

Spahn Has Best Start in Five Seasons; Wins Fourth Tussle

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Can Warren Spahn surpass the National league record of 373 victories shared by Hall of Famers Christy Mathewson and Grover Cleveland Alexander before he hangs up his glove?

The first inclination is to say no but the 'idea isn't so far-fetched after all when you consider that the 42-year-old Milwaukee Brave left-hander reached the 331-mark and is off to his fastest start in five years. He could reach the 350-mark this year and then have another year and a half or two years to shoot for a new record.

Spahn scored the 331st victory of his career Sunday when he pitched the Braves to a 3-1 decision over the San Francisco Giants. That gave him a 4-1 record—his best start since 1958 when he won his first five decisions and he even is ahead of that season's timetable because he did not chalk up his fourth win of '58 until May 4.

Spahn was either 3-2 or 2-3 after five decisions in each of the last four years and the dates on which he won No. 4 in 1959 through 1962 were May 13, June 5, May 12 and May 18, respectively. Tapped for 11 hits.

Spahn was tapped for 11 hits Sunday but didn't walk a batter and was helped by two double plays. He had a shutout until the ninth when Felipe Alou tripled and scored on an error and his season's run average for this year is 1.67. Spahn himself drove in the winning run with an eight-inning single and Hank Aaron's seventh homer of the season added a run in the ninth.

The St. Louis Cardinals downed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 9-5, the Houston Colts beat the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, the Chicago Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the New York Mets, 3-2, in other National league games.

The Cardinals completed a sweep of their three-game series with the Dodgers on the wings of a 15-hit attack that included two homers by Ken Boyer and three hits by Charlie James. Ernie Broglio went 6½ innings to win his third game while Johnny Podres dropped his third decision for the Dodgers. Bill Skowron homered for the Dodgers.

Bob Armstrong's ninth-inning single scored Carl Warwick with the winning run for the Colts, who replaced the Mets in ninth place. Hal Woodeshick won his first game for the Colts with four innings of one-hit pitching in relief of Hector Brown. It was the Reds' fifth loss in six games.

Ron Santo and Ernie Banks hit successive eight-inning homers as the Cubs rallied for four runs in the eighth inning to give Bob Buhl his second win. Don Demeter homered for the Phillies.

Elroy Face pitched two hitless innings in relief to win his second game for the Pirates when Bill Mazeroski's bloop single scored Bob Skinner with the winning run in the eighth inning. Jim Pagnaroni homered for the Pirates.

Excellent Pitching in Coast Loop

The Pacific Coast league is producing some excellent pitching these days, and if it keeps up at anything like Sunday's pace there is likely to be a rash of extra batting practice sessions in the offing.

Three doubleheaders and two single games were played Sunday, not one of which could be classified in the run-away category. In fact, the two single contests went into extra innings before they were decided, and five of the six twin-bill games were decided by two runs or less.

Seattle swept a pair from Hawaii, 3-2 and 2-0, to increase its lead over second-place Portland in the Northern Division to 1 1/2 games, and Oklahoma took both ends of its twin bill with Spokane, 5-3 and 1-0, to remain atop the Southern division standings.

The other doubleheader went to Tacoma. The Giants defeated the Dallas-Ft. Worth Rangers 6-2 in the first game, then came back to take the nightcap by a 3-1 score.

The two extra-inning contests saw Salt Lake City shade San Diego 3-2 in 12 innings, while Portland got the better of Denver, 8-5 in 11 frames.

The Portland-Denver contest was decided when Ken Harrelson ripped a three-run homer in the bottom of the 11th. The win went to Moe Drabowski, who came on in the sixth. He held the Bears scoreless and gave up only four hits.
