

Registration Set For Lone Pine Kindergarten

Lone Pine - Pre-registration by the PTA for students wishing to attend the month of May kindergarten will be held Friday, May 3, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. at Lone Pine school.

Registration will be held in the audio-visual aids room, downstairs in the old building. Registration for the month will be $5 to cover costs of hiring the teacher and purchasing supplies.

Only children that will attend Lone Pine next fall will be registered.

Mrs. Mabel Hundley will be engaged as teacher again this year.

Parents are asked to arrange their own car pools to provide transportation home beginning Monday, May 6.

Morning bus transportation schedules will be determined at the registration.

Physical examinations and birth certificates are required to enter school next fall, at which time these youngsters attending the kindergarten are again advised to re-register.

Parents are advised to have their children's physical examinations later in the summer.

For further information, call 772-8669, the school office.

Events Planned To Benefit IOOF Fund

Gold Hill - Among projects planned this month for which proceeds are all earmarked for the Odd Fellows and Rebekah building fund is a fried chicken dinner Sunday from 4 to 7 p.m. in the multi-purpose room at Patrick Elementary school. The public is invited.

A benefit dance for the building fund will be given Saturday, May 4 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the American Legion hall at Central Point. The Melodious Four orchestra will provide music.

Arrangements have been completed to hold a rummage sale on May 20 at the Fehl building in Medford. Mrs. Paul Molley, a member of the I.O.O.F. building fund committee said those who have items suitable for this purpose may contact the Amethyst Rebekah lodge telephone committee, Mrs. George Dorman, Mrs. Thomas Z. Smith, Mrs. Cassie Johnson, or Mrs. Lester Parker.

AT POTTER'S WHEEL—During evening portions of the Crater High school art show, Gary Vincent demonstrated use of the potter's wheel.

Kerbyville Museum Will Reopen Today

Kerby - The Kerbyville museum will open to the public beginning today. Curator Mrs. Doris Boyd has been busy doing the spring cleaning and painting.

Mrs. Arthur Cribb donated a flat of pansy plants for the front flower garden.

Mrs. Barbara Tucker has offered to make a throw rug on the museum's loom. The Josephine County Historical society will furnish the material and this will be added to the display.

A 1888 Phaeton that belonged to J. A. Tolin is one item under restoration. J. A. was the son of Edward Tolin, who arrived in the valley in 1858 and was a butcher in the old Waldo mining town.

Edward Tolin homesteaded in the Deer Creek valley and later became a state senator. His son J. A. used the Phaeton as Sunday-best transportation around the Illinois Valley. The rig was put on loan by Robert Laggerman, a great nephew of H. A. Tolin.

Mrs. Arthur Cribb has donated the museum a supply of stamped envelopes and writing paper. The museum will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily this year. Mrs. Murphy Hicks will also be on duty throughout the summer.

Shady Cove Students Win District Awards

Shady Cove - Four district awards were won by Shady Cove students entering the conservation poster and essay contest which is sponsored yearly by the Shady Cove Garden club.

Entrants from the fifth grade were Tim Tepper and Ted Spence, from the sixth grade Scott Campbell, Janice Bowdoin, Nancy Brophy, Aude Espourteille, Patricia Harris, Sharon Jack, Edward Learning, Steven Spence, Susan Stauffer and Barbara Winslow and from the eighth grade Joe Adams, Max Adams, Connie Burnett, Jim Paulson, Sandra Paulson and Teri Spence.

Those winning the district awards were Aude Espourteille (poster), Sandra Paulson (poster), all third place winners. Teri Spence received first award for her essay which has been sent on for state competition.

The posters and essays are judged locally in the garden club. Then the entries chosen as first are sent to be judged with all entrants in the district. First place winners from here are then sent for state competition.

There are small cash awards given to district winners, and the state awards are $15, $10, $5, honorable mention and Rosette ribbons.

Mrs. Delbert Spain of Shady Cove has been chairman of this program for the past four years. The program has enjoyed good participation by the students, with more district winners this year than before, and a state entry for the first time.

Regional Roundup

by Cleve Twitchell
Mail Tribune Regional Editor

Mary Colley, our Central Point correspondent, covered the art show at Crater High school recently and came away so impressed that she felt compelled to write the following:

"Too often our teen-agers make headlines in the wrong way, perhaps not as often as it seems, but it's just that juvenile delinquency makes the front page. Crater High students deserve much praise for the work done on the art show. They are to be congratulated for their outstanding use of their talents.

"In talking with them during my five trips to the show I found them to be interesting and interested in what they were doing. I questioned them on the methods they were using and the length of time put into their projects. Some had as much as 60 hours invested in one piece of work.

"Their parents and friends must be very proud of them.

"Their teachers, Warren Holbrook, Marvin Hayes and Charles Moore are to be commended for helping them make good use of their talents.

"I would like to thank all the students who took part in the spring art and industrial arts exhibit, for the several enjoyable and rewarding hours I spent there."

Flowers in Siskiyou County

"Spring sort of 'sprung' Sunday and called for a ride down the Klamath river and up the Beaver Creek road a ways," reports Doris Robinson, our Yreka correspondent. "The first wildflowers seen this season were in evidence on the hillsides and along the river bank in profusion and a very welcome sight after this prolonged winter weather.

"We saw great bunches of purple lupine and California Poppies of bright yellow, white snowdrops with their sweet fragrance and tall willow red bells. Shrubs in bloom were Chaparral and Manzanita. The graceful branches of the weeping willows look like green lace moving in the breeze and the fruit trees were in full bloom in the orchards of homes facing the river. Everywhere the grass was the tenderest green and the river was hurrying along bank full with white foam on the riffles.

"Fishermen were out trying their luck and we knew that picnic time was here again. It is a fine road and winds along the river all the way from the Klamath River bridge, seven miles north of Yreka, where you turn west. We advise anyone looking for a beautiful Sunday ride to take it, as it certainly is well worthwhile."

Four Win Superior Ratings At Crater Speech Festival

Superior ratings were made to four district 6 students who participated in the speech festival at Crater High school April 27.

C. A. Meyer, superintendent of schools, presented awards to Kathy Walden, for humorous reading; Beth Kroon, serious reading; Linda Reed, poetry reading (all Central Point) and Danny Rice, oratorical declamation (Gold Hill).

All 60 students participating were awarded ribbons based on their rating of good, excellent, or superior.

Judges were students from Crater varsity squad, past debate squad members, SOC professors, members of the Crater faculty and interested townspeople.
