BPW Club Women Elect; Delegates Are Named

Mrs. Verna Redmond was re-elected president of the Medford Business and Professional Women's club during elections held April 18 in the Girls Community club. Mrs. Lola Brennan and Miss Catherine Caldwell were elected first and second vice presidents. Mrs. Ruth Boyd, recording secretary; Mrs. Maxine Bigalow, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Anne Palmer, treasurer; and Mrs. Rowena Coleman, auditor.

Directors elected were Miss Gladys Durrand, Miss Peggy Ann Hutchinson, Mrs. Clara Mall, and Mrs. Louise Miller. Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. Boyd, Miss Laura York and Mrs. Bigalow were selected to attend the state convention in Portland May 17 through 19.

Miss York, retiring first vice president and program chairman, introduced Miss Lucille Lenox, chairman of the National security committee in charge of the evening's program. Miss Lenox then presented the first guest speaker, Mrs. Lewis Simpson, whose late husband, known to many as "Doc" Simpson, was the organizer of Roxy Radio.

Mrs. Simpson, who helped with the organization and worked many years with the service, told of its growth, functions and services to the people through communication for disaster, fires, missing persons, accidents and other emergencies. This two-way communication network of the Southern Oregon Conservation and Tree Farm association is a "pioneer" in the field as it was the first cooperative forest industry radio system in the United States.

Roxy Radio was organized in 1947 with 30 mobile units and a base station. The system now has grown to approximately 130 mobile units plus supporting base stations. The service has received much nationwide publicity.

Mrs. Vincent Nicoletti, home service chairman of the Red Cross, the second guest speaker, told of the organization, the activities and the financing of the local Red Cross and Civil defense.

Each, she explained, has a separate field, yet the two work together cooperatively and with close coordination. She explained Red Cross operations pertaining to three different fields: disaster, emergency and rehabilitation.

During the business, the club voted to contribute to the Scholastic Awards banquet and to the dinner honoring members of the School Safety patrol. An invitation was received from the Gold Beach BPW club to attend a

Yreka Garden Clubs Discuss New District

Yreka—Discussion on the proposed creation of a Siskiyou County Garden clubs district, and the local club's withdrawal from the Oregon federation to affiliate with California's, was a highlight of the April meeting of both the afternoon and evening sessions of the Yreka Garden club.

A final decision as to whether the garden clubs in Siskiyou county should form their own district will be made in May.

There was also discussion on the flower show to be presented in conjunction with an exhibit by the Siskiyou Artists association on May 26 in Winema hall. Schedules for the flower show, prepared by Mrs. Howard Mulica, general chairman, were distributed.

It was announced that Mrs. Mulica will give a lesson on flower show techniques at her home on May 13 at 8 p.m. for members of both garden club groups. The evening session will meet at 7:30 p.m., at the Mulica home for a brief business session preceding the flower show program.

The meeting of the Yreka afternoon group was held at the home of Mrs. Townley in Little Shasta.

In addition to the business session, conducted by Mrs. James Sullivan, president, there was a pruning demonstration in the Townley garden by M. L. Schmidlin.

In observance of the birthday of Mrs. W. D. Houston, her great aunt, Mrs. Ora McGreggor, served birthday cake to members and guests.

The evening section's meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Arnold Grenvik on Shamrock road, conducted by Mrs. Vergil Nelson, chairman.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson was elected to serve as chairman for the coming year and Mrs. Arnold Grenvik was named secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Roy Eskew, Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Merriman attended the annual Eugene district meeting of the WSCS recently held at First Methodist church, Medford.

During the program and worship portion of the meeting Mrs. Dorman and Mrs. Bornoman explained how a globe of the world, violets, fern, and a crown of thorns, which were placed on the worship table, were used as Christian symbols.

Many Medford women were in Ashland last week for the annual card party given by the Ashland committee of the American Cancer society as a benefit. Among those at the party were (left to right) Mrs. Ralph Krows, Mrs. Ralph Lue, Mrs. Vern Brophy and Mrs. Harry Nordwick. Mrs. Ernest Tischhauser (standing) was co-chairman of the project with Mrs. Gerald Scannell. April is observed as Cancer month each year. (Whitland Locke photo)

Ashland ACS Unit Party Benefits Cancer Society

Ashland — The fourth annual dessert card party benefit sponsored by the Ashland unit, American Cancer society, April 24 in the Mark Anthony hotel netted $231.50 in proceeds, according to those in charge of the event.

Thirty-five tables of bridge and pinocle were in play.

Mrs. Gerald Scannel and Mrs. Ernest Tischhauser were co-chairmen for the event for which "Over the Rainbow" was the theme. Mrs. Sam Davis, branch special events chairman, assisted.

Decorations were done by students from Ashland, including the Southern Oregon college kindergarten, Lincoln, Walker Briscoe, Bellview, the Ashland Junior and Senior High schools and Southern Oregon college.

Flowers were donated and arranged by the Ashland Garden club under direction of Mrs. R. H. Westerfield.

Other decorations included a rainbow across the stage with the pot of gold made up of prizes which were awarded.

Tables were covered with colored cloths centered with teapots and bags of gold. Mrs. Dan Engle was in charge of the tables.

Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. J. W. McCoy, who played a medley of spring songs on the piano. Mrs. Philip Selby, general chairman of the Ashland unit, was master of ceremonies.
