Reception Marks Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey D. Jones, 320 Mary street, observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary April 20. A reception was given in their honor by their son, Charles Jones and their daughter, Mrs. Jack Harney, Sacramento, Calif.

The event, in the home of their son at 711 Sherman street, was attended by nearly 50 friends and relatives.

Among those there were the couple's four grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

The anniversary cake was made by a former neighbor of the couple, Mrs. Evelyn Andrews, who now lives in Sacramento.

The honored couple was married April 19, 1913 in Etna Mills, Calif. They lived in Klamath Falls for 16 years then moved to Portland. From there they came to Medford in 1946. Until retiring Mr. Jones was employed by Elk Lumber company.

Central Point PTA Officers Are Elected

Central Point - Mrs. Ray Guss was elected president of the Central Point Junior High and Elementary Parent Teacher association at their meeting April 18. Other officers elected were Mrs. Ronald Boes, first vice president; Mrs. Lewis Burrough, second vice president; Mrs. Lewis Collins, secretary, and Mrs. Charles Klutensbeker, treasurer.

A joint installation with Jewett PTA will be held at the May 21 meeting.

Jack McCoy, principal at Central Point Elementary school, announced that studying at the school will give a talent show April 28 at 12 noon.

C. A. Meyer reminded members of the school election May 6.

Mrs. Warren Holbrook, retiring second vice president, asked for more trading stamps to be used toward a coffee service. They may be left at Jewett, Central Point High or Central Point Elementary schools.

It was also announced that Harry Meyers day will be held at the spring concert May 10.

Before the business meeting members were entertained by tap dancers Roni, Ricky and Lee Korner, and Debbie Taylor.

Girls from the Fun to Sew 4-H club conducted a model business meeting.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Lewis Collins.

Faculty Wives Meet for Tea

Ashland - Mrs. Elmo Stevenson was hostess Sunday afternoon for the annual spring tea of the Faculty Wives club of Southern Oregon college.

Mrs. Elliott MacCracken and Mrs. Esby McGill were co-chairman for the social event held at the president's manse.

The theme, Hais and Flowers, was used in table decorations arranged by Mrs. McGill and in a floral display and hat fashions from Ashland and Medford shops.

Included were miniature millinery creations by Mrs. Vaughn Borner and Mrs. McGill. Flower arrangements were by the Mesdames Eugene Bowman, Alva Graham, Glenn Mathews, Alex Petersen, John Reid, Bill Sampson and Chester Squire.

During the afternoon tea was served from a candle-lit table centered with lilies and pink carnations in an antique grape compote. Those presiding were the Mesdames Don Lewis, Dean Phelps, Loy Prickett, Frank Sturges, Borner, Graham, and Mathews.
