

Area Garden Club Women Named District Officers

Mrs. Ira Fitzgerald, 3488 New Ray road, Central Point was elected Siskiyou district director of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs at a recent spring district convention. Sessions were held in the Women's Civic club auditorium, in Grants Pass, with the Grants Pass and Sunny Valley clubs as host groups.

Mrs. LeRoy Cline, Medford was elected assistant director; Mrs. Dale Hoover, Ashland, secretary; Mrs. A. O. Floyd, Medford, treasurer. Retiring district officers who conducted the meeting were Mrs. O. V. Poe, Medford, director; Mrs. L. C. Gordon, Central Point, assistant; Mrs. Dale Hoover, Ashland, secretary and Mrs. Fitzgerald, treasurer.

Don MacGregor, county commissioner of Josephine county, welcomed the group.

Mrs. Harry O. Smith, Cave Junction horticulturist and hybridizer, spoke on "Perennial Favorites."

Music was provided by Ron Hollensted, Grants Pass, music director of Grants Pass High school and his choir, the Triple trio.

Students from South Junior High school gave lessons on conservation with a skit. Winners of the 1963 conservation poster and essay contest were announced by Mrs. Fitzgerald.

Event Planned In Rogue River

Rogue River - Civic Improvement club members made plans at a recent meeting for a breakfast to be served senior students of Rogue River High school. This is an annual event given in May by the club in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

During the meeting Mrs. Ralph Chapin announced that 10 community concert tickets

Convention Delegates To Be Elected For Barracks, Auxiliary

Department convention delegates will be elected at a meeting of Veterans of World War I, Barracks 546 and auxiliary, Wednesday, May 1, at 8 p.m. at the Girls' Community club. The convention will be held in Grants Pass June 5-8.

Approximately 40 members of the local barracks and auxiliary attended the quarterly meeting and dinner of District 7 in Tri-City Sunday, April 21. Officers for the coming year were elected during the business session, and installed following the dinner.

Donna Hill Is Named Prom Queen

Phoenix—Miss Donna Hill, a senior at Phoenix High school, was crowned queen of the 1963 Junior-Senior prom held recently in the Rogue Valley Country club. Her court was made up of princesses, Miss Penny Simmonds, Miss Dorothy James and Miss Darlene Coffman. Their escorts were Dale Sauer, Dan Cooper, Dennis Grennan and Wayne Cardosa.

Murals and banners depicting Roman scenes were used as backdrops for the event. The art work was furnished by Michael Thorniley, Talent. Dick Moody, Radio Station KMED, was guest speaker. Ernest James, superintendent of Phoenix-Talent schools and E. M. Skipwith, principal of Phoenix High school, also spoke. The senior class prophecy and will also were read.

Plan Meetings

Two PEO sisterhood chapters have scheduled meetings this week.

Chapter CP of the PEO sisterhood will meet at 12:30 for luncheon on Wednesday, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Chandler Drew, Dry Creek road. She will be assisted by Mrs. John Graff and Mrs. Dewey Wilson.

An educational program entitled, "Rings of Knowledge" will be presented by Mrs. Laurel Case.

Chapter CG will meet for luncheon at 12:30, May 1, at the home of Mrs. Richard House, 15 Corning court.

Miss Roseanne Legas will speak and show slides of her European tour during the summer of 1962. Following the business meeting, a used book auction will be held, and members are reminded to bring books which may be of no further use to them.

Camp Fire Girls Elect Directors

Mrs. Ella Hendrixon and Henry Enders, Ashland, and Mrs. Frank Christian, Talent, were elected to the board of directors of the Camp Fire Girls recently.

Appointed to committees were Mrs. Mae Lowe, Talent, and Sam Price, Medford.

The camping chairman reported that a number of applications for camps have been received. It was noted that camp space is limited and girls should get their reservations in early.

Mrs. Roger Westerfield, Rogue council president, announced that there were still several vacancies on the board and these must be filled by June 1.

Mrs. Westerfield and Mrs. Pierce Roberts left Thursday for the regional conference in Richland, Wash.

Mother Visits

Hornbrook - A recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chadwick and children was her mother, Mrs. George Storm of Oakland, Calif. Mrs. Chadwick and her mother drove to Tacoma, Wash., to spend a few days with Mrs. Storm's aunt, Mrs. Ellen Rauen.

Puppet Makers Are Needed

Groups or individuals interested in making "Pinky Puppets" for children patients at Rogue Valley Memorial hospital are needed by the auxiliary, according to Mrs. Leonard B. Mayfield, president. When supplies permit, each child admitted to the pediatrics unit is given a hand puppet by the "Pink Lady" operating the cart service that day.

