating and cooling—they draw air in at the top and discharge it through duct systems under the floor.

CHILLER-HEATERS
Chill or heat water in a sealed system. The companion fan-coil filter unit is small, to fit in attic, crawl space, or closet. If you now have a central heating system, chances are you can install it outside or in the basement and attach fan-coil filter assembly to existing ducts. Six models. Three designed for outside installation and three inside.

WATER CHILLERS
Two models for cooling only. One installs outside, the other inside. Very similar to Chiller-Heaters—but produce summer cooling only. Ideal for those who want to add summer cooling to their home.

CALIFORNIA-PACIFIC UTILITIES COMPANY
YOUR PARTNER IN WESTERN PROGRESS

PHONE 772-5281, MEDFORD 482-2116, ASHLAND