Nurses report that the small patients enjoy playing with the toys throughout their hospital stay, and the gift goes home with the child as a souvenir.

Recent expansion of the pediatrics unit has brought the number of beds to 13, and during the month of March this year 56 new admissions were made. The number of puppets needed varies from month to month, but the supply is currently exhausted and groups which have made them in the past have dropped the project now, Mrs. Mayfield reports.

The auxiliary provides faces, materials and patterns for the puppets. While the work has usually been done before by outlying chapters, the auxiliary board would make space and sewing machines available to a group which might like to meet at the hospital to make puppets.

Further information can be obtained from Mrs. H. B. Murphy, telephone 772-6019.

To Elect

Wednesday Study club members will meet in the home of Mrs. Ramsey Miller, 708 Sherman Street, for 1 p.m. luncheon, Wednesday May 1. This will be the final meeting of the year and officers will be elected.

WWI Auxiliary To Sponsor Dance

The auxiliary to Veterans of World War I, Department of Oregon, will sponsor a dance Monday, April 29 at 8 p.m., in the theater building at the Veterans Domiciliary, White City.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Musicians union, Local 597. Those who need transportation may go by bus at 7:30 p.m., from Greyhound depot.

MANOR-ISMS

By ETHELYN EVANS

Our newest Manor members are Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Koenig, from Davenport, Iowa. An interesting and interested couple plucked from our waiting list when a vacancy developed. Hope they like us!

Comes now still another valley organization invited to meet in the Manor Club room. It is Electa Social club of the Order of Eastern Star. Miss Irma Barnes, Mrs. R. J. Donelson, Mrs. M. G. Leslie, Mrs. Bernice Rice and Mrs. D. S. Stevens were the Manor hostesses for about 40 members, serving a dessert luncheon.

Mrs. Mabel Johnston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Lee Ellsworth, in the Manor. Mrs. C. C. Collins and Mrs. F. R. Olds gave a beautiful tea in her honor in Mrs. Collins' large, corner apartment. Mrs. Olds again served those tiny, delicious sandwiches which I, personally, never can get enough of. Mrs. Emerson Bowers entertained at a Country club luncheon for Mrs. Johnston.

While one of a large number of guests at a brunch and bridge, given at the Rogue Valley club by Mrs. George Hammond and Mrs. Joe Day, Manor members, I tried to find out the exact number of Manor people who are members of the Country club. That was too, too much of a job, they told me; but it is safe to guess that about half of us belong there. "Seems as if" the rest might as well be considered members, since they are invited as guests or co-hosts or hostesses at so many parties or affairs at the club.

Recently Mrs. Fred James and Mrs. Mildred Bello gave a bridge luncheon for forty Manor women there; Mrs. Beatrice Brooks and Mrs. Marie Lewis gave a luncheon and bridge; Mrs. D. F. McCormick and Mrs. W. W. Howard invited friends for two parties, as did Miss Aureli Spencer; and during the time the club was holding bi-monthly dinners with entertainment, from 30 to 60 Manor members arrived each time. Likewise, we have Manor golf enthusiasts who trudge around the course, rain or shine. I could go on and on, but I'm sure all this establishes the fact that Manor members appreciate and enjoy our Country club neighbors.

Easter vacation houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. Hull, 7 Eastwood drive, were Miss Nancy Duncan from Willamette university, Salem, and her brother, Angus Duncan, who is a student at Medford members and remind our long-time residents here that Congressman Duncan represents the 4th Oregon district, which includes the Manor Precinct No. 56x, and that they should be interested in all he is doing and write him their opinions and desires.

Other Manor members entertaining houseguests are the Arthur McNeelys. Their daughter, Evelyn, and friend, Fern Dailey, drove down from Seattle; and Miss Clayton Burrow and Miss Emily DeVore entertained Oregon's Director of Elementary Education, Dr. Florence Beardsley.

KNOW YOUR FURNITURE

PHYFE GOT A BREAK AND BECAME FAMOUS

Duncan Phyfe was only a struggling hopeful until he sold some of his furniture to multi-millionaire John Jacob Astor. Once the Astors, who were social leaders, approved, wealthy people clamored for his furniture . . . and Duncan Phyfe was on his way to becoming an immortal in the field of American furniture design.

Phyfe always leaned to small scaled furniture and was never known to work with any wood but mahogany.

You'll see Duncan Phyfe designs proudly on display at Dempsters. You'll be surprised at the "new" look in mahogany today, using browntones and fruitwood finishes.

Come visit Southern Oregon's "furniture showplace," all on one floor, in harmonious room settings. Our courteous salespeople will be glad to show you our fine furniture. Best of all, there's lots of front door parking!
